DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I.T., AUGUST 27, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lucinda Brady for enrollment of Richard Sutherlin and two children, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said ~~Brady~~ being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lucinda Brady.
Q How old is Richard? A Between 45 and 50.
Q What district does he reside in? A Illinois.
Q Is he a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, by marriage.
Q Why isn't he here himself? A He is in state's prison.
Q His father and mother are non-citizens? A No sir, they are both dead.
Q What is this wife's name? A Her maiden name was Adelaide Grady.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q When was she married to Robert Sutherlin? A About 22 years ago.
Q What was her father's name? A Samuel R. Grady.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q What was her mother's name? A Sallie.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q What is the name of his children? A Earnest, 18 years old.
On '96 roll, page 907, number 1895.
Q Next? A Jesse, 13 years old.
On '96 roll, page 907, number 1896.
Q Are these children alive and living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q Have they always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q Did Robert Sutherlin live in the Cherokee Nation until he was sent to State prison? A Yes.
Q What would be Richard Sutherlin's postoffice address now? A Vagator, Richard Sutherlin on '80 roll, page 580, number 1887.
The name of Richard Sutherlin appearing upon the authenticated roll of '80, and the name of his wife, Adelaide, now deceased, appearing upon said roll, and the names of their children, Earnest and Jesse, appearing upon the roll of '96, and being fully identified and making satisfactory proof of residence, will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokees, his children by blood, and himself by intermarriage. The appearance of said Richard Sutherlin is waived for the reason that he is incarcerated in prison at Columbus, Ohio.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., SEPT. 13, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Richard Southerlin et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

Upon examination of the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation, now in possession of the Commission, it appears that the mother of the applicants, Earnest and Jesse Southerlin, is identified, as a native Cherokee, on said roll as follows:

1880 roll, page 580, Illinois District, #1688, Adelaide Souther-lin.

It is ordered that a copy of this statement be filed with the testimony in this case.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

 Q. Were all three former husbands dead? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. You were married in '78? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Did you and she live together as husband and wife from the time of your marriage until she died? A. While I was at home we did.
 Q. Well, you had no falling out? A. No, sir.
 Q. Have you ever married since the death of your wife? A. No, sir; never have.
 Q. Never married to any other woman except this Cherokee woman? A. No, sir.
 Q. Are Earnest and Jesse Southerlin your children by your Cherokee wife? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Are these two children living? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How long had your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation before she died? A. She was born here; born and raised here.
 Q. Had she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life up to the time of her death? A. Yes, sir; only at the time of the war she went east.
 Q. Had she lived here from 1860 up until the time she died? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, Mr. Southerlin, after you married your wife how long did you live in the Cherokee Nation?

A. I lived in the Cherokee Nation after me and her was married, up to---I went away from here in '86. Up to '86.

Q. Where have you lived since 1886? A. Well, sir, I have lived in Little Rock, Arkansas; Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Columbus, Ohio.

Q. Have you ever lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1886?

A. Well, I came here once in '87, when my wife died. She was dead when I got home.

Q. You haven't really lived in the Cherokee Nation since '87, have you? A. No, sir.

Q. You wasn't living in the Cherokee Nation June 28th, 1898?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you living June 28th, 1898? A. I was in Columbus. No, I was in Little Rock.

Q. 1898, you mean? A. I was in Columbus.

Q. Living in Columbus? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were you doing in Columbus? A. I was in the pen.

Q. Well, it is important for you to tell what you were doing away from here. A. I was in prison.

Q. When you went away from here in 1887, why did you go away ~~from~~ from here? A. I got into trouble. I was in Fort Smith.

Q. What were you doing in Fort Smith? A. I was in jail.

Q. What were you doing in Little Rock? A. I was in the pen there.

Q. What were you doing in Columbus, Ohio? A. I was in the pen.

 COMMISSION TO FIVE TRICES.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, I. T., FEBRUARY 17, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Richard Southerlin as citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

RICHARD SOUTHERLIN being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

- Q Your name is Richard Southerlin? A Yes sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Rex, I.T.
Q Is that in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a white man? A Yes sir.
Q You claim no rights as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.
A No, I have no Cherokee blood.
Q You claim as an intermarried citizen do you? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the Cherokee Indian through whom you claim your rights? A Adelaide McGilliam, some call it McWilliams, but her name was McGilliams.
Q When were you married to her? A In 1878.
Q Was she your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q Were you her first husband? A No, I was her fourth husband.
Q Were all her previous husbands dead at the time you married her? A Yes sir.
Q You are on the 1880 roll are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Since your marriage to Adelaide McGilliams where have you resided? A Well, I went away from here in 1888.
Q Then you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously from the time you were married up to 1888? A Yes sir.
Q In 1888 where did you go? A I went from here to Little Rock, Ark.
Q How long did you stay there? A I stayed there four years, I went from there to Columbus, Ohio, in 1891, and stayed there, in Columbus, Ohio, until 1902.
Q What were you doing in Little Rock? A I was in prison.
Q What were you doing in Columbus? A I was in prison.
Q For one offense? A Yes sir; I went there under a twenty-one year sentence.
Q You were sentenced in 1888 then for twenty-one years? A Yes sir.
Q When were you released? A I was released in 1902.
Q What month? A 30th day of March, 1902. My name is on all the rolls from 1880 up to the present time.
Q Did you draw any money? A No, only once, . One time they drew what was called bread money, and I was here at that time and drew that.
Q During the time that you were away, from 1888 to 1902, did you have any property in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, I owned horses and cattle and hogs, and under the Cherokee laws I owned considerable land.
Q Who had charge of that property? A Lucinda Brady.
Q Who was she? A She was an aunt of my wife; I had no relatives that took any interest in me or my affairs, but this old lady looked after my interests, took care of my property and raised my children after my wife died.

- Q You married this Cherokee woman in 1878? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live with her? A Until 1885 when I got into this trouble. I stood one trial and came clear at Fort Smith, and came home, and then in 1886 I was re-arrested. My wife died in 1887.
Q Where did she die? A In the Cherokee Nation, on our farm there.
Q You never separated from her? A Only what time I was away; I was never separated from her.
Q Since your discharge where have you lived? A On our farm in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Now as I understand you then, from the time you married this Cherokee woman in 1878 up until September 1, 1902, you resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation, except during the times you were in prison? A Yes, that is correct.
Q What were you sent up for? A I was charged with murder.
Q Did you have property in the Cherokee Nation, September 1, 1902?
A I had horses and cattle, that was all I claimed at that time, except my wife's property.
Q Was your wife, Adelaide McGilliams of mixed blood? A Yes sir.
Q Mixed with what, what blood? A Creek, Cherokee and white. Her father was a half-blood Cherokee and her mother was half Creek and half Cherokee.
Q Were you married under the Tribal laws? A Yes sir, under the laws of the Cherokee Nation.
Q How old are you? A I will be 64 years old in May next.

- Q. Is he a white man or Indian? A. White man.
- Q. What is the name of your mother? A. Adelaide Sutherlin.
- Q. Is she living or dead? A. She is dead.
- Q. Is she an Indian? A. Yes, sir, Cherokee.
- Q. Was she entire Indian blood? A. I couldn't say.
- Q. Have you got any brothers or sisters? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. How many? A. One brother and one sister.
- Q. What is your brother's name? A. Jesse.
- Q. How old is he at the present time? A. 18.
- Q. Does he live at Rex also? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. What is your sister's name? A. Bettie.
- Q. Bettie Sutherlin? A. No, sir, Bettie Renfro.
- Q. How old is your sister? A. She is 27 years old.
- Q. She is living at the present time? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Where does she live? A. In Wagoner.
- Q. How many children has your sister? A. 3 or 4; 3 living.
- Q. What are their names? A. Willie, Alsie, and Aloy Adelaide.
- Q. You and your brother and sister also claim to have Creek Indian blood? A. No, sir, I don't claim; I am from the Cherokee Nation; my sister does; she lives in the Creek Nation.
- Q. Your mother was of both Creek and Cherokee blood? A. She was Cherokee, I don't know about the Creek.
- Q. Did you ever have any other name except Earnest? A. My nickname was Lol.
- Q. Was your brother ever known by any other name than Jesse?
A. Jim.
- Q. Do you know whether you and your brother ever drew any money as Creeks? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. When did you draw that money? A. Quite a while ago.
- Q. About how old were you then? A. About 10 years old.
- Q. About 15 years ago then was it? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Do you know what name you had then? A. Lol I suppose. I am not sure, it was so long ago.
- Q. Were you ever known by the name of Talele? A. That is the same as Lol in English; Talele is Cherokee.
- Q. How is the name of Sutherlin given in Cherokee or Creek?
A. I don't know.

- Q. Did you ever hear of your name given as Talole Salfan?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. Did you ever know of your brother being called Guske?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. Did you ever have many other brothers or sisters than Jesse and Bettie? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How many other members of your family were there? A. There was 13 children in all I believe.
 Q. Were any of those other brothers or sisters living at the time that payment was made in the Creek Nation? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How many of them? A. Three I believe.
 Q. What were their names? A. Belle Seson, Sam William, Mary Dryden.
 Q. They all were living at that time and have died since?
 A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Did you ever have a sister named Alas Usry? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Was she living at the time of that payment you speak of?
 A. To the best of my knowledge she was dead.
 Q. Your mother, Adelaide Sutherlin, was dead at that time, was she?
 A. Yes, sir.

On the 1890 authenticated Creek roll appear the names of Mary Dryden, Alas Usry, Belle Seson, Sam William, Talole Salfan, Guske Salfan, and Bettie Salfan.

- Q. Did you ever draw any money in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. When was that? A. Time of the strip payment, Cherokee strip payment.
 Q. Did both you and your brother draw at that time? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Did you ever select any allotment in either the Creek or Cherokee Nation. A. My father selected an allotment in the Cherokee Nation.
 Q. For you? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Where were you at that time that you didn't select your own?
 A. I was at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.
 Q. In the United States penitentiary there? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. It appears from the records of the Commission that Earnest and Jesse Southerlin, the children of Richard and Adelaide Southerlin, have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, their names appearing upon the approved roll opposite Nos. 5342 and 5343, having been listed for enrollment on card No. 2058. It further appears that Lol and Earnest Sutherland, the children of Dick and Adelaide Sutherland have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Creek Nation, their names appearing on the approved roll opposite Nos. 8549 and 8550, being listed for enrollment on Creek Card No. 2992. It further appears that an allotment was selected in the Cherokee Nation for the said Earnest Southerlin roll No. 5342 on January 24, 1903, June 16, 1904, and June 16, 1905, and that an allotment was selected in the Cherokee Nation for Jesse Southerlin roll No. 5343 on January 24, 1903, May 15, 1903, and June 16, 1904. It further appears that allotments have been arbitrarily made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the Creek Nation to Lol and Earnest Sutherland Creek Roll Nos. 8549 and 8550.
- Q. It appears that you have been enrolled and your enrollment finally approved by the Secretary of the Interior in both the Creek and Cherokee Nations, and that allotments have been set aside for you in both of these nations; in which Nation is it your desire to receive your allotment of land and final share in the tribal funds? A. Cherokee Nation.

- Q. Is it your desire to give up any rights which you may have as a Creek citizen in order that you may obtain your allotment of lands and distribution of tribal funds with the Cherokee Nation?
- A. It is.
- Q. Is Rex, your postoffice, in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Have you always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Who does your brother Jesse live with? A. My father.
- Q. He lives at home and is in the custody of his father, Richard Sutherland, is he? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Your father lives at Rex also? A. Yes, sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

F. Elma Lane, upon oath, states that she reported the proceedings in the above entitled and numbered cause, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes therein.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
Wagoner, Oklahoma, May 27, 1914.

In the matter of the enrollment and allotment of lands in the Cherokee Nation to Earnest and Jesse Sutherlin, approved Cherokee Roll No's. 5342 and 5343; also in the matter of the enrollment and allotment of lands in the Creek Nation to Lol and Earnest Sutherland, approved Creek Roll No's. 8549 and 8550.

-----oooooooooooooooo-----

Bettie Renfro, being first duly sworn by Laura Cottrell, a notary public in and for Wagoner County, Oklahoma, testified as follows:

Examination conducted on behalf of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes by James C. Kennedy.

- Q What is your name? A Bettie Renfro.
Q How old are you, Mrs. Renfro? A I am thirty-five.
Q Where do you live? A Wagoner.
Q What is the name of your father? A Dick Sutherlin -- we pronounce it S-u-t-h-e-r-l-i-n, but we are sometimes called S-u-t-h-e-r-l-a-n-d.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Adalaide Sutherlin.
Q Are your father and mother living? A My mother is dead.
Q Is your father a citizen? A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers and sisters? A I have two brothers.
Q What are their names? A Earnest and Jesse Sutherlin.
Q Which is the elder? A Earnest.
Q How old is Earnest? A Earnest is about thirty-three years old.
Q How old is Jesse? A Jesse -- let me see -- Jesse is about twenty-five -- there are five or six years difference in their ages.
Q Are they citizens of the Creek Nation or Cherokee Nation? A They are citizens of the Cherokee Nation. I took my allotment in the Creek Nation and they took theirs in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Was Earnest Sutherlin ever known by any other name? A He had a nickname "Lol", and I think that is where they got this mixed up on account of some people calling him Lol.
Q Was Jesse ever known by any other name? A Jesse was sometimes called "Jumbo", Jumbo Harris; they called him Jumbo for a long time, and there are lots of people who don't know but what Jumbo Harris is his right name.
Q Jesse was never known by the name of Earnest, was he? A No.
Q It appears from the record in this case that on August 27, 1900, Lucinda Brady made application for the enrollment of Richard Sutherlin and his two sons, Earnest and Jesse Sutherlin, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A That was when the white people tried to enroll.
Q Now, after this, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on May 24, 1901, arbitrarily enrolled Lol and Earnest as citizens of the Creek Nation? A Who did that.
Q Their names were reported to the Commission for enrollment? A My uncle, Billy Brady, had us enrolled in the Creek Nation, and that is how our names come to get on both rolls - in the Cherokee Nation and Creek Nation - so we had to give up one Nation, and the boys took their allotments in the Cherokee Nation and I took mine in the Creek Nation.
Q Your uncle put Earnest on in the Creek Nation as Lol and put Jesse on in the Creek Nation as Earnest? A That is how the Bettie Renfro ----- 2.

- mistake happened, he enrolled Lol and Earnest in the Creek Nation and they had already been enrolled in the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Now, Lol gave up his allotment in the Creek Nation, but Earnest never surrendered his allotment in the Creek Nation, do you know why Earnest never surrendered his allotment in the Creek Nation? A No, I don't know anything about that.
- Q But you know it was his intention to retain his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and not in the Creek Nation? A Yes, that is right.
- Q And the enrollment of Lol and Earnest as citizens of the Creek Nation was an error? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever heard Earnest say that he was enrolled in both Nations? A Well, I haven't seen him in five years.
- Q Did you ever hear before that the boys were enrolled in both Nations? A Yes, we heard they were enrolled in both Nations, but they took their allotments in the Cherokee Nation.
- Q It was the intention of your father, at the time he gave up Lol's allotment in the Creek Nation, to also give up the allotment made to Earnest, ~~was it~~? A I suppose it was. I know he wouldn't of kept it if he was not entitled to it.
- Q On July 2, 1906, Dick Sutherland appeared at Muskogee, before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and testified that Lol was enrolled in the Cherokee Nation under the name of Earnest, and he conveyed to the Creek Nation the land which had been allotted to Lol therein; do you suppose it was his intention to also reconvey to the Creek Nation the land allotted to his other son under the name of Earnest Sutherland? A I don't know what he intended to do, but I suppose it was.
- Q You think it was an oversight? A Yes sir.
- Q Has Jesse sold his allotment in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever hear that he had sold one in the Creek Nation? A No sir.
- Q You never knew anything about his having an allotment in the Creek Nation? A Well, I thought he had one there, but thought it was a mistake. I thought he let it go back, for it was not his intention to take one in both Nations.

Witness excused.

Vester W. Rose, after being first duly sworn, states that he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the date and at the place therein set forth, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in the matter.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 6, 1906.

Chief Clerk,
Cherokee Land Office.

Dear Sir:

Testimony taken June 22, 1906, shows that Earnest and Jesse Southerlin, whose names appear on Cherokee roll card, field No. 2058, Cherokee roll numbers 5342 and 5343, are also enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, their names appearing on Creek card No. 2992, Creek roll numbers 8549 and 8550. Earnest Southerlin in his testimony of that date elected to be enrolled as a Citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and until the names of these parties shall have been stricken from the approved roll of Creek Citizens, no action should be taken in the preparing of deeds describing land selected as their allotments in the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1860 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the Office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 21, the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 3, 1907, I.T.D. 1398.

With reference to the names of those applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Bixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1873.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1873, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Ex parte vs. the United States (124 U.S., 675) said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

.....
The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation in his lifetime recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under these circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1860, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 31 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 31, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicate that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true, it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

WASHINGTON.

February 20, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (LHM 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 16, 1907, in the matter of the applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1890 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1898.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 8, 1906, in the case of Denial Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your decision, adverse to these persons, is correct, and it is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case and a carbon copy hereof have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan.

First Assistant Secretary.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, February 13, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John Robinson, Sr., as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Nancy Robinson being first duly sworn by Mrs. Lyman K. Lane,
Notary Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q What is your name? A Nancy Robinson.
Q What is your age? A 59.
Q What is your post office address?
A Perum.
Q You have appeared here before and given testimony relative to the right of your husband, John Robinson, to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, haven't you?
A Yes sir.
Q Are you able at this time to give any information as to whether or not your husband secured a license and married you in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation?
A I am not able to give anything about any license because if there was anything like that, I don't know it.
Q You don't know anything about whether or not he got a license?
A I do not.
Q Do you know any persons who were acquainted with your husband at that time, who would be in a position to give any information on this point?
A I don't; they are all dead that I can remember except this woman, Mrs. Davis, I told you about. I might see her. She is all I remember who is living at the present time.

It will be necessary for you, Mrs. Robinson, before the application for the enrollment of your husband is complete, to secure the testimony of some person who has actual knowledge that your husband did secure a license by getting the necessary signers to his petition, at the time he married you.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John Robinson, Sr., as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, August 27, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of John Robinson, Sr., as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 20, 1904, and January 7, and February 13, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, John Robinson, Sr., a white man, is alleged to have married, in accordance with Cherokee law, in the year 1868, one Nancy Robinson, nee Perdue, who was, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Canadian district, No. 1103, as a native Cherokee, and whose name appears on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite number 23207; that since said alleged marriage the said John Robinson Sr., and Nancy Robinson, have resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. On February 13, 1907, the said Nancy Robinson appeared for the purpose of giving testimony tending to establish the marriage of John Robinson Sr., to herself, in accordance with Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1878; this the said Nancy Robinson failed to do, and was requested to appear with witnesses who had actual knowledge of her marriage to the said John Robinson Sr., under a license issued by the Cherokee Nation, which request the said Nancy Robinson has failed to heed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al., vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, John Robinson Sr., is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:

November 5, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, January 3, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Nixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Nixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 ap-

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decision previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1878, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights with Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

MEMORIAL

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 8, 1907 (Land 7533), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 192 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1858, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

George W. Scott	22178	Joel Kelly	22465
George W. Elliott	22181	Jane Crittenden	22501
Mary Lauer	22187	Martha W. Morgan	22517
Dionisartus D. Thornton	22214	Leavel S. Saunders	22547
Augustus C. Sager	22225	Franklin Andrews	22548

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 25, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 23234, and of Adeline Rattlinguard, opposite No. 23240, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

In the matter of the date of death of Fannie A. French, Cherokee card No. 2063, Roll No. 5368.

Testimony of Joseph M. French taken at his store near Ray
P. O., December 8th, 1909. Sworn by A. G. McMillan, Deputy Clerk,
U.S. Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

Examination on behalf of the Commissioner:

- Q What is your name? A Joseph M. French.
Q How old are you? A Fifty-three.
Q What is your post office address? A Ray.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a daughter named Fannie A.? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of Fannie's mother? A Sallie.
Q Fannie is dead? A Yes sir.
Q When did she die? A Now, as near as I can tell you, she died
February 9, 1902. She died in Texas.
Q Where was she buried? A She's buried here; it is on the tombstone right over yonder two or three hundred yards.
Q Were you down there in Texas when she died? A Yes sir, she died in Amarillo, Texas. We was bringing her home from New Mexico.
I was right with her when she died. When we got to Amarillo she wasn't able to come here and she died there.
Q And you say that was in February, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q When did your wife Sallie die? A She died in November, 1901, and Fannie died in February, 1902.

Statement by A. G. McMillan:

On December 8th, 1909, I went to the graveyard near Ray Postoffice and found two tombstones with the following inscriptions:

"Fannie French Born July 27, 1879 Died Feb. 9, 1902"

"Sallie wife of J. M. French Born Oct. 9, 1860 Died
Nov. 11, 1901"

Albert G. McMillan, being first duly sworn, states that he reported the proceedings in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is a true transcript of his stenographic notes.

Card No. 2063.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, September 4, 1908

Joseph M. French

Wagoner, Oklahoma

The records of this office show that there is due on the allotments of the following named persons the amounts set opposite their names:

Fannie A. French $325.60

You are notified that on Saturday, November 14, 1908, the Cherokee Land Office will be closed to the selection of allotments and that after said date no application to select or complete an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation will be received. If, therefore, it is your wish that this selection be completed by the allotment of land for that purpose, it is necessary that you appear at this office at the earliest practicable date, and before November 14th, to designate and select the land desired.

The Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides that:

"If any citizen of the Cherokee tribe shall fail to receive the full quantity of land to which he is entitled as an allotment, he shall be paid out of any of the funds of such tribe a sum equal to twice the appraised value of the amount of land thus deficient."

If it is your desire to take advantage of the provisions of this Act you should at once notify this office of such fact, returning this notice in order that the necessary notations may be made on the records of this office.

No payment of money under the provision of this Act will be made until the work of allotting the lands of the Cherokee Nation shall have been completed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

29806-1908,
Cherokee 2063.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, October 17, 1908.

Mr. Joseph M. French,
Ray, Oklahoma.

Sir:

In reply to your letter of October 8, 1908, in reference to the allotment of Fannie A. French, there is inclosed a blank form of death affidavit which you are requested to have properly executed and return to this office in order that her death may be shown upon the records.

Respectfully,

JOR(LS)
Incl. 8-109.

Acting Commissioner.

Cherokee 2063.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, February 4, 1910.

Mr. Joseph M. French,
Ray, Oklahoma.

Sir:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your daughter, Fannie A. French, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 5358, died on February 9, 1902.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Joseph M. French - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before March 7, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Fannie A. French on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Respectfully,

WSDM (LBA)

Acting Commissioner.

Register.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, March 17, 1910.

SUBJECT:
Enrollment of Fannie A.
French, a Cherokee.

.....

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Fannie A. French, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No. 5358. An application to select an allotment of land having been made for Fannie A. French an investigation was begun to determine whether this person was living, and if not, the date of her death, and on November 22, 1909, Susan Gett, an aunt of Fannie A. French, testified that her niece died in Texas about eight years prior to said date, fixing this date by the fact that a child of Fannie A. French's, then eight years old, was about three months old when its mother died. On December 8, 1909, Joseph H. French father of Fannie A. French, testified that his daughter died on February 9, 1908, and stated that the date of her death would be found on her tomb stone, which upon examination by the representative of this office was found to be correct.

On February 4, 1910, Joseph M. French, father of Fannie A. French, deceased, was notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office as to the date of the death of his daughter, and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 716) that no person whose name was on the final roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that he might within a stipulated time appear at this office and show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said Fannie A. French was not entitled to participate in a division of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation.

This notice was received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipt properly signed but no appearance has been made.

The record in this case appears clearly to establish that Fannie A. French died prior to September 1, 1902, and I therefore recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite the name of Fannie A. French, No. 5358:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902, not entitled to land or money."

No. 3.

Copies of the record pertaining to the death of this citizen are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

March 25, 1910

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior:

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of March 17, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the death of Fannie A. French, whose name appears opposite No. 5358 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that the above named person died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 716), provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on the Cherokee roll, and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It is recommended, therefore, that opposite the name of Fannie A. French upon the above mentioned roll there be placed the notation -

"Died prior to September 1, 1902;
not entitled to land or money."

and that this Office and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the roll in their possession.

Very respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, I. T., September 8, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Edmenson Lunsford for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on said Lunsford that it would, on the 8th day of September, 1902, at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskegee, Indian Territory, introduce testimony tending to disprove his right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES:

Applicant appears in person.

Cherokee Nation appears by attorney, J. C. Starr.

EDMENSON LUNSFORD, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

Q What is your name? A Edmenson Lunsford. E-d-m-e-n-s-o-n
L-u-n-s-f-o-r-d.

Q What is your age? A I was born in 1856, November 21st.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Braggs.

Q Are you sometimes known as Edward Lunsford? A Yes, sir.
Edward.

By Mr. Starr,

Q Mr. Lunsford, have you married since your enrollment?

A Yes, sir.

Q What is the name of your wife? A Florence Hall.

Q What is her citizenship? A She claims to be a Cherokee.

Q Has she made application to this Commission for enrollment?

A I don't know. I don't think she has. Her mother said she had not; she told me sometime ago she had not.

By the Commission,

Q How old is your wife? A Nineteen years old.

Q What is her father's name? A Hall, Reuben Hall.

Q What is your wife's mother's name? (No answer)

Q What is your wife's mother's name? A Ada Hall.

Q How long did you know your wife prior to your marriage to her?

A Why, I don't know, about a year or two, I reckon.

Q Where was she living when you married her? A She was living in Illinois District.

Q Do you know how long she had been living in the Cherokee Nation?

A She was born and raised there.

Q Well, now, don't you know as a matter of fact that neither your wife's mother, your wife's father or your wife has ever been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A That they have been recognized as citizens?

Q That they never have been recognized as citizens. A I know what they say, that one of her sisters has been enrolled sometime ago, she said. I don't know anything about that, she lived down in the Creek Nation-----

The tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation examined and neither the parents nor the applicant's wife are identified thereon, nor the applicant. It appears that neither of them were ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by any of the legally constituted authorities thereof.

There is offered in evidence by the representative of the Cherokee Nation, a certified copy of a marriage license and certificate, showing that the applicant and Miss Florence Hall were united in matrimony by J. I. King, a minister of the Gospel, on the 11th day of October, 1901.

Q How long has your first wife been dead? A She has been dead, well, let's see, about six years, something of that matter.

Q Have you only been married two times? A Twice, yes, sir.

I, Retta Chick, being sworn, state that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, I recorded the proceedings and testimony in the foregoing application, and that the above is a true and complete copy of my stenographic notes thereof.

Supplemental Proceedings.

FLORENCE LUNSFORD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

- Q What is your name? A Florence Hall.
Q Is that your name at the present time? A Lunsford is my name at the present time.
Q You are now Florence Lunsford, are you? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your husband? A Ed Lunsford.
Q When were you married to him? A I married him -- I don't know just the time.
Q About how long ago has it been? A It was last fall, I believe. I forgot the day of the month.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, he's a white man.
Q Have you ever been recognized by the tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation as a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q When? A All my life.
Q Have you ever drawn money? A Yes, sir, I drawn money the last time we drawn any.
Q How much did you draw? A Well, I don't know just exactly how much.
Q Where did you draw that money, what place? A Gibson.
Q Who was making the payment? A The Freedmen.
Q Was that the Kern-Clifton payment? A Yes, sir.
Q Is that the only time that you ever drew any money? A Yes, sir.
Q What name were you going by then? A Hall.
Q What was the name of your father? A Reuben Hall.
Q What was your mother's name? A Ada Hall.
Q Was this money paid to you at the time they were paying all the other Freedmen over there? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever been before this Commission to make application for yourself? A No, sir, not before.
Q Why? A Why, I don't know what's the reason I never. Some said to come; some said not come.
Q Where have you been living? A About two miles from Garfield.
Q How far is that from Fort Gibson? A About twelve miles.
Q How far is it from Muskeges? A From Muskeges? I don't know just exactly how far, it is near about twenty.
Q With the exception of the time you drew the money at Fort Gibson, you never made any attempt to be recognized as a citizen? You have never been before the Commission, never made any application to the tribal authorities since the Kern-Clifton payment? A No, sir, not till this time.

Kern-Clifton roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant identified thereon, on page 179, No. 4295, as Florence Hall. The applicant is not identified upon any other tribal roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission.

The Records of the Commission examined, and fail to disclose that the applicant has ever made application for the enrollment of herself either as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation or as a Cherokee Freedman.

Q What was your father, a white man or a Freedman? A I always thought he was a Cherokee.
Q Do you claim your right through your father or through your mother?
A Through my father.
Q Is he living? A No, sir, he's dead.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she ever been recognized as a Cherokee, either as a Freedman or by blood? A She's a white woman.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Who married you to Ed Lunsford? A A man by the name of Gilstrap.

ADA HALL, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

Q What is your name? A Hall's my name.
Q What is your full name, your given name? A Ada Hall.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Braggs.
Q Braggs? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the mother of Florence Hall? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her father's name? A Reuben Hall.
Q Where was Florence Hall born? A Illinois District.
Q Is she married now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A Ed Lunsford.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has Florence lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life.
Q What was the nationality of Reuben Hall, was he a Cherokee or a Freedman? A Freedman.
Q Was he known as a free born negro? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you know him before you were married to him?
A I did not know him very long.
Q Where were you married? A Fort Gibson.
Q How long ago? A About sixteen years ago.
Q How old is Florence? A Well, as high as I remember -- of course I ain't got no education and am forgetful -- about nineteen or twenty.
Q Have you any children older than she is? A No, sir, she's the eldest.
Q Was Reuben Hall ever recognized as a citizen by blood by the authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q You said a while ago he was a Freedman? A He went by that name.
Q Well, was he a Cherokee by blood or a Freedman? A A freedman by blood.
Q You don't seem to understand. A Of course when I married him he claimed to be a Cherokee, and they all said he was a Freedman.
Q Well, the people all said he was a Freedman and recognized him as such? A Just the same as any other Indian.
Q Did he have any Indian blood? Who did he draw his money with, Freedmen or Indians? A Freedmen.
Q Have you any other children besides Florence? A Yes, sir, I have three.
Q What's the name of the child next to Florence? A Mary Hall.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

- Q Has she ever been before this Commission? A She was not old enough to come.
- Q How old is she? A Twelve years old.
- Q Did you ever draw any money for her? A Yes, sir, I draw money for all of them.
- Q With the Freedmen? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you never draw with the Cherokees by blood for your children? A No, sir.
- Q How often did you draw for your children? A I never drawn but once.
- Q Did they ever draw more than once? A No, sir.
- Q Was that when they were making the Kern-Clifton payment? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you have any children besides Mary and Florence? A I have got four children, Mary, Ned and Martha Ann Hall.
- Q Did you ever know a woman named Nellie Hall? A No, sir, I don't.
- Q Did you ever have a daughter named Lizzie who was the wife of Ed Weaver? A She is not my daughter.
- Q Is she the child of Reuben Hall? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know who her mother was? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.
- Q Then none of your children have ever been before the Commission? A No, none of my small children.
- Q None of them at all? A No, sir, none of them.

Retta Chick, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony and proceedings in the matter of the foregoing application, and that the above is a true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., SEPT. 15, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Edmenson Lunsford et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

Upon examination of the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation, now in possession of the Commission, it appears that the wife of the applicant, Edmenson Lunsford, is identified thereon as a native Cherokee as follows:

1880 roll, page 561, Illinois District, #1319, Rachel Nowife.

It is ordered that a copy of this statement be filed with the testimony in this case.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Edmondson Lunsford as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on August 27, 1900, Edmondson Lunsford appeared before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The application also included his five minor children and one grand-daughter, but their names are included in the partial roll of Cherokee citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior on November 14, 1902. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on September 8, 1902, and again on September 15, 1902.

The evidence shows that Edmondson Lunsford, a white man, was lawfully married, under authority of a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on March 14, 1858, to one Rachel Nowife, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1850. It further appears that his said wife died, and thereafter, on October 10, 1902, he married one Florence Hall, a non-citizen.

Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 29, 1898 (30 Stat., 493), provides for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

Section 966 of the Code of Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1862), is as follows:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man, or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall cease."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Edmondson Lunsford as a citizen by Intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1886, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington,

December 8, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report of Mr. Bixby, former chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 16, 1903, transmitting record in the matter of the application of Edmenson Lunsford for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commission's decision dated February 2, 1903, rejecting the application.

The applicant, a white man, claims the right to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by reason of his marriage to Rachel Nowife, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation on March 14, 1882. The records shows that he lived with her until her death, and subsequently, on October 10, 1901, married Florence Hall, a non-citizen.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Bird et al., versus the United States, the applicant is not entitled to enrollment, and it is recommended that his application be denied and the decision of the Commission adverse to him be approved.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I.T., AUGUST 27, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Charboneau for enrollment of himself, wife and children, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said Charboneau being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John Charboneau.
Q Your age? A About 31.
Q Your postoffice? A Wagoner.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q By blood? A Intermarriage.
Q What district do you live in? A Tahlequah.
Q For whom do you apply? A Myself, wife and children.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 14 years continuously.
Q Whom were you first married to? A Mary Jane Cochran.
Q What year? A '91.
Q Who was her father? A Lonie Cochran.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q Was he a citizen by blood? A No sir.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Ann.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Yes.
Q What is the name of your present wife? A Ann Henson, when I married her.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Yes.
Q When were you married to her? A '98.
Q What is her father's name? A I don't know.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Nancy Henson.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q What is the age of your present wife? A 25 years.
Q What is the name of your eldest child at home by your first wife?
Q Emma L., 8 years old.
Q On '96 roll, page 1152, number 612.
Q Next? A Charley, 6 years old.
Q On '96 roll, page 2152, number 613.
Q Next one? A Mary M., 9 months old. (By my last wife.)
Q Are these children all alive and living with you? A Yes.
Q By the applicant: Myxwife has a little child by another man.
Q What is it's name? A Luella Raper, 5 years old.
Q On '96 roll, page 1233, number 2772.
Q What is the name of her father? A James Raper.
Q Is he living? A Yes.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage to this woman? A Yes, both of them.
Q Your first wife is dead? A Yes.
Q Your last marriage is by United States law? A Yes.

The applicant presents a marriage license issued by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, and a duly recorded certificate of marriage certifying that he was married to Miss Mary J. Cochran, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, according to the laws thereof, on the first day of January, 1891. He also presents marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court, and a certificate of marriage certifying that he was married according to the laws of the United States on the 14th day of July, 1898, to Miss Annie Henson, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood, said marriage license and certificate all being in due form.

Applicant's first wife on '80 roll, page 747, number 538, as Mary J. Cockran.
Applicant's present wife on '80 roll, page 539, number 851
as Henson.
Applicant's present wife on '96 roll, page 1256, number 3428,
as Teehe.
Applicant On '96 roll, page 1278, number 53, as Charboneau.

The name of John Charboneau appears upon the census roll of '96 and he presents proof of marriage as set out in the record to Mary J. Cochran, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, whose name appears upon the authenticated roll of '80 as stated in the testimony. He also makes proof of a second marriage to Annie Henson in the year '98, his former wife, Mary J. Cochran, being deceased. By said former wife he has two children named Emma L., and Charley, whose names appear upon the census roll of '96. By his last wife, Annie, whose name appears upon the authenticated roll of '80 as well as the census roll of '96, he has one child named Mary M., and presents satisfactory proof as to its birth. He avers that his present wife Annie Henson, had a child before his marriage to her by the name of Luella Raper, whose name appears upon the census roll of '96, and is duly identified as the child of said Annie, his present wife. The name of his present wife, Annie Henson, appears upon the census roll of '96 as Annie Teehe. They all being fully identified, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said John Charboneau will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by inter-marriage. His wife, Annie, and his three children as named in the testimony, will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as ~~taxing~~ Cherokee citizens by blood. And the child by his wife, Annie, named Luella Raper will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Are you divorced from him? A Yes sir, didn't have to get no divorce.
Q Then afterwards you married Tilden Tehse? A Yes sir.
Q You apply for the enrollment of Rosabelle Tehse, is she your child? A Yes sir.
Q Who is her father? A Tilden Tehse.
Q Why didn't you apply for the enrollment of Rosabelle when you applied to have yourself enrolled? A Just because she wasn't at home.
Q Where was she at that time? A She was up to her pappa's folks.
Q Her father? A Yes sir.
Q Did you expect him to enroll her? A Yes sir, that's what they said, but he didn't.
Q Now you desire to have the child enrolled yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Is the child living? A Yes sir.
Q What is its age? A She is going on 5 years old.
Q Have you a child named Louella Raper? A Yes sir.
Q How old is Louella Raper? A She is going on seven years old.
Q Both Raper and Tehse were citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You are a citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Your name on the roll of 1860? A Yes sir.
Q Do you recollect the date of the birth of Rosabelle? A Yes she will be five years old the 17th of January.

Com'r Needles: The applicant applies for the enrollment of a child, Rosabelle Tehse, and gives satisfactory reason why she is not enrolled at the time the applicant applied for the enrollment of herself. Said Rosabelle will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood, but it will be necessary for the applicant to file satisfactory proof of the birth of the child, Rosabelle.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Birth certificate required.

Cherokee by blood,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I. T., Sept. 20th, 1901,

In the matter of the application of Annie Charbonsau for the enrollment of her child, ROSABELLE TEEHEE as a Cherokee by blood; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Annie Charbonsau.
Q Are you the Annie Charbonsau that was listed for enrollment here the 27th of August, 1900? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A John Charbonsau.
Q Were you ever married before? A Yes sir.
Q Who to; what was your former husband's name? A One was named Jim Raper.
Q Was Jim Raper your first husband? A Yes sir.
Q What was your second husband's name? A Tilden Teehee.
Q Is John Raper, your first husband, living? A Yes sir, Jim is.
Q Are you divorced from him? A Yes sir, didn't have to get no divorce.
Q Then afterwards you married Tilden Teehee? A Yes sir.
Q You apply for the enrollment of Rosabelle Teehee, is she your child? A Yes sir.
Q Who is her father? A Tilden Teehee.
Q Why didn't you apply for the enrollment of Rosabelle when you applied to have yourself enrolled? A Just because she wasn't at home.
Q Where was she at that time? A She was up to her pappa's folks.
Q Her father? A Yes sir.
Q Did you expect him to enroll her? A Yes sir, that's what they said, but he didn't.
Q Now you desire to have the child enrolled yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Is the child living? A Yes sir.
Q What is its age? A She is going on 5 years old.
Q Have you a child named Louella Raper? A Yes sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
 COMMISSION TO THE NINE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
 FT. GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 27th, 1900.

IN RE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Edgar P. Rutherford, wife and children, for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee nation, and he being sworn by General Agent, C. E. Braddock, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Edgar P. Rutherford.
 Q What is your age? A Twenty three.
 Q What is your Postoffice? A Wagoner.
 Q What is your District? A Tahlequah.
 Q Do you do you apply? A Myself, wife and children.
 Q Do you apply for yourself as a citizen by blood? A No sir.
 Q When were you married? A In April, 1896.
 Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
 (Applicant presents a duly authenticated copy of his certificate of marriage, said copy being furnished by B. W. Alberty, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, including also the record of the Executive Office; record of his license, showing that he was licensed on the 20th day of April, 1896 to marry Edna Austin. That said marriage was contracted in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on the 20th of April, 1896; signed Thomas P. Robinson, Minister of the Gospel. This is filed with his application.)
 Q Are you on the roll of 1867? A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of your father? A Ashley T. Rutherford.
 Q Cherokee or white man? A White man.
 Q Dead or living? A Living.
 Q What is the name of your mother? A Mary Elizabeth Rutherford.
 Q A white woman? A Yes sir.
 Q Dead or living? A Dead.
 Q Now give me the name of your wife; her given name is Edna, is it?
 A Yes sir.
 Q And her maiden name was Edna? A Yes sir.
 Q What is her age? A Twenty.
 Q Is she on the roll of 1867? A No sir; I think not.
 Q What is the name of her father? A Toby Austin.
 Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
 Q Is she dead or living? A Dead.
 Q When did she die? A In 1892 I think.
 Q What is the name of her father? A Sterling A. Austin.
 Q Cherokee or white man? A White man.
 Q Is he dead or living? A Living.
 Q Now give me the name of your child?
 A Susan Elizabeth.
 Q How old is that child? A Two years old.
 Q Too young to be on the roll of 1867? A I gave the clerk $1.00 to have it enrolled; I do not know.
 (See Roll, Page 1277, -1210, Edgar Rutherford, Tahlequah District)
 Q Your wife's name is not on the roll of 1867; I understood you to say she was an admitted citizen? A Her mother was admitted in 1867 I think.

(The printed list of admitted and rejected citizens, in the possession of the Cherokee Representative, shows that the mother of the applicant's wife, also his wife, was admitted to citizenship September 29th, 1862, by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship)

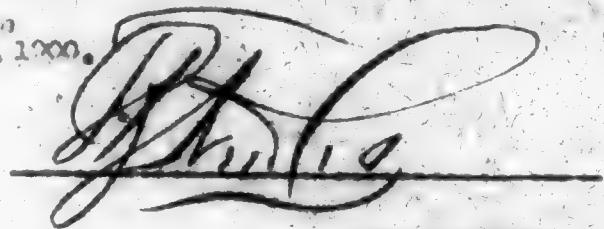

The applicant is duly identified on the roll of 1867. His marriage license and certificate, or rather a certified copy of the record relating to same, with in the testimony and filed herewith, confirms his own testimony. His marriage is too late to entitle him to enrollment as a citizen of blood, in accordance with the well known law of 1867. Hence, his application for himself is rejected, and he is to be placed on the roll of 1867 as a citizen of blood.

will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood,
And when the Commission is furnished a duly authenticated certified copy of the birth of the child, Susan Winchell, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; the Card to bear the numbered that the Commission is to be supplied with an official copy of the Act, relating, the applicant's wife to citizenship.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Where did you marry her? A In Fort Gibson.
Q Where have you been living since 1895? A I have been living here in the Cherokee Nation for the last two years I moved out.

Lillie Battenfield - 2.

Q Where did you live in 1895, immediately after you married her? A We lived here a while and then moved to Chelsea and lived there a little over a year.

Q Then where did you live? A Moved back to Fort Gibson and lived here four or five months and went to Wagoner.

Q Then you have lived in the Indian Territory ever since your marriage? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner Needles: Your wife has always lived in the Cherokee Nation until you married her? A Yes, sir, she came here when she was three years old and lived here ever since.

The name of Lillie Battenfield appears upon the census roll of 1896. A certificate of marriage is presented certifying that she was married to George F. Battenfield in the year 1896. Her name on the roll of 1896 appears under her maiden name of Lillie Owens.

Satisfactory proof has been made as to her having been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, the certificate of admission being described in the testimony. Satisfactory evidence being given as to her residence, the said Lillie Battenfield will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. The applicant avers that he has a child by said Lillie, named Lavanch, 3 years old, whose name does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled, but satisfactory proof of its birth is presented, consequently said child Lavanch, two years old, will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above application; and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes, thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 4th day of September, 1900.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, there are inclosed herewith affidavits as to the death of certain of said persons. The number of the enrollment card on which these persons are listed, the number opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names are as follows:

Cherokees by blood.

Card No.	Roll No.	Name.
1848	4883	Martha E. Jackson
2069	5386	Sigsby W. Battenfield
2079	5393	Charley M. Williams

7362	17479	Eli Baldrige
7460	17643	Betay Pann
9822	22072	James W. Thorne

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Wagoner Record", both weekly newspapers of general circulation; the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Wagoner, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Wagoner Record" was on March 8, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Encl. M.A. 9-5.

LAND
69313--1906.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letter of May 21, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 2, (I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12223-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedom of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. L. Leupp.

Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you forwarded affidavits as to the deaths of 13 persons whose names appear on the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office, and that you be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, you having complied with departmental instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons.

Reporting August 23, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs, and you are authorized to strike the names of said persons from the approved roll in your possession, as follows:

Cherokees by blood.

DESIGNED BY THE FIVE
BY THE FIVE

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., August 27, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Frank Lamb and child for enrollment as Cherokees by blood; Vannie Lamb, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Vannie Lamb.
Q What is your age? A 28.
Q What is your post office address? A Wagoner, I. T.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q For whom do you apply? A My wife and child.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Frank A. Lamb.
Q What is her age? A 25.
Q Is she a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood does she claim? A Really, I can't answer that correctly.
Q In what district does she live? A She lives now at Wagoner, in the Creek Nation.
Q How long has she lived there? A She has lived there off and on quite a number of years, probably eight or ten years.
Q Did she ever live in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q She has lived in the Creek Nation for ten years? A She hasn't been there steady for ten years, but she has been there off and on, they lived in the Cherokee Nation a year or two before we got married, I don't know how long she has lived in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Is she here? A No, sir.
Q You don't know where she was born? A I am not positive, here at Fort Gibson, I believe, she was raised up here at Fort Gibson.
Q How long has she been living in the Creek Nation? A I guess they lived in the Cherokee Nation until 1896.
Q You think they have been living in the Creek Nation since 1896? A They possibly lived in the Cherokee Nation since that time, I am not positive about it, her parents lived in the Cherokee Nation now, and she has always had a home in the Cherokee Nation.
Q What is her father's name? A W. H. McAnally.
Q Is he a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, he is by intermarriage.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Sallie McAnally.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a license and regular certificate of marriage, certifying that he was married according to the laws of the Indian Territory to Miss Frank McAnally on the 7th day of February, 1898, said marriage license and certificate being in due form, issued by the Clerk of the United States Court.)
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir.
Q What is their names? A Willie Lamb, a girl, 10 months old.
Q Have you any proof of birth? A Yes, sir.
(On 1880 roll, page 554, No. 1158, Fannie McAnally, Illinois district; on 1896 roll, page 206, No. 3054, Fannie McAnnelly, Cooweescoowee district.)
Q This child is alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.

The name of Frank Lamb appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as Fannie McAnnelly. A certificate of marriage has been presented, certifying that she married one Vannar Lamb, a non citizen, in the year 1898, and satisfactory proof being made as to her residence, and she being fully identified upon the rolls as indicated in the testimony, she will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. The applicant avers that as the result of said marriage with Frank Lamb he has one child, Willie Lamb, ten months old, whose name does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled, but he presents a satisfactory proof of its birth, and the said Willie Lamb will also be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
FT. GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 27th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF John W. Wassom, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A John W. Wassom.
Q What is your age? A Thirty eight.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Waroner.
Q What is your district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment; yourself?
A Myself as a white man; intermarried.
Q Any one else? A My wife.
Q Any children? A Three.
Q Do you apply for your self as a Cherokee by blood?
A No sir; white man.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a marriage liscence? A Yes sir.
Q Are you applying for enrollment under your, present marriage?
A Either, or both.
(The applicant presents a duly-authenticated marriage liscence, issued by the Clerk of Canadian District, under date of December 19th 1885, authorizing his marriage to Mrs. Lizzie Brown, a Cherokee. The certificate shows that this marriage was consumated on the 24th day of December, 1885 by A. R. Maybrick.)
Q Was Mr. Maybrick a Minister of the Gospel? A Yes sir.
Q He does not sign himself as such? A I think he was.
Q Is there any one here who ~~knew~~ knew him? A No sir; I think not.
(This marriage liscence and certificate) is filed with his application)
(The applicant also presents a certificate of marriage, signed by R. C. Parks, Clergyman, showing that he was married on December 14th, 1890 to Miss Maggie Clingan. The later certificate is returned to the applicant)
Q Both your first and second wives wer Cherokees by blood, were they? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A J. L. Wassom.
Q A white man? A Yes sir.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mary Ann Wassom.
Q A white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Living or dead? A She is living.
Q Now these three children for whom you apply; are they the children of your second wife? A Yes sir.
Q Give me their names and ages please? A The oldest is eight years old.
Q What is the name of the first child? A Blaine W. Wassom.
Q How old is that child? A Eight.
Q Your second child? A Mattie Wassom.
Q How old is she? A Six/
Q The next child? A John Wassom.
Q How old is that child? A Four/
Q He is on the roll of 1896, is he? A Yes sir; I believe he is.
Q Have you any other children? A No sir.
Q How old is your second wife? A Twenty eight.
Q These, you say, are the children of your second wife? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your present wife's father? A William Clingan
Q White man or Cherokee? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or living? A He is living.
Q Her mother; give me her name? A Mary J. Clingan.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A Fifteen or twenty years I guess; I do not know.

- Q What was the name of your first wife's mother? A Mary J. Brown. I believe.
- Q Cherokee or white woman? A White woman.
- Q Dead or living? A She is living.
- Q How old would your first wife be if she were living now?
A About twenty eight.
- Q When did she die? She only lived about twelve months; we were married in 1885, and she died about twelve months later.
(1880 Roll, Page 3, #69, Elizabeth Brown, Canadian District)
(1880 Roll, Page 88, #721, Maggie M. Clingan, Cooweescoowee)
- Q How old is your present wife? A Twenty eight.
(1896 Roll, Page 330, #1094, John C. Wassom, Cooweescoowee)
(1896 Roll, Page 277, #5016, Blaine Wassom, Cooweescoowee)
(1896 Roll, Page 277, #5018, Grant Wassom, Cooweescoowee)
- Q How did they happen to put down your son, John as Grat or Grant?
A My brother's name is Grat, but my wife did not want him to have that name, and called him by my name.

The applicant is shown by marriage license and certificate, filed herewith, to have been married December 24th, 1885, to a Cherokee wife, Miss Elizabeth Brown, a Cherokee citizen who is identified on the roll of 1880, and is now dead. It is further shown by his later certificate, cited in the testimony that he was married on December 14th, 1890 to his present wife, who is identified on the roll of 1880, as a Native Cherokee. The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

His present wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as a Native Cherokee; and the three children, whose names the applicant has given, are all three the children of his present wife, and they are identified on the roll of 1896 as his children by his present wife. She and these children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The confusion in the name of their youngest child, John, from the roll to its present name, is explained by ~~his father~~ their having changed his name from what it was in 1896 to the one by which it is now enrolled, the name of John.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the testimony and proceedings correctly in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner

The names of Charley M. Williams and his wife, Lizzie, appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as well as the census roll of 1896, she being enrolled by the name of Lizzie Cordrey, her name previous to her marriage with Charles M. Williams. They being fully identified according to page and number of said roll as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, they will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood. He avers that he has two children, Blanche I., 4 years old, and Robert A., 17 months old, whose names do not appear upon the census roll of 1896, they having been born after the same was compiled. These two children will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood upon the filing with this Commission of satisfactory proof of their birth.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letters of May 21, 1905, (I.T.D. 6166-1905), June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6245-1905), October 4, 1905(I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 116-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, there are inclosed herewith affidavits as to the death of certain of said persons. The number of the enrollment card on which these persons are listed, the number opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names are as follows:

Cherokees by blood.

Card No.	Roll No.	Name.
1848	4885	Martha E. Jackson
2069	5306	Sigby V. Battenfield
2079	5308	Charley H. Williams

7242	17079	Ed Salavidge
7400	17083	Betsy Penn
8022	22072	James W. Thorne

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6260-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12220-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Wagoner Record", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Wagoner, Indian Territory, in the Reserving District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Wagoner Record" was on March 6, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Encl. M.A. 9-5.

LAND
69313--1906.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freeholders of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letter of May 31, (I.T.D.6186-1906), June 2, (I.T.D.6240-1906), October 4, (I.T.D.12220-1906), and January 12, (I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 226 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons mentioned in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedom of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as Citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

Y. A. Long.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ENROLLMENT REFUSED AS TO APPLICANT, JAMES M. BOATRIGHT.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Ft. Gibson, I.T., August 27, 1890.

In the matter of the application of James M. Boatright for the enrollment of himself and child as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge he testifies as follows:

Q What is your full name? A James M. Boatright.

Q What is your age? A Twenty-four.

Q What is your post-office? A Wagon R.

Q What is your district? A Cooweescoowee.

Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and my child.

Q You apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.

Q Have you a marriage license? A Yes sir. (Produces it)

Com'r Brackinridge: The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, the license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District December 30 1895 authorizing his marriage to Miss Ella Winton, the latter a citizen of the Cherokee nation and the applicant a citizen of the United States; the certificate shows that he was married to Miss Ella Winton by the Rev E. M. Lowrey on January 1st, 1896; these papers are filed with his application.

Q Is your wife living now or dead? A No sir, she is dead.

Q When did she die? A She died in 1898.

Q What is the name of your father? A Jesse F. Boatright.

Q White man? A Yes sir.

Q Dead or alive? A Alive.

Q What is the name of your mother? A Eveline Boatright.

Q White woman? A Yes sir.

Q Alive or dead? A Alive.

Q Give me the name of your wife's father? A Wm. Winton.

Q Cherokee or white man? A White man.

Q Dead or alive? A Alive.

Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A Martha R.

Q White woman or a Cherokee? A Cherokee.

Q Dead or alive? A Dead.

Q How long has she been dead? A I couldn't tell you; about eight or ten years.

Q How old was your wife when she died? A About seventeen I guess.

Q What is the name of your child? A Roy E., three years old.

1880 roll page 486 #1881 Mart a Winton Goingsnake District.

1880 roll page 486 #1880 Wm Winton Goingsnake District.

1896 roll page 294 #40 James M. Boatright Cooweescoowee Dist.

Q Are there any other individuals this child living at this time? A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever married since your wife's death? A No sir.

Com'r Brackinridge: The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896 as an intermarried Cherokee, but his application comes after the Cherokee law of 1895, prohibiting the acquisition of Cherokee rights by intermarried, and hence his application for himself is rejected. He is shown by the certificate of marriage to have been married in accordance with Cherokee law on the 1st of January 1896; his deceased wife is found on the roll of 1896, and her mother and father are identified on the roll of 1890 as husband and wife; her mother is now dead; there being no doubt of the wife having been a native Cherokee, the child, Roy E. for whom application is made being too young to be upon any of the rolls of the Nation, a duly authenticated certificate of his birth is supplied to the Commission he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

- Q In what district do you live? A Illinois.
- Q For what do you apply here? A Myself and two children.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was born and raised here.
- Q What is your father's name? A Seaborn J. Cordrey.
- Q How living? A No sir.
- Q Was he a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q What is your mother's name? A Emily Fulton when he married her.
- Q Is she living? A No sir, she is dead.
- Q Was she a Cherokee citizen by blood? A No sir, a white woman.
- Q Are you married? A yes sir.
- Q Is your wife a citizen? A No sir.
- Q What is your wife's name? A Mary.
- Q What was her name before you married her? A Feagin.
- Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A yes sir.
- Q Produce it please? (Exhibits papers)
- Q Mary Feagin is a non citizen? A yes sir.
- Q Her father and mother were non citizens? A yes sir.
- Applicant presents a marriage certificate in due form, certifying that he was married according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation to one Mary M. Feagin, a non citizen, on the 26 day of October, 1897.
- Q Have you any children? A yes sir, I have two. (u)
- Q What is the name of the eldest? A Ada Belle, known as Pearl.
- Q What is the name of the second one? A Jessie May, about seven or eight months old.
- Q Have you any proof of birth of these children? A Yes sir, I haven't got it filled out.
- Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes sir.

(On 1890 Roll, Page 745, No. 228, T. J. Cordrey, Indian District; on 1896 Roll, Page 267, No. 342, Thomas Cordrey, Illinois District)

- Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes sir.
- Mr. W. W. Hastings, Representative of Cherokee Nation;

- Q How long ago did you marry Mary M. Feagin?
A I don't know.
- Q How long ago did you marry her?
A I don't know.

he went, I think he went there about 1894 and stayed there five years.

Commissioner Needles:

Q The name of Thomas J. Cordreay appears upon the authenticated roll of 1890 as well as the census roll of 1896, and he having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, and being duly identified according to the page and number of said rolls as indicated in the testimony, he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He presents a marriage certificate, certifying that he was married on the 22nd of October, 1897, to one Mary E. Feagin, a non citizen, and as a result of said marriage he has two children, one named Ada Belle, two years old, and one named Jessie May 9 months old. The representatives of the Cherokee Nation refer to card "D" 3186, and aver that the said Mary E. Cordreay was the former wife of James A. Feagin, and that no divorce has ever granted; consequently that the said marriage is null and void.

The names of the two children, Ada Belle and Jessie May, will be placed upon a doubtful card and final judgment as to the application for the enrollment of them will be suspended, and the said applicant is required to file with this Commission satisfactory proof of birth of these children, their names not appearing upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, having been born after the rolls were compiled.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

Bruce C. Jones.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 4th day of September, 1900.

T. B. Needles,

COMMISSIONER.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY.

Sarahfina Rebecca McCullen, being duly sworn, testified as follows:
Mr. Hartings:

Q What is your name? A Sarahfina Rebecca McCullen.

Q What is your age? A Going on 51.

Q Where do you live? A I live up here between here and Tahlequah.

Q Do you know Mary E. Cordreay? A She is my daughter.

Q Was she ever married before she married Thomas J. Cordreay?

A Yes sir, she married Jim Feagin.

Q James A. Feagin? A Yes sir.

Q Was she ever divorced from James A. Feagin? A No sir, only just his being sent to the penitentiary.

Commissioner Needles:

Q Did you know how she got married to James A. Feagin?

A I don't know, she got on a horse and her and him went to the main church and married.

Q Did you ever see any certificate of marriage? A Yes sir, she had her certificate of marriage until it got burned up.

Q She lived with him until he went to the penitentiary?

A She tried to live with him; that was the fifth time he had left her in a year.

THOMAS J. CONINEY.

Q You have re-married since your wife died? A Yes sir.
Q Married a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife living when the Cherokee Strip money was drawn?
A No sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife's father? A J.P. Flying.
Q Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Her mother? A Jane Flying.
A She was Cherokee, she is dead.
She has been dead about seven years I reckon.

Q Have you got somebody here who knows that you and your husband wife lived together as husband and wife? A Yes sir, Wm. Stewart

William Stewart being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testifies as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A William Stewart.
Q What is your age? A Forty-five.
Q What is your post-office? A Bennett.
Q You know this applicant here Mr. Fletcher? Yes sir, I have known him a good while.
Q How long have you known him? A It has been about fifteen years since I first knew him.
Q Did he used to have a wife named Nancy? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name before she married him? A She was a Bush Flying, or Flying.
Q She is dead now is she? A Yes sir, that is what I hear.
Q Did she leave some children? A I think she did, but I disremember how many.
Q How long since he began living with that woman as his wife, ten or eleven years? A Yes sir, it has been that long.
Q Been more than that, eleven or twelve years? A I don't remember exactly when it was, - it has been ten or eleven years.

- Q Might it have been longer? A Yes sir, it might have been longer.
- Q She lived with him for some years as his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q She is well known as a Cherokee woman? A Yes sir.
- Examination by Cherokee Representative Baugh:
- Q Did you know these two children that she left that man? A No sir.

WALTER G. FIELDS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testifies as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Walter G. Fields.
- Q What is your age? A Fifty-three.
- Q What is your post-office? A Bennett.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A All my life with the exception of a few years.
- Q Do you know this applicant here Mr. Fletcher? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife, who is dead now? A I knew her as a girl, yes sir.
- Q What was her name as a girl? A It seems to me like it was Nancy Flying; Puch Flying's daughter.
- Q She married him? A That's my understanding; I heard they were married, and they lived together.
- Q Did she leave any children when she died? A That's my understanding, she left a couple of children by him.
- Q Did you know these children yourself? A No sir, I couldn't recognize them.
- Q You understood when she died that she left two children?
- A Yes sir.
- Q These were her own children? A Yes sir.
- Q Not adopted children? A No sir.
- Q About how long since she began living with him as his wife?
- A I couldn't tell you, I guess it has been ten or twelve years; I wouldn't be positive.
- Q Good long ways back? A Yes sir, quite a while.
- Q Did she continue living with him then up to the time she died?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Which was in 1894 or thereabouts? A Yes sir, about that time.

Examination by Cherokee Rep've Baugh:

- Q Were you ever about the place where they were living together?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did you see these two children at his house? A Yes, I was there once.
- Q Do you know what their names were? A No sir, I don't.

Applicant re-called and further examined by Com'r Breckinridge:

- Q What percent did your wife have of Cherokee blood? A Her father was three-quarters and her mother was three-quarters; - they thought they was.

(Here the children are brought forward and shown to the Commission and decided to be of the right age.)

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant is shown by personal testimony in addition to his own to have been married some eleven or twelve years ago to a Cherokee woman known as Nancy Flying or Bush-Flying; she is identified on the roll of 1880; she died in or about the year 1894 and before the roll of the Strip paymen was made. Application is made for the applicant's two children by that wife; he has since married a white woman, and makes no application for himself; these two children, Mary A. and Rachel M. Fletcher are identified on the roll of 1896, and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

James L. Fletcher,

Pawn, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of your two children, Rachael W. and Mary A. Fletcher, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that you introduce further testimony establishing the residence of these children in the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tablequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission will not determine the right of these children to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Cherokee 2087

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 21, 1903.

J. L. Fletcher,
Tawn, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of December 16, acknowledging receipt of a notice from this Commission that further testimony is required in connection with the application for the enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of your two minor children, Rachel M. and Mary A. Fletcher. You ask to be advised more fully what testimony is required and if affidavits will be accepted.

In reply, you are advised that testimony is desired showing the residence of the mother of these children at the time of her death, as well as the residence of the children during their lifetime.

The Commission does not accept affidavits as evidence in applications for enrollment. It is probable that your own testimony will be sufficient in this case; this testimony should be introduced as soon as you are able to appear at the Cherokee Land Office of the Commission at Tahlequah.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of birth affidavit in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your infant child, Charley Choat, infant child of yourself and Martha Choat.

As it appears from the records of the Commission that you were not married when you applied to this Commission to be listed as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and as it is impossible to identify your wife under the name of Martha Choat, it will be necessary that you supply the Commission with the original or certified copy of your marriage license and certificate in order that the mother of this child may be properly identified upon the Commission records.

Please give this matter your prompt attention.

Yours truly,

The name of Georgia McDaniel appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896. The name of her brother and sister, Jimmie and Rosie, appear upon the census roll of 1896, and satisfactory proof having been shown that they are the children of George and Isadora McDaniel, whose names appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and who are both now deceased.

Satisfactory proof is made to the residence of the children Rosie and Jimmie McDaniel, and they are fully identified on the roll of 1896 according to the page and number of said roll as indicated in the testimony, consequently the said Georgia McDaniel and her brother, Jimmie, and her sister Rosie, the children of George and Isadora McDaniel, will all be listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

In the matter of the application of Faeline Weaver for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee nation, she being sworn by Commissioner T. R. Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Faeline Weaver.
Q What is your age? A 61.
Q What is your post office? A Eureka.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Only by adoption.
Q What district do you live in? A Tahlequah.
Q For whom do you apply? A For myself.
Q Your father and mother non-citizens were they? A Yes, sir, I suppose they were.
Q They are living are they? A They are both dead?
Q What is the name of your husband? A Henry Weaver.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q Is he a citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to him? A I think it was in March, 1882.
Q Have you any marriage certificate? A No, sir.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q When did he die? A It has been about ten years since he died.
Q Have you married since? A No, sir.
Q Have you any proof of your marriage to Henry Weaver? A Not here I don't suppose.
Q Did you have a certificate of marriage? A No, sir, the District Judge married us.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A Woosey Harris.
Q What was your name in 1880? A Faeline Duck.
Q Was he your first husband? A No, sir.
Q Was that your maiden name? A No, sir.
Q How do you get the name of Duck? A He was my husband.
Q Did you live with him until the time of his death? A Yes, sir.
Q And then you married Henry Weaver? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you live with Henry Weaver until the time of his death? A Yes, sir.

1880 enrollment; page 754, #620, Faeline Duck, Tahlequah.

1896 enrollment; page 1291, #275, Faeline Weaver, Tahlequah.

Q Have you lived always in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir. I have lived here and this has been my home and nowhere else since 1871.
Q You have lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since 1871?
A Yes, sir.

Com'r Needles.

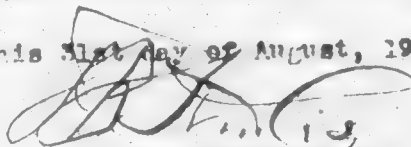

The name of Faeline Weaver appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Faeline Duck, her former husband. Since the death of her husband, Duck, she avers that she married Henry Weaver, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, in 1882, and her name is found on the census roll of 1896, under the name of Faeline Weaver. Satisfactory proof being made as to her husband and she being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll, as indicated in the testimony, she will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by marriage.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., DEC. 8, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Eveline Weaver as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

An examination of the 1880 authenticated tribal roll of the Cherokee Nation shows that Henry Weaver is identified thereon, at page 824, #2675, Tahlequah District, as a native Cherokee.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emeline Weaver as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, August 27, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Emeline Weaver as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, October 18, 1902, and Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 8, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Emeline Weaver, is a white woman, and claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation by reason of her marriage, in March, 1882, to Henry Weaver, who was, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. It is further shown that said Emeline Weaver had been previously married to some three different husbands, all of whom were dead at the time of her marriage to said Henry Weaver. February 12, 1907, said applicant was notified to appear and give testimony tending to show whether or not she was married to a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. This the said applicant has failed to do, after ample opportunity having been given for the same. The said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as Emeline Duck, and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as Emeline Weaver, an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 8, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Emeline Weaver, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 ap-

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights with Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any lands belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such lands were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 5, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 22254, and of Adeline Rattlingourd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 27, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John T. McPherson for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, he being sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John T. McPherson.
Q What is your age? A 28.
Q What is your post office? A Bennett.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I do not know; about a quarter.
Q What district do you live in? A Canadian.
Q For whom do you apply? A Just myself.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q What was your father's name? A Hugh.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Harriet.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father a citizen? A Both citizens.

1880 enrollment; page 36, #1008, J. C. McPherson, Canadian.

1896 enrollment; page 48, #1296, John T. McPherson, Canadian.

Com'r Needles:

The name of John T. McPherson appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as J. C. McPherson, and upon the census roll of 1896 as John T. McPherson. Satisfactory proof having been made as to his residence and he being fully identified according to the page and number of the roll, he, the said John T. McPherson will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

ELIZA ANDRY being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testifies as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Eliza Andry.
Q What is your age? A Fifty-three.

Thomas F. Fields et al #2

- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here.
- Q You know this applicant, Mr. Fields? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife, Sarah? A Yes sir, she lived with me.
- Q When were they married? A I can't say just exactly.
- Q Was it twenty years ago or more than twenty years ago?
- A Yes sir, it was before 1880.
- Q They have got children now, one child at least as much as twenty-one years old? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know that they were married a year or two before that child was born? A I don't know about a year or two, but they were married before that child was born.
- Q You look upon it as their child, born in wedlock to them?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did they live together as husband and wife from the time of their marriage until her death? A Yes sir, I didn't know that she was dead until he told me awhile ago.
- Q Do you know that she was living up until lately? A Yes sir.
- Q If she had died you would have known of it? A I don't say I would have known it.
- Q Are you a neighbor of hers? A No sir, I live here.
- Q How far is that from where she lived? A It's a good ways.
- I ~~don't know~~ didn't know that she is dead only by hearsay.
- Q Do you understand she has died in the last month or two?
- A He says so, that's all I know.
- Q If she had been dead a year or two do you think you would have found it out? A I guess so.
- Q She has been a member of your family? A She staid there a good while ago.

Com'r Breckinridge : The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; his wife, recently deceased, is identified on both of said rolls as a native Cherokee, and of their eight children the first seven are identified on the roll of 1896 in their family; the applicant and these seven children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood; the youngest child, Richard, is not of sufficient age to be upon any roll; when the Commission is supplied with duly authenticated certificate of the birth of their child it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; the applicant is shown by credible personal testimony in addition to his own to have been married to his wife before the roll of 1880; she is identified on that roll under her maiden name, which was simply an erroneous entry; and it is also shown that she was alive and continuously lived with him as his wife, down to a very recent period.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Ella H. Fields,

Bennett, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, January 3, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

JFH

- Q What is your full name? A Eliza Andry.
Q What is your age? A Fifty-three.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Always, ever since I was born.
Q Do you know this young man here Cornelius Fields? A I know him to be Tom Fields son and Sarah Field's son.
Q Is that Sarah Fields the same person who was known in 1880 as Sarah Simmons? A Yes sir.
Q She was married really to Mr. Fields before 1880 wasn't she?
A Yes sir.
Q And they made a mistake about not putting her down under her married name? A Yes sir.
Q You know this young man to be her son by that husband?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know that she was married to Thomas F. Fields a year or so such a matter before this young man was born? A Yes sir.
Q You know that of your own personal knowledge? A Yes sir, because and took her from my house.

Com'r Breckinridge: This applicant is identified on the roll of 1894 and 1896; he is identified as a native Cherokee; his father is identified on the roll of 1880 and his mother on said roll, both as native Cherokees, his mother being given there under her maiden name; it is shown by reputable testimony that his mother was at that time duly married to the applicant's father, and should have been enrolled under his father's name; the applicant may be mistaken as to his own age; he is not found on the roll of 1880, but reputable testimony identifies him as the child of that marriage and testifies that his mother was married to his father one year or more prior to his birth; no doubt whatever is entertained as to the parentage and legitimacy of this boy and he will be listed not for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Q She is of your family? A Yes.
Q Was she married before her marriage to him? A Yes.
Q What was the name of her first husband? A Simmons.
Q She was married first? A Yes.
Q How long since her marriage to Simmons? A Last About 2 years.
Q How long about how many children? A Two.
Q Maggie and Columbus? A Yes.
Q Both are her children by that husband? A Yes.
Q That you know of your personal knowledge? A Yes.
Q When did he die? A '84, just after the Cherokee War.
Q And she married Simmons this year? A Yes.
Q Have they got any children? A Yes, two.
Q Are these children living at this time? A Yes.

The applicant makes no application for himself, he not having been married according to Cherokee law, but he is identified by his own and other reputable personal testimony as having been married to his wife in '84. She is now listed on the roll of '90 under her maiden name, and on the roll of '96 as the wife of the applicant. It is shown by reputable personal testimony that she was married some ten years ago to her first husband who was identified on the roll of '80, and that he died about '84. The two children of that marriage named Maggie and Columbus Simmons are identified on the roll of '96. The wife of the applicant, Sarah J. Gibson, will not be listed for enrollment as a native Cherokee. Her two children by her first husband will be listed for enrollment as Native Cherokees. Her two children by her present marriage are not old enough to be upon any roll, but when Leoda May and Russell Gibson are identified by duly authenticated certificates of birth, and the same are supplied to the Commission then these two children will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the

Q Your age? A 27.

Q Your postoffice? A Texana.

Q Your district? A Canadian.

Q Who were you wanting to have put on the roll? A My wife and children.

Q How many children? A 4.

Q What is your wife's full name? A Sarah.

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes.

Q What is your wife's age? A 25.

Q What was her name at the time you married her? A Simmons.

Q Was that her maiden name? A No sir.

Q What was her name before she was a Simmons? A McDaniel.

Q When did you marry her? A '96.

Q These children are not all the children of your present marriage?

A No sir.

Q When did she marry her former husband, Simmons? A I don't know exactly.

Q Is he dead? A Yes.

Q Did she marry you after he died? A Yes.

Q What is the name of your wife's father? A John McDaniel.

Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.

Q Dead or living? A Dead.

Q How long has he been dead? A About 18 or 20 years.

Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A Mary McDaniel.

Q Was she a white woman or Cherokee? A White woman.

Q Dead or alive? A Dead.

Q How long has she been dead? A 15 or 16 years.

Q What are the names of your children? A Maggie Simmons.

On '96 roll, page 68, number 1871.

Q Next one? A Columbus Simmons, about 7 years old.

On '96 roll, page 68, number 1872.

Q Next one? A Emma M. Giboney, 4 years old.

Q Next? A Russell Giboney, 11 months old.

Q These children are all living now? A Yes.

Q Was your wife lived with you ever since your marriage? A Yes.

Applicant's wife on '80 roll as S. J. McDaniel, page 36, number 996.

On '96 roll, as Sarah J. Giboney, page 28, number 764.

Q How your wife's husband, was he a Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.

Q What was his name? A Alex Simmons.

WILLIAM M. STEWART, being sworn, testified:

Q What is your name? A William M. Stewart.

Q How old are you? A 46.

Q Your postoffice? A Bennett.

Q Do you know Mr. Giboney here— this applicant? A Yes.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes.

Q What kin is she to you? A Her father was my half brother.

Q She is of your family? A Yes.
 Q Was she married before her marriage to him? A Yes.
 Q What was the name of her first husband? A Simmons.
 Q She was Mepaniel first? A Yes.
 Q How long since her marriage to Simmons? A About 13 years.
 Q He left her about how many children? A Two.
 Q Maggie and Columbus? A Yes.
 Q Both are her children by that husband? A Yes.
 Q That you know of your personal knowledge? A Yes.
 Q When did he die? A '94, just after the Cherokee payment.
 Q And then when did she marry this applicant here? A About '96.
 Q Have they got any children? A Yes, two.
 Q All these children living at this time? A Yes.

The applicant makes no application for himself, he not having been married according to Cherokee law, but he is identified by his own and other reputable personal testimony as having been married to his wife in '94. She is identified on the roll of '80 under her maiden name, and on the roll of '96 as the wife of the applicant. It is shown by reputable personal testimony that she was married some ten years ago to her first husband who was identified on the roll of '80, and that he died about '94. The two children of that marriage named Maggie and Columbus Simmons are identified on the roll of '96. The wife of the applicant, Sarah J. Giboney, will now be listed for enrollment as a native Cherokee. Her two children by her first husband will be listed for enrollment as Native Cherokees. Her two children by her present marriage are not old enough to be upon any roll, but when Laura May and Russell Giboney are identified by duly authenticated certificates of birth, and the same are supplied to this Commission then these two children will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Missouri Williams for himself and children, an citizen of the Cherokee Nation, said Williams being sworn by Commissioner Brookbridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Missouri Williams.
Q How old are you? A 46.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Texana.
Q What is your district? A Canadian.
Q When is it you want to apply for? A Myself and children.
Q How many children? A I have five West children and one by a former husband— 6 children in all.
Q Are these all under 21 years old? A All except one.
Q Leave that one out. I want children under 21 and unmarried; how many have you got of that kind? A Five.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q Intermarriage? A Yes.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 20 years.
Q How long have you lived in Canadian District? A About 20 years.
Q Are you on the roll of '80? A Yes, I suppose I am.
Q What was your name before it was Williams? A Blackwood.
Q How was it before it was Blackwood? A West.
Q What was your name before it was West? A Barnett.
Q What was your name before it was Barnett? A That was my maiden name.
Q What was your name in '80? A West.
Q Through which one of your husbands do you claim to be an adopted Cherokee? A West himself was a Cherokee by blood.
Q Then you claim through West? A Yes.
Q What was Blackwood? A A white man.
Q And Williams? A A white man.
Q When did you marry West? A In '74.
Q Did you live with him until he died? A Yes.
Q When did he die? A '94.
Q What was his full name? A Jas. P. West.
Q Then after his death you married Blackwood? A Yes.
Q He was a white man was he? A Yes.
Q He is dead? A Yes.
Q When did he die? A He has been dead three years.
Q Then after Blackwood's death you married Williams? A Yes.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes.
Q Give me, please, the names of those children, beginning with the eldest child? A James P. West, 20 years old,
On '80 roll, page 54, number 1502, as James West.
Next? A William R. West, 18 years old.
On '80 roll, page 50, number 2222, as James West.
Q Next? A John West, 15 years old.
On '80 roll, page 50, number 2224.
Q Next? A Jeff West, 11 years old.
On '80 roll, page 50, number 2225.
Q Next? A Byron Blackwood, 8 years old.
Not on the '80 roll.
Q Give me the name of your father, please? A Jonathan Barnett,
Q White man? A Yes.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Your mother? A Sarah Barnett.
Q White woman? A Yes.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Applicant on '80 roll, page 54, number 1500, as Missouri West.
Applicant's former husband on '80 roll, page 54, number 1501, as James P. West.

The applicant is identified on the roll of '80 with her husband, now deceased. According to her own testimony she has since her Cherokee husband died some four years ago married twice. Both of her latter husbands are white men. Hence, she is considered to have lost her rights as a Cherokee by adoption, which was her status through marriage. Therefore, her application for herself is rejected.

As for the application for her child, Byron Pinwood, it is her child by her husband Pinwood, who was a white man. Hence, both father and mother being white the child inherits no right through them. The child is not found on any roll, though old enough to be on the roll of '96. Neither has it ever been admitted in any form as a Cherokee. Hence the Commission is deemed to have no jurisdiction in the application of this child, and its name will be listed among those over whom the Commission has no jurisdiction.

As for the application for the four children, James F. West, William Richard West, John West, and Jeff West, these are the children of the applicant by her first husband and they inherit all the right accruing to her while under the status of the roll of '80. The first of these children is identified both on the authenticated roll of '80 and the census roll of '96. The others are identified on the roll of '86, and all of them will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

 Q What is your mother's name? A I do not know her English name.
 Q Is she living? A No, sir, she died when I was a child.
 Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory continuously?

A I was born and raised here.

Q Always lived here? A Yes, sir, I have been in and out at times, travelling for my health.

Q Your residence has always been here for the last 10 or 20 years?

A Yes, sir.

Q Your wife is Sarah? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you any children by her? A No, sir.

1880 enrollment; page 12, #304, Sarah Downing, Canadian.

1886 enrollment; page 62, #1692, Sarah Riley, Canadian.

1896 enrollment; page 62, #1691, Johnson Riley, Canadian.

SARAH RILEY further testified:

Q Who was the father of Albert Raven? A George Raven.

Q Were you married to him? A No, sir.

Q He is your child is he? A Yes, sir, and Willie Raven.

1886 enrollment; page 62, #1695, Albert Raven, Canadian.

1896 enrollment; page 52, #1439, Lizzie Martin, Canadian.

1896 enrollment; page 56, #983, Thomas Hiseley, Canadian.

JOHNSON RILEY further testifies:

Q Mr. Riley, your father and mother are both dead, and before 1880?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you any certificate of marriage between you and this woman?

A Yes, sir, she has got it.

SARAH RILEY further testified:

Q Did your father and mother die before 1880? A Yes, sir.

JOHNSON RILEY further testified:

Q Mr. Riley, how long have you been a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess I was born and raised here.

Q You have always lived here? A Yes, sir; I went away a while in Colorado for my health.

Q What year was that? A It was somewhere about 1880.

Q How long did you stay there? A About a year and a half.

Staid until I got well and then come home.

Q What time did you come back to the Cherokee Nation? A About 1882 I reckon.

Q Been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your father's name? A Lewis.

Q When did he die? A During the war.

Q What was your mother's name? A I was a child when she died and I do not know her English name.

Q Were they both Indians? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your mother and father die in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, my father died during the war in the Choctaw Nation.

Q What degree of blood did your mother have? A Full Cherokee.

Q I understand you to say that the reason your name is not on the 1880 roll is that you were not in the Cherokee Nation at that time?

A I don't suppose I was.

Q What is your impression now; that you were not here at that time, in 1880—20 years ago? A I can't say; I didn't keep any dates. If my name is not there, it might be because I was in Colorado.

1894 enrollment; page 67, #1629, Johnson Riley, Canadian.

Q Your impression is that your name is on the roll of 1880? A I can't say.

Q You were out of the country about that time? A I expect so.

Com'r Needles:

The name of Johnson Riley appears upon the census roll of 1886 and also upon the pay roll of 1894. He avers that he is a Cherokee by blood, but the name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Final judgment as to the enrollment of the said Johnson Riley will be suspended, and his name will be placed upon a doubtful card.

The name of his wife Sarah Riley appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Sarah Downing and upon the census roll of 1896 as Sarah Riley. Certificate of marriage is presented certifying to the marriage of Johnson and Sarah Riley, certificate certifying that they are both Cherokees by blood, signed by W. S. Agnew, Judge of the Circuit Court.

The name of Albert Raven, Lizzie Martin and Thomas Hiseal are found upon the census roll of 1896. Sarah Riley avers under oath that she is the mother of these children and they are all living and actual residents of the Cherokee Nation. Satisfactory proof of the same being made, and said Sarah Riley being fully identified according to the page and number of said roll, as indicated in the testimony; she and the said Albert Raven, Lizzie Martin and Thomas Hiseal will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

 Q Is he dead or alive? A dead.
 Q How long has he been dead? A About 13 years.
 Q You know these are your children? A yes.
 Q You are sure of that? A yes. My man's right name was Daugherty, but they always called him Grapes.
 Applicant on '80 roll, page 550, number 1058, as Mary Lacy.
 On '94 roll, page 776, number 700; as grapes.
 On '96 roll, page 907, number 1905, as Senige.

JAMES BARNES, being sworn, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A James Barnes.
 Q Your age? A About 37.
 Q Your postoffice? A Braggs.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A A 37 years.
 Q Do you know this applicant who calls herself, Mary Grapes? A Yes.
 Q What was her name when she was a girl? A Mary Pettit.
 Q She has been married a number of times? A Yes; I suppose so. Her she first married a man named Daugherty-- they called him Grapes.
 Q Did she ever live with a man named Lacy? A Yes.
 Q When? A About '85.
 Q Didn't she live with Lacy before that? A I could not tell you.
 Q She seems to be on the roll of '80 as Mary Lacy.
 Q You know she lived with a man named Lacy? A Yes.
 Q Did she ever live with a man named Senige? A yes.
 Q About how long ago has it been since she lived with Senige? A 8 or 10 years ago since she began living with Senige.
 Q She claims to have three children? She lived with a man named Ballard once? A I don't know.
 Q Did she live with a man named Clay? A Yes, they say she did. I did not see them when they lived together.
 Q How many children has she got living with her now? A Her oldest boy, William Daugherty, Brice Ballard, Henry Clay and Lonely Clay.
 Q Are these her children? A I suppose they are.
 Q Are they recognized by the community as children born to her? A Yes.
 Q They are all three living at this time? A Yes.
 Q Does everybody consider them her own children? A Yes.

APPLICANT CONT'D:

This applicant has been married in the Cherokee way to five men and it is exceedingly difficult to trace her on the rolls. After extensive inquiry, both recorded and unrecorded, she appears to be reliably indentified on the roll of '80 as a Lacy and on the roll of '94 as a Grapes, that being the name of her first husband, and on the roll of '96 as a Senige, whom she had lived with at one time. No doubt is entertained of her being a native Cherokee and having lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her child, Brice Ballard, by one of the men with whom she lived in the course of her varied experience, is identified on the rolls of '94 and '96. The child, Lonely Clay is identified on the roll of '94. This is by another one of her husbands. This child is not identified on the roll of '96 but the omission is considered to be an inadvertance. The child, Henry Clay, is identified on the rolls of '94 and '96. Responsible personal testimony shows that these children are all living at this time and that they are universally considered by the community in which this woman lives to be the children of her body. They are all now living and they will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Cherokee 2108

Tablequah, Indian Territory, May 10, 1904.

H. A. Gibson,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of April 30, stating that one Ethan Allen, who claims rights in the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried citizen, has heretofore made application to select certain land as his allotment, and that a short time ago he died leaving a will devising all his property to his niece, Lula Allen, a non-citizen. You state that you are now informed, however, that a number of citizens are desirous of filing on the allotment of the said Ethan Allen and you ask that the land which he has applied for be withheld from allotment until the question of Mr. Allen's citizenship is determined and his right to dispose of his allotment by a will is passed upon by the courts.

In reply, you are advised that the records of this office show that no application for an allotment for Ethan Allen has yet been made to this Commission. While Mr. Allen's right to enrollment has not been definitely determined, upon the application of any person, whose application for enrollment has not been finally determined, there will be withheld from allotment land equal in value to 110 acres of average allottable land, upon which he may own improvements, and it is suggested that the administrator for Mr. Allen's estate should appear and make application under that provision. Section twenty of the recent Cherokee Agreement provides

"Sec. 20. If any person whose name appears upon the roll prepared as herein provided shall have died subsequent to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two, and before receiving his allotment, the lands to which such person would have been entitled if living shall be allotted in his name, and shall, with his proportionate share of other tribal property, descend to his heirs according to the laws of descent and distribution as provided in chapter forty-nine of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas: Provided, That the allotment thus to be made shall be selected by a duly appointed administrator or executor. If, however, such administrator or executor be not duly and expeditiously appointed, or fails to act promptly when appointed, or for any other cause such selection be not so made within reasonable and proper time, the Daves Commission shall designate the lands thus to be allotted."

Meantime, if you will furnish the Commission with a description of the land held as an allotment for the said Ethan Allen, and indicate the nature and location of improvements thereon, you will be notified should any other citizen select said land or any part thereof as an allotment, so that contest can be begun within the time required by law.

There is enclosed herewith a blank form of affidavit which you are requested to have executed and return to the Commission at the earliest possible date in order that the death of said Ethan Allen may be shown upon the Commission's records.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge

The name of George Blackstone appears on the authenticated roll of 1880, as well as the census roll of 1896. He avers that he was married to one, Eva Swanson, a non citizen, in 1899; and by said marriage he has one child, named Gracie, four months old, but he presents no marriage certificate. He, being fully identified according to the page and number of the rolls, as indicated in the testimony; and having made satisfactory proof of his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His child, Gracie Blackstone, four months old, will also be duly listed for enrollment upon the filing with this Commission satisfactory proof of his marriage to the said Eva Swanson; and also proof of birth as to his child, Gracie.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Fort Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William Ross Terrell for enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by blood and his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A William Ross Terrell.
 Q How old are you? A 24.
 Q What is your post office? A Tahlequah.
 Q What is your district? A Tahlequah.
 Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A Yes, sir.
 Q Anybody else? A My wife.
 Q Any children? A No, sir.
 Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, she is adopted.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 24 years I guess.
 Q You have lived here all your life, have you? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long have you lived in Tahlequah District? A All my life.
 Q Give me the name of your father? A Aaron Terrell.
 Q He a Cherokee or a white man? A He is a Cherokee.
 Q Is he dead or alive? A He is alive.
 Q Give me the name of your mother? A Annie Hendrix.
 Q Is she a white woman or a Cherokee? A Cherokee.
 Q Is she dead or alive? A She is alive.
 Q Give me your wife's full name at the present time? A Julia Terrell.
 Q What was her name before it was a Terrell? A Stanley.
 Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
 Q How old is she now? A She is 19.
 Q When did you marry her? A In 1899.
 (On 1880 roll, page 813, No. 2514, Wm. Ross Terrell, Tahlequah District; on 1896 roll, page 1249, No. 3204, Ross Terrell, Tahlequah District.)
 Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.
 (The applicant files herewith his marriage license and certificate showing that he was married to his wife as stated in the testimony.)
 Q Give me the name of your wife's father? A Joe Stanley.
 Q Was he a white man? A Yes, sir.
 Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
 Q Your wife's mother, her name is a Stanley? A Ella.
 Q White woman? A Yes, sir.
 Q Alive or dead? A She is alive.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. In the matter of the application for his wife, his own testimony and the accompanying marriage license and certificate show that she was married to him in 1899, too late, under the Cherokee law of 1895, for her to acquire rights by intermarriage as a Cherokee citizen. Therefore the application which he makes for the enrollment of his wife will be rejected. Both findings of the Commission will be reported to the Secretary of the Interior for his final decision.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

 Q She is dead or alive? A She is dead.
 Q Give me the name of your child? A Sarah Catherine Crane.
 Q How old is that child? A She is 6 months old.
 Q Were you ever admitted by the Cherokee authorities at Tahlequah?
 A No, sir, my grandfather he attended to all that business himself.
 Q Did you ever go out of the Cherokee Nation and come back and apply for admission? A No, sir, I have been here ever since I was brought here from Georgia.
 Q You ought to be on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.

(1880 Roll, Page 813, #2312, Trifena Terrell, Tahlequah District)

The name of Sewell T. Bell appears on the census roll of 1896: He avers that he was married to Tryphenia Terrell, a citizen by blood, in the year 1891, and makes fairly satisfactory proof of said marriage. The name of his wife is found on the roll of 1880, as Trifena Terrell, and upon the census roll of 1896, as Tryphenia Bell, they being fully identified according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof of their residence and marriage, said applicant will be duly listed for enrolment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage, and his said wife, Tryphenia Bell will be duly listed for enrolment by this Commission as a Citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of September, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Commissioner.

The name of Mary Owens appears on the authenticated roll of 1880 as Mary Terrell, and on the census roll of 1896 as Mary Hendricks. She avers that she was married to one R. Hendrix on the 18th day of February, 1900; and she being fully identified according to the page and number of the rolls, as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof of her residence, the said Mary Owens will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Susan F. Clark for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. James L. Clark, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A James L. Clark.
Q What is your age? A I was born in 1864, I am 36.
Q What is your post office? A Vian.
Q What is your district? A Illinois.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A My wife.
Q Just your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A 31.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life, I guess.
Q How long has she lived in the Illinois district? A She was raised there.
Q What is her full name at this time? A Susan F. Clark.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Foreman.
Q That was her maiden name, was it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, the license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court at Muskogee, October 21, 1898, and the certificate signed by J. T. Weemes, a minister of the Gospel, showing that he was lawfully married to his wife on October 24, 1898. This is due proof of the facts stated and it is returned to him.)
Q Give me, please, the name of your wife's father? A Bullet Foreman.
Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A About seven or eight years.
Q The mother, please? A Nannie Foreman.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.

The applicant's wife, for whom he applies, is identified on the roll of 1880 and 1896 under her maiden name of Foreman as a native Cherokee. Her change of name from Foreman to Clark is duly attested by the marriage license and certificate exhibited and cited in the testimony. This change took place as stated in 1896. She will now be listed for enrollment under her present name as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce O. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Was he dead or alive? A He is alive.

Q The name of your wife's mother? A Lettie Paul.

Q Is she a white woman? A Yes, sir.

Q Died or alive? A She is alive.

The applicant and his wife are identified on the roll of 1896. His marriage some eight years or more ago is established by his own and his uncle's personal testimony. He and his wife have lived together continuously from the time of their marriage until now. Their child is not of sufficient age to be upon any roll. The applicant claims that he was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Commission and the printed record in the possession of the Cherokee representatives show that he was so admitted, on February 1, 1888. The applicant will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His child will be so listed when he supplies this Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of that child's birth. His wife will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption, but the card will contain a note that the applicant is required to supply the Commission with either the original or a duly authenticated copy of the act of the Cherokee Commission admitting him to citizenship on February 1, 1888.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Robert Woodall, Esq.,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:—

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of affidavits in the matter of the application of your daughter, Bertha E. Woodall, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

At the time of your appearance before this Commission you stated that her name was Bertha E. Woodall. It is necessary that we should know the correct name of this child and you will please advise us immediately under which of the names you desire to have her enrolled.

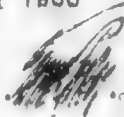

Very truly yours,

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William Johns for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage and his wife and four children as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner ~~Manly~~ Breckenridge, he testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A William Johns.

Q How old are you? A 41.

Q What is your district? A Canadian.

Q Who is it you want to have put on the rolls, your self? A I am a white man, my wife is an indian.

Q When were you married to her? A Nine or ten years ago.

Q Any children? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Four.

Q So you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by adoption? A Yes, sir.

Q You apply for your wife, do you, as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a marriage license? A Yes, sir.

Q Let me see it? A (Exhibits paper.)

The applicant exhibits a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate according to Cherokee law, ~~showing~~ showing that on the first of December, 1891, the license was issued by the Clerk of Canadian district for his marriage to Miss Sidney Phillips, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and the certificate shows that he was married to Miss Phillips in accordance with said license on December 10, 1891, by W.J. Hill, a minister of the Gospel. These documents are filed with his application.)

Q Have you and your wife lived together as husband and wife ever since your marriage, till this time? A Yes, sir.

Q And she is now living? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you continued to live with her in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q Give me the name of your father? A My father's name was Michael Johns.

Q Cherokee or white man? A He was a white man.

Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.

Q Give me the name of your mother? A Elizabeth Johns.

Q Cherokee or white woman? A White woman.

Q Dead or alive? A She was alive at last accounts.

Q Your wife's present name is Sidney Johns, is it? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is she? A She is 24.

Q Her maiden name was Phillips? A Yes, sir.

Q In what district did she live in 1880? A I think it was Going Snake.

Q And Canadian in 1898? A Yes, sir.

Q Give me the name of her father? A Her father was Frank Phillips.

Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.

Q He he dead or alive? A He is alive.

Q Give me the name of her mother, her given name? A I can't tell you her first name.

Q Was she a Cherokee or a white woman? A She was a Cherokee.

Q Is she dead or alive? A She is dead.

Q How long has she been dead? A I can't say, she died before I came to this country

Q Give me the names of your children, beginning with the oldest.

A Thomas L., he will be 8 years old the 10th of ~~August~~ next December.

Q Give me the name of the next child? A Ollie, 5 years old.

Q The next child? A Joseph, 3 years old.

Q He isn't on the roll of 1898? A We had him registered at the Falls.

Q Your next one? A Its name is Ella.

William Johns - 2.

Q How old is that child? A It was born last March a year ago.

Q Are these children all living at this time? A Yes, sir.

The applicant's wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896. Her change of name from 1880 to 1896 is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. Her two older children, Thomas L. and Ollie, are identified on the roll of 1896. The two younger children, Joseph and Ella, are not of sufficient age to be upon any roll. The applicant's wife and the two older children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee by blood, and the two younger children will be so listed for enrollment when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of their birth. The applicant himself is identified on the roll of 1896. He has lived with his wife continuously in the Cherokee Nation since his marriage in 1891. They married in accordance with Cherokee law, as established by the license and certificate filed herewith. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 62401905), October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12225-1905), and January 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, there are inclosed herewith affidavits as to the death of certain of said persons. The number of the enrollment card on which these persons are listed, the number opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names are as follows:

Cherokees by blood.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12226-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate and the "Indian Journal", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory and the latter published at Muskogee, Indian Territory in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Indian Journal" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 2, 1906, transmitting affidavits as to the deaths of certain citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905, (I.T.D.6180), June 1, 1905, (I.T.D.6240), October 4, 1905, (I.T. 12228), and January 12, 1906, (I.T.D.110), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are known to have died prior to September 1, 1902. The number of the enrollment cards on which these persons are listed, the numbers opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names, are set forth in Commissioner Bixby's report. Mr. Bixby says that the Department's instructions of June 1, and October 4, 1905, (I.T.D.6240-12228), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with; and that no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated was living on September 1, 1902, he would recommend that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Office and the Department, and that his office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial roll in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits as to the deaths of these persons are herewith transmitted, and I concur in the recommendation of Commissioner Sixty.

Very respectfully,

J. F. Carrahan.

Sir:

August 7, 1906, you transmitted affidavits as to the death of certain persons whose names appear upon the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and who died prior to September 1, 1902, and recommended, as departmental instructions of June 1, 1905, and October 4, 1905, as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with, that their names be stricken from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and that your office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved roll in its possession.

Reporting September 18, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

Proper steps will be taken for the cancellation of said names from the parts of said roll in the Department and the Indian Office, and you are authorized to strike their names from the proper rolls in your possession, as follows:

COMMISSION

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Ft. Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lewis Sanders for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles he testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lewis Sanders. ✓
Q What is your age? A Twenty-eight years old, 12th day of next December.
Q What is your post-office? A Braggs, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A About one-half.
Q What district do you live in? A Illinois.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously?
A I have been raised here.
Q Who do you apply for? A Myself, wife and children.
Q What is your father's name? A Sam Sanders.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q When did he die, before eighty? A I don't know whether he did or not.
Q What is your mother's name? A Nancy Siegel now; it was Nancy Dunback
Q She is living? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Maud.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Passon.
Q When did you marry her? A In 1891, March 3rd.

1880 roll page 568 #1455 Mary Passon Illinois District.
1896 roll page 900 #1685 Maud Sanders Illinois District.
1896 roll page 900 #1686 Thomas J. Sanders Illinois District.
Q Your two children alive and living with you? A Yes sir.

Com'r Needles: The name of Lewis Sanders appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896; he presents certificate of marriage certifying that he was married to one Mary Passons on the 3rd day of March 1891, a Cherokee by blood; the name of his wife, Maud Passons is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Mary Passon and upon the census roll of 1896 as Maud Passon, her proper name; he avers that by said marriage he has two children, Thomas J., whose name appears upon the census roll of 1896, and Charlotte M., whose name does not appear upon the roll of 1896, having been born since it was compiled; satisfactory proof having been made as to residence, they being fully identified as the rolls according to page and number thereof as indicated in the testimony, said Lewis Sanders and his wife Maud, and children, Thomas J. and Charlotte M. will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood; the enrollment of his youngest child, Charlotte M. will be complete when he has filed with this Commission satisfactory proof of its birth.

Lewis Sanders et al #2

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

CERTIFICATE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We the undersigned members of the Cherokee Tribe of Indians, do certify that Lewis S. Sanders of Muskogee, Oklahoma is a one half blood Cherokee Indian by birth.

That his father the late Lewis J. Sanders of Braggs, Oklahoma, now deceased, whose name appears opposite roll #27300 on the Cherokee Indian Rolls as a one quarter blood Indian, was in truth and in fact a more than one half blood Cherokee Indian by birth. cc 2123

That the reason we state the above facts is because we knew and were well acquainted with the late Lewis J. Sanders' parents, the late Sam Sanders now deceased, of Sallisaw and Braggs, Indian Territory, and his mother the late Nancy Jane Gafford Sanders, now deceased, of Braggs, Oklahoma, both being more than one half blood Cherokee Indians.

And knowing Maud Sanders now deceased, whose name appears opposite roll #27000 on the Cherokee Indian Rolls, as a one half blood Cherokee Indian, to be the mother of the said Lewis S. Sanders of Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Knowing the above facts, we have no hesitancy in stating that the said Lewis S. Sanders, of Muskogee, Oklahoma is a one half blood Cherokee Indian by birth.

Com'r Needles: The name of Elizabeth Jonathan D. and Eliza

Elizabeth C. Mulkey et al #1

J. and Ross C. Mulkey are found upon the census roll of 1896, and it is averred that they were admitted to citizenship in the year 1888; their names being found upon the roll of 1896, and they having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, they will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood, upon filing with this Commission certificate of the Cherokee authorities, certifying that they were duly admitted as Cherokee citizens; the said Elizabeth C. Mulkey avers that she was married to one James D. Mulkey, a citizen of the State of Georgia, on the 31st day of January, 1867; but it appearing from the records and the testimony that her said husband was not admitted to citizenship until the year 1868, no record being presented as to the admission of the said Elizabeth C. Mulkey, her application for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage will be refused. The testimony and judgment in the rejection of said Mrs. Elizabeth C. Mulkey will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior when the rolls of the Cherokee Nation are forwarded to him for approval.

H. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q The name of your mother? A Delilah.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A She was part Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q Has she been dead over 20 years? A Yes, sir, she died in 1863.
Q Give me the name of your child? A James, he will be 19 in November.
Q The child is living now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of its mother? A Susan McLain.
Q That mother dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A She died in 1880 sometime.
Q Was she enrolled with you as your wife in 1880? A Yes, sir, I think she died just after the census was taken, I am not positive. (On 1880 roll, page 557, No. 1230, John McLain, Illinois district. Susan McLain on 1880 roll, page 557, No. 1231, Susan McLain, Illinois district. John McLain on 1898 roll, page 884, No. 1319, Illinois district. James McLain on 1898 roll, page 884, No. 1322, James McLain, Illinois district.)

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1898 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life. With him on the roll of 1880 is identified his wife, who died a few years after that roll. His child, James, is identified on the roll of 1898. He is now 19 years old, and is living with his father. He and his father have both lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives, and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Q What district do you live in? A Canadian.
Q How long have you lived in Canadian District? A Sixteen years.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself, wife and children.
Q Your father and mother are non-citizens? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A First wife was Sophia Sheriff.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q When did she die? A She died about four years ago.
Q What is the name of your present wife? A Mattie B.
Q Is she a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Her maiden name was Shoemaker, she was a King when I married her.
Q What is her age? A About twenty-three or four.
Q What is her father's name? A Wes Shoemaker.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q What is her mother's name? A Bettie I think.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry Mattie B. King? A Three years ago.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a certificate of married to your first wife? A Yes sir. (Produces certificates)
Q Give me the names of your children? A Herman, ten years old; Peggie, five years old; Bessie E., sixteen months old.
Q That all? A Yes sir.
Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the mother of Herman? A Sheriff.
Q Your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q And the mother of Peggie? A Sheriff.
Com'r Needles: Applicant presents marriage license and certificate duly recorded and certified to, certifying that he was married under the laws of the Cherokee Nation on the 6th day of January 1889, to Sophia Schraf, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation; he avers that said wife, Sophia, is dead, and he presents marriage license and certificate, marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern Division of the Indian Territory and certificate in due form, certifying that he was married to Mrs. Mattie King, whom he avers is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, on the 10th day of March 1899; he avers that by his first marriage he has two children living, Herman and Peggie, and that by his last wife he has one child named Bessie, sixteen months of age, and he presents certificate of birth duly certified to, and attested, as to his last child, Bessie.
1889 roll for former wife, page 48 #1322 Sophia Sheriff Canadian.
1896 roll for applicant page 86 #21 Charles Clark Canadian Di st.
1896 roll for wife page 42 #1092 Mattie King Canadian District.
Q You say Mattie King was admitted to citizenship? A I don't know sir, when she was admitted.
Q You don't know anything about that? A No sir.
1899 roll page 18 #2222 Charles Clark Canadian District.

Q You present no evidence whatever that your wife Mattie B. is a Cherokee; she is not on the roll of 1880; do you know anything about her? A No sir.

Com'r Needles: The Commission has information that Mattie B. King was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee authorities in the year 1883, but no certificate or proof of admission is presented. The name of Charles P. Clark appears upon the census roll of 1896, and the name of his former wife, Sophia Sheriff, appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and the names of her children, Herman and Peggie, appear upon the census roll of 1896; and the name of his tax child Bessie by his last wife, does not appear upon said roll, but certificate of birth is presented; there being no testimony satisfactory as to the citizenship of Mattie B. King, his present wife, although her name appears upon the census roll of 1896, final judgment as to the enrollment of said Charles P. Clark and his wife Mattie B., and his child Bessie by said wife Mattie will be suspended, and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card; the names of his children, Herman Clark and Peggie Clark by his first wife, Sophia Sheriff, whose name appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, also gives notice that it proposes to contest the enrollment of Charles P. Clark his wife Mattie B. and his child Bessie.

W. S. Green being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission on the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Are these children that you apply for Cherokees by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you got your marriage license? A Yes, sir.
(Applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, or rather an official copy of the same, showing that he was married in a ceremony with Cherokee law on the 15th of August, 1893, by H. J. Vann, Judge of the District Court of the Cherokee Nation, to Mrs. Kate Teehee, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, these documents being issued from Canadian district. They are filed herewith.)
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you were married in 1893? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you and your wife continued to live together as husband and wife all that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A J. M. McClure.
Q White man or Cherokee? A White man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q The name of your mother? A Frances M. McClure.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q How you were married in 1893 to Mrs. Kate Teehee, were you?
A Yes, sir.
Q And your wife's full name at present is Kate McClure?
A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name before it was Teehee? A She was a Downing.
Q That was her maiden name, was it? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she now? A I think she is 48, or 49 years old, she has got no record of her age.
Q What was she in 1880, a Downing or a Teehee? A She was a Teehee.
Q What district did she live in then? A Canadian district.
Q In 1893 was she a McClure? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of her father? A I don't know.
Q The name of her mother? A I declare I don't know that.
Q Give me the name of this child for whom you apply? A Maudie Griffith, it is Griffith on the roll.
Q Do you want to apply for the child as Griffith? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is the child? A 17 years old.
Q What is the name of the child's mother? A I can't tell you that.
Q The child is your niece, isn't she? A Yes, sir, her mother died when she was a baby, and I never inquired into that.
Q She was your brother's or sister's daughter, wasn't she? A She was the sister of my wife.
Q Do you know the name of the child's father? A James Griffith.
Q Was he called Griffith or Griffin? A He was called Griffith.
Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A He was a Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He died about two years ago.
(Kate Teehee on 1893 roll, born H. J. Vann, Judge, Cherokee.)

James Monroe McClure - 2.

Counciling District. James Monroe McClure on 1886 roll, page 22, No. 175, James H. McClure, Canadian district. Kate McClure on 1886 roll, page 49, No. 1377, Katie McClure, Canadian district. Marie Griffin on 1886 roll, page 38, No. 895, Marie Griffin, Canadian district. George Griffin on 1886 roll, page 20, No. 848, Geo. Griffin, Canadian district. Polly Griffin on 1886 roll, page 30, No. 549, wife of George Griffin.)

Q You don't remember the name of the mother of this girl? A No, sir, I forget her name.

Q Is her name Polly? A No, sir, that is George's last wife.

Q No, that is the wife he was married to in 1880, his first wife was named Bettie? A Well, she is dead, Polly.

Q I want to know if the name of the child's mother was Polly? A I can't tell you.

Q Is there any one here that can tell? A Mr. Fields, if he is here, knows.

Q Did George Griffin only have two wives? A That is all that I know of.

Q Is that the child of the wife that he was married to in 1880?

A No, sir, since that time, I am not positive about it, I don't know whether they were married or not; they were living together but whether or not they were married or not I don't know.

Q When did he marry his last wife? A I don't know that either, I wasn't with the Cherokee people at the time he married the last woman.

Q Is there anybody here who is an old neighbor that knows about this child? A No, sir, the only way I can arrange that would be to let that child go for the present and bring my wife up; she can tell you all about it.

The applicant's wife is identified on the rolls of 1860 and 1868 as a native Cherokee. She has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married to his wife in accordance with the local law in 1885. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation and with his wife ever since his marriage, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

As for the orphan child, Marie Griffin, in his charge, her father is identified on the rolls of 1860 and 1868. Since the latter roll was made he has died. Her mother died previously. It is not known whether this child is the daughter of her father's wife Polly, with whom her father was enrolled in 1860, or whether she is the child of a later marriage. Until further evidence can be had in regard to the mother of this child, she, Marie Griffin, will be placed upon a doubtful card. She is identified on the roll of 1886.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as agent and reporter to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
COMMISSION IN INTERMARriage, 1.7. October 29, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Kate McClure for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, James H. McClure as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Kate McClure being first duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A. Kate McClure.
Q How old are you, about? A. I can't tell you; I claim about fifty.
Q What is your postoffice now? A. Texanna, I. T.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood, are you? A. Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A. James McClure.
Q He is an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen, is he?
A Yes sir, I guess so.
Q Is he a white man? A. Yes sir.
Q When were you and McClure married? Do you remember about how long ago?
A It was in 1893.
Q Were you married to him under a Cherokee marriage license? A. Yes, and United States license too.
Q Both? A. Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether he had ever been married before you and he were married? A. No.
Q He never had? A. He says he never had.
Q Had you ever been married before you married him? A. Yes sir.
Q How many times had you been married before? A. Twice.
Q Were both your husbands dead before you married McClure? A. Yes sir.
Q Where is Mr. McClure now? A. He is at home.
Q Why didn't he come? A. He is sick and kept me.
Q He is not able to come? A. No, he was not able to come yesterday, when I left.
Q Since you and McClure were married in 1893 have you lived together as husband and wife up until now? A. Yes sir.
Q You and he have never had any falling out or separation? A. No sir.
Q You were both living together as man and wife on the 1st day of September, 1902? A. Yes sir.
Q Has McClure lived in the Cherokee nation ever since you married him?
A No; I don't know how long he had been here; he had been in the Creek nation at Checotah.
Q Has he lived in the Indian Territory ever since you and he were married?
A. Yes sir.
Q You have lived in the Territory ever since 1893? A. Yes, I was married in the Cherokee nation.

Frances R. Lane upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she correctly recorded the testimony in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this November 28th, 1902.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1890.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Benjamin Towler for the enrollment of his wife Josephine, as a Cherokee citizen; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needleshe testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Benjamin Towler.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-five.
Q What is your post-office address? A Bennett.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A My wife.
Q What is your wife's name? A Josephine Simmons was her maiden name.
Q What is her age? A Twenty-six.
Q What is your post-office address? A Bennett.
Q Is she a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q What degree of blood does she claim? A A quarter I think.
Q How long has she been living here? A She was born and raised here, never been out of the Territory.
Q What is her father's name? A James Simmons.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A I couldn't tell you.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Lutitia Lilly.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q When did she die? A Somewhere between '75 and '80.
Q You have no children? A None living.
1880 roll page 49 #1354 Josephine Simmons Canadian District.
Q When were you married? A 1896.
1896 roll page 74 #2046 Josephine Towler Canadian District.

Com'r Needles: The name of Josephine Simmons appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and also upon the census roll of 1896, as Josephine Towler; it being averred that she was married to one Benjamin Towler in the year 1896, a non-citizen; satisfactory proof having been made as to residence, she being duly identified according to page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, said Josephine Towler will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5 day of Sept 1900,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Calvin Backbone for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Calvin Backbone.
Q How old are you? A I am about 19 I guess.
Q What is your post office? A Checotah.
Q What is your district? A Canadian.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Just myself.
Q You apply as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q How long have you lived in Canadian district? A I have lived in Canadian district, off and on, all my life; I did live in Sequoyah about three years.
Q What is the name of your father? A Arch Backbone
Q Is she a Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 4 years I think.
Q Did he die before or since the year 1896? A I don't recollect.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Malinda Simmons, her maiden name.
Q She was a Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee.
Q She dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q Have you any brothers or sisters older than you are? A No, sir.
Q You are the oldest, are you? A Yes, sir.
Q She was a Backbone 20 years ago, in 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did your father live when you were born? A I don't know, my mother and father died when I was small, and I don't know where I was born.
(Calvin Backbone on 1894 roll, page 8, No. 181, Canadian district; on 1896 roll, page 6, No. 165, Canadian district.)
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? Dogged if I know, my father was a full blood, I think.
Q Your mother wasn't a full blood? A No, sir, she was a colored, I think.
Q Have you got anybody here who knew your mother and father? A My stepfather is here.

John Morgan, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A John J. Morgan.
Q What is your age? A My age is 33.
Q What is your post office? A Checotah.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been living in the Cherokee Nation about 29 years I guess.
Q Are you the stepfather to this young man, Calvin Backbone?
A Yes, sir.
Q You are married to his mother, are you? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name in 1880? A I can't say exactly which it was, it was either Backbone or Collins, I wouldn't be positive, it is one or the two.
Q Was Collins her maiden name? A No, sir, he was her second husband.
Q Was she married to Collins after she was married to Backbone?
A No, sir, she was married to Backbone and after they separated she was married to Collins.
Q This young man gives his age as 19, so it would seem that he was born after 1881? A He was, I guess, he is right at 20 now.
Q What was your wife called besides Malinda? A Sis was her nick name.

Calvin Backbone - 2.

(1880 roll, page 8, No. 185, Sis Collins, Canadian district.
Infant Collins on 1880 roll, page 8, No. 184, Canadian district.)

Q Mr. Morgan, do you know whether your wife had a baby by her first husband when she took the name of Collins? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Collins you say was her second husband? A I don't hardly think this boy was born when they married; it seems to me I have heard her say that this boy wasn't born when they were married.

Q You think she enrolled him in the name of her second husband?

A It was enrolled, I think she said like it is on the roll, Infant; I recollect now she said he was very small and that he was enrolled in that name.

Q Collins isn't the father of this boy? A No, sir, Arch Backbone is the father of this boy.

Q Is this boy claimed by your wife as her child, and has always been accepted as her child? A Yes, sir.

This applicant is identified on the rolls of 1894 and 1896, and his mother is identified on the roll of 1880 as Sis Collins. The stepfather of this boy states that he is the child enrolled in 1880 as Infant Collins, and is undoubtedly the child of the present wife of the witness, who was a Collins in 1880. The applicant has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

 (See Collins on 1880 roll, page 8, No. 194, Canadian district.)
 Q. Now, Mr. Morgan, do you know whether your wife has a baby by her first husband, and what she took the name of "Collins"? A. No, sir, I don't.
 Q. Do you know whether she had a second husband? A. I don't hardly think she ever was here when they married; it seems to me I have heard her say that this boy was her son when they were married.
 Q. You think she could claim on the name of her second husband?
 A. Yes, enrolled. I think she would like it in the roll; infant; collected name of her mother, and very small and poor. She was enrolled

Q. Is this boy claimed by your wife as her child, and has always been accepted as her child? A. Yes, sir.

This applicant is identified on the rolls of 1884 and 1896, and his mother is identified on the roll of 1880 as Miss Collins.
 The representative of this boy states that he is the child enrolled in 1880 as Infant Collins, and is undoubtedly the child of the present wife of the witness, who was a Collins in 1880. The applicant has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1906 (I.T.D. 6240-1906), and October 4, 1906 (I.T.D. 12220-1906), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Wagoner Record", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Wagoner, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Wagoner Record" was on March 6, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the fact that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Encl. N.A. 9-5.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letter of May 21, (I.T.D. 6184-1905), June 2, (I.T.D. 6340-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 234 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and Freedom of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. L. Long,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Ellin C. Bradshaw for the enrollment of his son, James L. Bradshaw, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation; said Bradshaw, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q. What is your full name? A. Ellin C. Bradshaw.
Q. What is your age? A. 51.
Q. What is your post office? A. McLain.
Q. What is your district? A. Canadian.
Q. Who is it you want to have enrolled? A. My son is all.
Q. How old is he? A. 17.
Q. What is his name? A. James L. Bradshaw.
Q. Is that his proper name? A. Yes, sir; James Lawson is his proper name:
Q. Is he Cherokee by blood? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the name of his mother? A. Ella Hood was her maiden name. Ella Bradshaw was her marriage name.
Q. Is she dead? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has she been dead? A. She has been dead 14 years last month.
Q. How old was she when she died? A. About 25 years old.
Q. When were you married to her? A. In 1882.
Q. She is enrolled in 1880 as a Hood? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What district was she living in then? A. Canadian.
Q. Have you a certificate of marriage? A. I have my license.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant presents a duly authenticate Cherokee marriage license, ~~next~~ and certificate, showing that he was married to Ellen Bradshaw on the 9th of April, 1882, by Abe Woodal, Judge of Canadian District Court. This is filed with the application.

- Q. How long did your wife live after you married her? A. Four years I reckon.
Q. You and she lived together all that time as husband and wife?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. This child is alive now and is living with you? A. Yes, sir.

1880 enrollment; page 24, #695, Ella Hood, Canadian?
1896 enrollment; page 9, #251, James Bradshaw, Canadian.

Com'r Breckinridge:

James L. Bradshaw, for whom application is made, is identified on the roll 1896 as a Native Cherokee. His deceased mother is identified under her maiden name on the roll of 1880. Her marriage is established by the license and certificate filed herewith, shown to have taken place in 1882. The father does not apply for himself, as he has since married a white woman. James L. Bradshaw will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

-----ooo000ooo-----
The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
 COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
 Muskogee, I. T., January 2, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert B. Williams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation:

Robert B. Williams being first duly sworn by Walter W. Chappelle, a Notary Public for the Western District, testified as follows:

By the Commissioner:

- Q What is your name? A Robert B. Williams.
 Q Your age? A Sixty.
 Q Postoffice address? A Wagoner, I. T.
 Q You claim to be a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q Through whom do you claim that right? A My wife, Ruth A. Brown, her maiden name was.
 Q Is she living? A No sir.
 Q When did she die? A She died the 7th day of May, 1890.
 Q What was your wife's citizenship? A Cherokee by blood.
 Q Where was she born? A Flint District, Cherokee Nation.
 Q Were you and Ruth A. Brown married? A Yes sir.
 Q When? A The 7th day of February, 1875.
 Q Where were you married? A Fort Gibson, I. T.
 Q Were you married under a Cherokee license? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you a certified copy of that license? A No, it got burned up at the time of the big fire at Tahlequah in 1894. Everything they had burned up in the House.
 Q Who issued this Cherokee license under which you were married? A George O. Sanders of Ft. Gibson.
 Q Was he clerk of the District? A Yes sir, district clerk at the time. When I filed on my land they had a record of it here.
 Q Had either you or your wife been married prior to your marriage to her in 1875? A No sir.
 Q She was a maiden of the Cherokee nation at the time of her marriage, was she? A Yes, born and raised there. Never lived anywhere else.
 Q Did you and your wife live together continuously from the date of your marriage until her death in 1890? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you live in the Cherokee Nation during that time? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you continued to live in the Cherokee Nation ever since her death? A Yes, until the last 4 or 5 years, I lived in Wagoner.
 Q Were you married since her death? A Yes sir.
 Q Was she your wife? A Yes, married in 1894, May 20th.
 Q Did you have any other wife living? A No, she is dead.
 Q How long ago did she die? A She died about two years after we were married.
 Q How long ago was she born? A I don't know.
 Q How long ago was she married? A Yes sir.
 Q Was she her name at the time of her marriage? A Yes sir.

married twice before that. At the time I married her her name was Smith. Her first husband was William James. Her maiden name was Lillis M. Mayfield.

Q Were you and your second wife married under Cherokee law?

A No, we didn't have to have a license, had to have the marriage recorded. The preacher had to record it at the time we was married.

Q Since your second wife died have you married again? A No.

Q Did you have any children by your first wife? A Yes sir.

Q Are they living? A Part of them. Five of them. Two of them living here in Muskogee.

Q What are the names of those living? A Robert E. Williams, Henry C. Williams, Viola G. Warren, Herbert A. Williams, Bessie F. Summerlin.

Q Have these children all made application for enrollment as Cherokees? A Yes, all enrolled and got farms.

The applicant is identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, and Cherokee census roll of 1896, Tablequah District, opposite Nos. 2658 and 281 respectively, as an intermarried white.

Robert E., Henry C. and Herbert A. Williams, and Bessie F. Rook, nee Williams, are identified on an approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation opposite Nos. 5842 and 6545 inclusive.

Q Did you have any children by your second wife? A One

Q What is the name? A Isaac E. Williams. He is dead now.

The said Isaac E. Williams is included in an approved partial roll of the citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 5848

An examination of the Cherokee Record of Marriages from 1870 to 1892, Tablequah District fails to show that any record was made of the license alleged to have been issued to the applicant Robert E. Williams. Further examination however, may show that this license was recorded in some other district as the records furnished this office by the Cherokee nation show that that this was done in some cases.

Mr. Williams: Further examination will be made for record of your license that you allege was issued by the Cherokee authorities, and you will be notified as to what the result of this examination is, and whether or not you will be required to furnish necessary evidence to prove your marriage to your 1st wife.

By Mr. Williams: Probably this license was issued by the authorities of Illinois District, Cherokee Nation.

Frances N. Lane upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commissioner of the Five Civilized Tribes she reported the testimony in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

 Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 14, 1907.

Supplemental proceedings in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert B. Williams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Martin B. Benge being first duly sworn by John B. Tidwell, Notary Public, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Martin B. Benge.
 Q What is your age? A 51.
 Q What is your post office address?
 A Fort Gibson.
 Q Are you acquainted with a person in the Cherokee Nation by the name of Robert B. Williams?
 A Yes sir.
 Q He is a white man? A Yes sir.
 Q He claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, by virtue of his marriage to a citizen by blood of the Nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of his citizen wife?
 A Ruth A. Brown; that was her maiden name.
 Q Is she living or dead? A Dead I understand.
 Q Did you know her prior to the time she married Robert B. Williams?
 A Yes sir.
 Q She was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time they were married?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Living in the Cherokee country?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When were they married? A February, '75.
 Q Did Robert Williams secure a license and marry his Cherokee wife in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation?
 A That is my understanding. He has had the rights of a citizen.
 Q It is your understanding and you believe that he secured a license and married this woman in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes sir; I do.
 Q You know of your own personal knowledge that since 1875, he has been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and enjoyed all the rights and privileges of that class of citizens?
 A Yes sir; he has.
 Q Was Ruth A. Brown ever married prior to her marriage to Robert B. Williams?
 A No sir.
 Q Was he ever married to your knowledge prior to his marriage to her?
 A No sir; not that I know of.
 Q From the time of their marriage, did they continuously live together as husband and wife until the death of Ruth A. Williams?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When did she die?
 A I don't know just when she did die.
 Q Had he married since her death?
 A Not that I know of.
 Q Has he been a resident of the Cherokee Nation since 1875, continuously?
 A Yes sir.

George O. Sanders being first duly sworn by John E. Tidwell, Notary Public, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A George O. Sanders.
 Q What is your age? A 69 years old.
 Q What is your post office address?
 A Wauhilla, Indian Territory.
 Q Are you acquainted with a person by the name of Robert B. Williams?
 A Yes sir.
 Q He is an intermarried white? A Intermarried adopted white.
 Q When did you first become acquainted with him?
 A About 1875.
 Q Did you know his Cherokee wife?
 A Yes sir.
 Q What was her name before he married her?
 A Ruth Brown.
 Q Did you know her before her marriage?
 A Not intimately acquainted; just a casual acquaintance.
 Q You knew her to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
 A She was so called and acknowledged by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation.
 Q What was her father's name? A William Brown?
 Q When were Robert B/ and Ruth A. Williams married?
 A I wasn't present at the marriage but sometime in 1875.
 Q What time in the year?
 A I don't know that I can safely make any date.
 Q Are you positive that it was prior to November 1, 1875?
 A It was previous to November 1, 1875.
 Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge that Robert B. Williams secured a license in accordance with the Cherokee law?
 A Why, I was clerk of the District and Circuit Court of Illinois District from 1874 to November, 1875, and I have not altogether a visible memory of the occasion but from circumstances connected with the case, I can safely assert that my belief is that I issued him a license in 1875.
 Q You have every reason to believe that he was married during that year, prior to November 1, 1875?
 A Yes sir; he was one of our citizens of Illinois District, and he was recognized as an adopted citizen in all of our elections. Whenever we had an election, if there was a fraudulent vote we were always supposed to know it and were very quick to expose a vote of that kind and he always voted at any of our elections, if he wanted to.
 Q You know that he did vote?
 A I don't know that I could positively assert that but he was recognized as having the right.
 Q You know of your own personal knowledge then that since the marriage of Robert B. and Ruth A. Williams, they lived together as husband and wife until the death of Ruth A. Williams?
 A Yes sir; I think I can safely assert that.
 Q And Robert B. Williams has been recognized as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and enjoyed all the rights and privileges of an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation since 1875?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Prior to the 1st of November of that year?

O. V. S.

Charles Hill.

A. Yes sir; I have my commission and it expired on the 1st of November, 1878, as district and circuit clerk of Illinois District. I know it must have been previous to the expiration of my term of office, which terminated November 1, 1878.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

COPY. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
 COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of ROBERT B. WILLIAMS as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on August 28th, 1900 application was received by the Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Robert B. Williams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskegee, Indian Territory October 9th, 1902, February 20th, 1905, January 3rd, 1907 and January 14th, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Robert B. Williams, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law February 7th, 1875 to his wife Ruth Ann Williams, nee
 Brown, since deceased, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1850, Tahlequah District No. 2059 as a native Cherokee marked "Dead"; that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Ruth Ann Williams, which occurred in May, 1890, the said Robert B. Williams and Ruth Ann Williams resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation. It is further shown that on May 30th, 1892 said Robert B. Williams was married to one Lillie M. Williams, nee Wayfield, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894 Tahlequah District 3604. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Lillie M. Williams, which occurred on July 22nd, 1894, the said Robert B. Williams and Lillie M. Williams resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation. It is further shown that said Robert B. Williams has remained unmarried since the death of said Lillie M. Williams, and that he has continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since his first marriage in 1875. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1850 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5th, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et alvs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Robert B. Williams is entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28th, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

 Commissioner.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

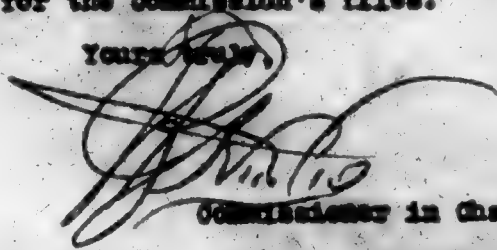

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902.

Garmit Rook,
Wagoner, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The marriage license and certificate of Garmit Rook and Miss Bessie Williams is returned to you herewith, copies of the same having been made for the Commission's files.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Enc. B-183 1/2.

Cherokee
2139

Muskegee, Indian Territory, December 24, 1906.

Robert B. Williams,

Wagoner, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskegee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, January 3, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

JHE

Acting Commissioner.

Cherokee
2139

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 18, 1907.

Mr. Robert B. Williams,
Wagoner, Indian Territory.

Dear sir:

In connection with your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, you are advised that the records for Tahlequah and Illinois Districts have been examined and no record can be found of your marriage to your wife, Ruth A. Williams, through whom you claim your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

It will therefore be necessary for you to introduce the evidence of at least two parties who have knowledge of the fact that you secured a Cherokee license when you were married to your wife, and that you were married to her under that license. This evidence, you should introduce at the very earliest possible date, as there is but little time remaining within which citizenship cases can be decided and applicants found to be entitled to enrollment, enrolled.

Respectfully,

Commissioner

Department of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Alexander Clark for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Clark and two children, as citizens of the Cherokee nation; said Clark being sworn by Commissioner C. B. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A John Alexander Clark.
Q How old are you? A 28 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Webbers Falls.
Q What is your district? A Canadian.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A My wife and two children.
Q yourself? A Not myself.
Q Your wife is a Cherokee by blood is she? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me her full name at the present time? A Alice Clark.
Q How old is she? A 22.
Q What was her name before she was a Clark? A Wicked.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you marry her? A 1897.
Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.

Com, r Breckinridge:

The applicant presents a duly authenticate married license and certificate. The license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court at Muskogee, January 13, 1898. The certificate shows that he was married in accordance with said on the 16th day of January, 1898, by J. M. Roberts, a minister of the Gospel. They are filed herewith.

- Q Your marriage license shows that you were married in 1898 instead of 1897; were you mistaken were you? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife's father? A John Wicked.
Q Was he a white man or Cherokee? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A I can't tell her name. I don't remember.
Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Do you know how long she has been dead? A About 20 years.
Q Give me the names of these children, please? A The oldest one is my wife's child; Lizzie Wicked. (Lillie Wicked)
Q That is not your child? A No, sir.
Q How old is that child? A Three years old.
Q It is not on the roll of 1898, I believe, too young? A I do not know.
Q The name of the next child? A Stella Olevia Clark.
Q How old is that child? A Two years old.
Q Both of these children living? A Yes, sir.
Q Was your wife ever married to this man Wicked, the father of that child? A No, sir; she was not married to him.
Q The father of this child was a man named Wicked? A No, sir.
Q Why did she name this child Wicked? A It was not a lawful
Q Didn't she name it after the man that was supposed to be his father? A No, sir, she just give it her name, she being a Wicked?
Q Is your wife present? A Yes, sir.
Q Is that child present? A Yes, sir.

Alice Clark, being sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Alice Clark.
Q What was your name before you were married? A Alice Wicked.
Q Have you a child named Lillie Wicked? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is that child? A It is here.

John Alexander Clark---2.

- Q That child was born before your marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q You own that that is your child? A Yes, sir.
Q You swear that that is the child of your body? A Yes, sir.
Q That is the child is it? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant presents a certificate of admission to citizenship signed by Thomas Tehee, President of the Commission, Alexander Wolf and S. G. Thompson, Commissioners; B. W. C. Duncan, Clerk of the Commission, showing that on the 25th day of September, 1882, certain persons were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, among them appears the name of Alice Wicked. This is accepted as satisfactory proof to the admission of his wife at that time? This is returned to you.

1896 enrollment; page 81, ²²⁷⁴(#227) Alice Wicked, Canadian.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant's wife is shown by the certificate of admission cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee Citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship in 1882. She is identified on the roll of 1896. Her change of name in 1898 is accounted for by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. She will now be listed for enrollment, under the name of Alice Clark, as a Cherokee by blood.

Her child, Lille Wicked was born out of wedlock before her marriage. It is too young to be upon any of the rolls. She has appeared in person and owns this as the child of her body. When she presents the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The child Stella O. Clark is too young to be upon any of the rolls. This is a child of the present marriage, and when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

AUXILIARY CHEROKEE LAND OFFICE.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1905.

In the matter of the allotment of land to Alice Clark, and her minor children, Stella Clark, Lillie Wicked and Charles A. Clark, Cherokee Card No. 2140, A proved Roll Nos. 5547 to 5550 inclusive.

John A. Clark, non-citizen husband and father, and step-father, being sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A John A. Clark.
Q How old are you? A 43.
Q What is your post office? A Herford, Indian Territory.
Q Was it Webbers Falls at one time? A Yes sir.
Q Do you make any claims to Cherokee citizenship? A I never have.
Q What is your object in appearing at the Land Office today?
A To designate lands for an allotment for my wife and two children and one step-child.
Q Are your wife and these three children living? A Yes sir.
Q Living with you at this time? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Alice Clark.
Q What is the name of her father? A John Wicked.
Q What is the name of her mother? A I disremember.
Q Have you any written authority from your wife to make these designations? A Yes sir.

Applicant offers letter to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, signed by Alice Clark and acknowledged by her before a notary public, March 6, 1905, wherein she requests the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to make at its discretion allotments for herself and her minor children, Lillie Wickett, Stella Clark, and Charles Clark, upon the testimony of John A. Clark.

- Q Is the Alice Clark who signed this letter and acknowledged it before a Notary Public, March 6, 1905, your wife? A Yes sir.
Q Are the three children named in this identical with the three children whom you have been testifying about? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the father of your step-child? A Charles Shepard.
Q Is the step-child named Lillie Wicked, identical with the Lillie Wickett named in this letter? A Yes sir.
Q In the letter which you have filed on child names is given as Charles Clark. Is that an error? A Yes sir.
Q Are the lands you desire allotted to wife and children improved?
A Yes sir.
Q Are you living upon them? A I have until lately.
Q Is it the home place? A Yes sir.
Q Then the lands that you intend to allot have heretofore been home place? A Yes sir.
Q Has any previous application been made for an allotment of land for your wife and three children? A No sir.

To the Hon. Commission To the Five Civilized Tribes

Comes now Dollie Winton and states to the Commission, that she is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and is the wife of Lloyd Winton, ~~Winton~~, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that they have two minor children, Lillie B. and ~~Lillie~~ Dook Lloyd, ages 6 and 2 respectively. That she and her husband are not living together because of his cruel treatment to her and because of his habitual drunkenness for past six years, which has rendered him wholly incompetent and unreliable; that he has drunk up and squandered all of his effects and also, all property belonging to the petitioner; that the petitioner was forced to sue him for a divorce to save herself and children from poverty, which cause is now pending in the U.S. Court at Wagoner, I.T. That until recently, she had had the care and possession of both their children, but on or about the 26th day of April, ¹⁹⁰³ her husband came to where she was staying and without warning or advice, seized their youngest child and kidnaped him away and refuses to inform her of his where-a-bouts; that he has leased the allotments which she ^{intended to select} ~~has selected~~ for herself and children, received the rents until 1905, and is now trying to dispose of ~~said~~ for a nominal sum in order to prevent the petitioner from filing thereon; that said land came through her father and not by any effort of her husband. W h e r e - f o r e, she protest against her husband filing for either of said children and against all other who may try to select that she be allowed to select and file for their children, above described land, because it is to their best interest, and for such other relief as this Commission can render in the premises.

Dolly Winton being duly sworn states, that the facts set-forth

Sir:-

When you applied for the enrollment of yourself and wife as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you advised the Commission that your name was Lloyd Winton and that the name of your wife was Dolly Winton.

In the affidavit, as to the birth of your child, Dock Lloyd Winton, your name appears as Dock Lloyd Winton and that of your wife as Dollie E. Winton.

If the names which you gave to the Commission when you were listed for enrollment, are correct, they must appear so in the body of the affidavit and the affidavit of your wife must be signed Dolly Winton instead of Dollie E. Winton.

The birth certificate is enclosed herewith.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12222-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Wagoner Record", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Wagoner, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Wagoner Record" was on March 3, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letter of May 31, (I.T.D.6184-1905), June 3, (I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12225-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D.116-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 235 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedom of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Richard Lee Farrar for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage and his wife and children as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Richard Lee Farrar.
Q How old are you? A I am 34.
Q What is your district? A Coowescoowee.
Q What is your post office? A Tulsa.
Q Who is it that you wish to have enrolled? A Myself, wife and two children.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q By adoption? A By intermarriage.
Q Have you a marriage license? A Yes, sir.

(The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license, under date of December 15, 1890, issued by the Clerk of Canadian district, authorizing his marriage to Willie M. Oliver, she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The marriage certificate shows that he was so married on the 22nd day of December, 1890, by H. C. Lowrey, District Judge, Canadian district. This is filed with the application.)

- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you were married in 1890? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you lived all the time with your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A My father's name was Peter.
Q Was he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q The name of your mother? A My mother's name was Louisa Howard.
Q Louisa Fuller while she was your father's wife? A Yes, sir.
Q She a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q By what name do you call your wife at present? A Sallie, she signs her name Sallie M.
Q Was she an Oliver when you married her? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her age? A She is 24.
Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, she was born in Georgia.
Q She was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission?
A Yes, sir.
Q When was she admitted? A In 1882.
Q Have you a certificate of admission? A Yes, sir, it is right here.

(Applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission signed by Alexander Wolf, Acting President of the Commission, S.F. Thompson, D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk, showing that on the 4th of January, 1882, Sallie Oliver was admitted to citizenship by the Commission. This is filed with the application.)

- Q Was that the name of your wife at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q How has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission in 1882? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your two children, please? A Jessie May is the oldest one, she will soon be 4 years old.
Q Is she on the roll of 1898, or too young? A I think she is on the roll of 1898.
Q The next child? A The next child is Bruce, he is only two years old.
Q These children are both living now, are they? A Yes, sir.
(Richard Lee Farrar on 1898 roll, page 305, No. 391, Richard L.

Farrar, Cooweescoowee district. Sallie M. Farrar on 1896 roll, page 180, No. 1811, Sallie Farrar, Cooweescoowee district. Jessie May Farrar on 1896 roll, page 180, No. 1812, Cooweescoowee district.)

The applicant's wife is shown by the certificate filed herewith to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1892. He states that she has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation ever since her ~~own~~ admission. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married to his wife on December 23, 1890. He states that he and she have lived together continuously in the Cherokee Nation as husband and wife ever since his marriage. He and his wife and his little child, Jessie May, are identified on the roll of 1896. The youngest child is not of sufficient age to be upon any roll. The applicant will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The oldest child will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and when a duly authenticated certificate of birth is supplied to the Commission for the younger child, Bruce, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce O. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Commissioner.

Q All unmarried? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A I have a record of it.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant presents a document signed by B. B. Alberty, Asst. executive Secretary of the Cherokee nation, under the seal of his office, showing that the records of Tahlequah district now in his custody, contain the following record:

License granted to J. B. Post to marry Carrie Woodal; ceremony by Willis Weaver, Presbyterian Minister, July 31, 1881. This is filed herewith.

- Q Have you lived with your wife ever since you were married in 1881? A I have.
Q You and she have lived continuously in the Cherokee nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A William Post.
Q White man was he? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Give me the name of your mother. A She died when I was quite small; Elizabeth, I think.
Q Was she a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Your wife's present name is Carrie E. Post, is it? A Yes, sir.
Q When you married her she was a Woodal; was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she on the roll of 1880 as a Woodal? A I think so.
Q Where was she born? A In the Tahlequah district, Cherokee Nation.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q Lived in Tahlequah district all her life? A Yes, sir; I think so.
Q What is her age at this time? A 44.
Q What is the name of her father? A Andrew Woodal.
Q Was he a Cherokee or white man? A White man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1863 I reckon.
Q What was the name of her mother? A Margaret Woodal.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Give me the names of these children? A William T. Post.

1896 enrollment; page 1221, #2446, Margarette Post, Tahlequah.
1896 enrollment; page 1221, #2447, Andrew Post, Tahlequah.
1896 enrollment; page 1221, #2449, Charles Post, Tahlequah.

Q Is that child Adaline really named Maud A? A Her name is Maud Adaline.
Q You have had her enrolled there as Maud A., is that her name?
A. Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant's wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name from the first to the latter roll is accounted for by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. Her husband is identified on the roll of 1896, and his marriage to his Cherokee wife is established by the official record filed herewith and shown to have taken place under Cherokee law in 1881. The applicant's wife has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and her husband has lived in the nation and with her ever since their marriage.

Of their children whose names have been given in by them, the first five are identified on the roll of 1896. The applicant will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His wife and the five children just spoken of will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Daniel, who is not old enough to be upon any of the rolls, then this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Q Next? A Henrietta, 2 years old.
Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes.
Q What proof have you of your marriage to Jennie Kiener? A The man who married me is here in town. He said he had turned his books in to the Executive office, but that he would make a statement— I will get a certificate from Fablemah.
Applicant, on '96 roll, page 934, number 166.
Applicant's wife on '80 roll, page 19, number 21, as Ginnie Kener.
On '96 roll, page 893, number 1520, as Rose.

The name of Samuel Rose is found upon the census roll of '96. He avers that he was married to Jennie Kiener, a Cherokee citizen by blood, in the year '94, and the name of the said Jennie Kiener is found upon the authenticated roll of '80 as Ginnie Kener. Her name is also found upon the census roll of '96 as Jennie Rose. The names of his two children, Pearl and Joseph, are also found upon the census roll of '96. He avers that he has a child, Henrietta, two years old, whose name does not appear upon the census roll of '96, having been born since said roll was compiled. Said Jennie and her three children will be duly enumerated listed by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood, they having been fully identified and making satisfactory proof of their residence. Applicant will be required to file proof as to the birth of Henrietta. Applicant makes no proof of marriage between himself and Jennie Kiener. He will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage, upon filing with this Commission satisfactory proof as to his marriage.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Q They have a couple of children have they? A Yes, sir.

John J. Morgan further testified:

Q Do you know anybody who knew you when you were a child about 10 or 15 years old? A Sterl Hood knew me.

J. L. BAUGH, Representative of the Cherokee Nation:

Q You say you ran off and left your step-father; where did you go to? A I went down into Sequoyah district.

John J. Morgan---3.

- Q Did you go outside the nation any time during your life? A I was out maybe four or five months at a time and back.
- Q You say that you were re-admitted to citizenship; which year was that? A It was 1890 or 1891.
- Q Did the Cherokee National Council re-admit you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r. Breckinridge:

The applicant claims to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee National Council on citizenship in 1891, but he has no written evidence to that effect and no record of it is accessible to the Commission at this time. He is identified on the rolls of 1894 and 1896. He will be placed at this time on a doubtful card, and he is required to supply the Commission with the original or with a certified copy of the act of the Council admitting him to citizenship.

His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896L. On the latter roll she is identified as his wife, and their marriage is established by the applicant's testimony and also by the testimony of his wife's sister.

Their two children, Maud May and Lou Jane, are identified on the roll of 1896. The applicant's wife and these two children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1941

Boudinot 85 Today

Richard Field Boudinot

The passing of an 85th birthday will be observed today by Richard Field Boudinot, above, direct descendant of the famed Cherokee leader, who inscribed a family name indelibly on the pages of Indian history. For Richard Field Boudinot is the grandson of Elias Boudinot, whose marriage to a Connecticut white girl in the early nineteenth century rocked Puritanical New England, and whose later efforts to remove the Cherokees from Georgia to the Indian Territory brought upon him the brand of "traitor" from tribesmen. Elias signed the treaty for removal of the Cherokees from their native home to the then wilderness of the Indian Territory — and consequently met the same fate at the hand of assassins that many other treaty signees met. Actually, according to most historians, Elias was shocked and shamed at the disintegration of the proud Indian people through contact with border whites and whisky traders. He signed the treaty, believing that Cherokee salvation could be found only in isolation. The name Boudinot — which Richard Field bears proudly — was adopted by Elias from that of the American benefactor who made possible his education in New England. When Elias married Harriet Gold, feeling ran so high in her church-going native community that the school the Indian attended was forced to close, and an effigy of the girl was burned in the village. Returning to Georgia with his wife, Boudinot became editor of a Cherokee language newspaper, and was in the small way responsible for the group of editors for which the Cherokees of 1838 were famed. Harriet was loved and respected by both her white and Indian neighbors. She died in 1860, a life-long native of Georgia. From June 7, 1941.

Q Your first child seems to be enrolled as Sallie; you have heard the roll called off, do you identify as your daughter the name Sallie as that of your daughter Alice? A I identify one as Sallie, but not the one we call Alice.

Q The clerk called off your daughter Sarah, what is her age? A About 21.

John Bagdale---2.

Q When he called off the daughter Sallie, you have a daughter Sallie have not you? A I have a daughter Alice, but not a daughter Sallie.

Q The rolls he called off as Sallie corresponds to your daughter Alice? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you have no doubt but that it is intended for your daughter Alice? A No, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant and his wife are identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896. They have lived in the Cherokee nation ever since their enrollment in 1880 and they will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. Their daughter, Alice, is identified on the roll of 1896 under the name of Sallie, which is explained in the testimony as erroneous. The daughter Margaret is identified on the roll of 1896. These two children, Alice and Margaret, will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Q When were you married to her? A '91.

Q When were you divorced from her? A '94.

Q Did you get out a regular petition the second time you married? A No sir.

Q Why didn't you? A The Cherokee law did not require it of me because I considered myself a citizen.

By W. T. Hutchins, Cherokee Attorney? Ax Did you and your wife separate prior to the time you were divorced from her? A Yes.

Q What was the cause of the separation? A She had another man on the string.

Q Who brought the divorce suit? A I did.

Q Did she contest it? A No sir, we were divorced by mutual consent.

By the Commission:

Q In the petition for divorce what was the cause alleged? A Several different causes.

Applicant on '96 roll, page 935, number 161;

Applicant's second wife on '80 roll, page 573, number 1539, as Betsy Ross.

Applicant's second wife on '96 roll, page 900, number (1691) ¹⁷⁶⁹

The name of Hiram Stephens appears upon the census roll of '96. He presents certificate of marriage duly certified to certifying that he was married to Betsy Ross, a Cherokee citizen by blood, on the 19th day of October, 1894, and the name of said Betsy Ross appears upon the authenticated roll of '80 as also upon the census roll of '96, as Hiram Stephens.

He avers that his first marriage was to one Lucy Nowife, whose name is found upon the authenticated rolls of '80 as a Cherokee citizen by blood according to page and number of the roll as indicated in this testimony. He also avers that he was divorced from said Lucy Nowife, and that he had a regular marriage license and certificate authorizing him to marry said Lucy Nowife under laws of the Cherokee Nation.

He avers that he has two children by his last marriage to Betsy Ross, one named Cynthia B., 2 years old, and the other George D., 4 months old. The names of these children do not appear upon the census roll of '96, they having been born thereafter. The applicant will be required to present to this Commission satisfactory proof of the birth of said children before enrollment will be complete. He will also be required to present to this Commission certified copy of the original license and certificate of marriage to his first wife, Lucy Nowife, he averring that they are lost. The said Betsy Ross, his wife, being duly identified upon the census roll of 1896 and authenticated roll of '80, according to page and number as indicated in the testimony, will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. And upon complying with the conditions herein named the said Hiram Stephens will be duly listed for enrollment by this commission as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage, and his two children, Cynthia B., and George D., as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In 1891 I was acting as deputy clerk of Tahlequah District in the Cherokee Nation and as such was empowered by law to issue marriage license as well as to perform marriage ceremony. At that time I was acquainted with Hiram Stephens and Lucy Nowife. The former was at that time a citizen of the United States and the latter was a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Some time in May 1891 Mr. Stephens presented to me as such Deputy Clerk the petition required by the Cherokee Law signed by ten reputable citizens of the Cherokee Nation and I thereupon issued to him and said Lucy Nowife license to marry and after having issued the license I also performed the marriage ceremony of said Hiram Stephens and Lucy Nowife in the Clerks Office in the town of Tahlequah Cherokee Nation Indian Territory. At the time that I solemnized the marriage between said Hiram Stephens and Lucy Nowife the father of said Stephens and E. C. Boudinot were also present both of whom are now dead. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, I.T., October 23, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Hiram Stephens for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation, and for the enrollment of his wife Betsy, and his children, Cynthia B., George D., and Lee W., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation.

Hiram Stephens being first duly sworn, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q Your name is Hiram Stephens? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you? A 33 years.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Hayden, I.T.
Q Are you a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Are you claiming the right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage?
A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Betsy.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long has your wife Betsy been living in the Cherokee nation? A All her life.
Q When were you and Betsy married? A We was married October, 1894.
Q Were you married under a Cherokee marriage license? A No sir.
Q You are not claiming through Betsy, are you? A Well, yes.
Q Did you have another wife? A Yes, I have been married twice.
Q What was your first wife's name? A Lucy Nowife.
Q When were you married to Lucy? A 1891.
Q Was you married to her under a Cherokee marriage license? A Yes sir.
Q Was Lucy your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q Had Lucy ever been married before you married her? A No sir.
Q Is Lucy dead? A No, I don't think she is.
Q Are you divorced from her? A Yes sir.
Q When were you divorced? A It was either in 1893 or '94; I will not be positive.
Q Was it before you married Betsy? A Yes sir.
Q In what court were you divorced? A Cherokee court, Illinois district.
Q Who sued for the divorce? A I did.
Q Had you been separated before you sued for the divorce? A Yes.
Q What was the cause of that separation? A She thought too much of another man--more of him than she did of me.
Q How long did you live together before you were divorced? A Only a short time.
Q About how long? A About four months.
Q She fell in love with another man? A Yes, I guess so.
Q Went off with him? A No, not before me and her separated.
Q Did she leave? A Yes, she left me.
Q Did you always treat her kindly? A Yes, up until I see I couldn't.
Q Did you make proper provision for her? A Yes sir.
Q What is your occupation? A Farming.
Q You say you treated her kindly until you couldn't do it any more, did you? until you saw how she was behaving? Did you tell her to leave home? A Yes sir.
Q Where did she go? A She went to her mother's, and from there she come to this town with another man.
Q How soon after that was it your sued for a divorce? A It was quite awhile; we was married in 1891, and as well as I remember it was the summer of 1894 I got the divorce; about 3 or 3 years.
Q Did you ever file a copy of the judgment of divorce with this Commission? A No, I never was required to.

- Q Did you get the divorce by default? Did she appear? A No, she didn't appear.
- Q You have got a copy of that judgment? You can get one? A I don't know, it might be like getting a copy of my license.
- Q Have you tried to get it? A A copy of the license?
- Q No, of the divorce? A No, I was divorced in Judge Littlejohn's court.
- Q If you write to Mr. J. T. Parke at Tahlequah and ask him to look up the matter and send you a copy of that judgment--
- A It might be done like a lot of other matters.
- Q If you can't find it, let the Commission know. Betsy then, is your second wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Had Betsy ever been married before she married you? A No sir.
- Q You have been living with Betsy ever since you were married? A Yes.
- Q You was not married to her under a Cherokee marriage license? A No, the Cherokee law didn't require it at that time; we were both married as citizens of the Cherokee nation.
- Q Are you living with Betsy now? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you been making your home in the Cherokee nation ever since you were married to Lucy? A Yes, 22 years.
- Q How many children have you living? A Three living.
- Q Who is the mother of them; Betsy? A Yes sir.
- Q Is Lee M. living? A Yes sir.
- Q Which child is dead? A James S. He is not enrolled.
- Q Never has been enrolled? A No sir.
- Q In speaking of your marriage license and certificate that you had difficulty in getting; that was to your wife Lucy? A Yes; like a great many other adopted men I got my license destroyed, and went to Tahlequah to get a copy of the certificate and it seems the records was destroyed; the clerk's office at Tahlequah burned.
- Q That is another reason why you should get a copy of the decree of divorce; the two things will have to be done; get a copy of the judgment of the divorce between you and Lucy, and if you cannot get that then you will have to prove your marriage to Lucy by witnesses who saw you married. A I can bring a man here who issued the license and the man who performed the ceremony.
- Q Try and get your judgment of divorce first; if you get that you will not need to bring the other witnesses.

Examination by Mr. Starr-Cherokee representative.

- Q Where were you living when this separation took place between you and your first wife? A I was living in Illinois district, east of Tahlequah
- Q How long had you been living there? A On that place from the time we and her was married until we separated.
- Q How long was that? A I think it was about 3 or 4 months.
- Q Did you compel her to leave your house? A No sir.
- Q You told her to go? A I told her to go, yes.
- Q She didn't go with any man from your house? A No, she went with me; I took her to her mother and left her there.
- Q How come you to do that? A Well, I hate to be too plain about it.
- Q What is the name of this other man you say she finally went to Muskegee with? A Ed Plank; he was a deputy marshal at that time.
- Q Where did she live at that time? A She staid here in Muskegee.
- Q How do you know she went to Muskegee with him? A I just know it like you would know anything that you know; she come to Muskegee with him.
- Q Did you see her come to Muskegee with him? A No, I didn't.
- Q How do you know she came here? A I saw her after she was here, and her mother told me that she come with him, and less of other folks.
- Q Is your first wife living now? A I think she is.
- Q Where does she live? A The last time I saw her she was over at Greenleaf, east of Braggs station.
- Q Is she married again? A No, I don't think she is; she was living with Q a fellow over there; I don't think they was married.

Q Is this Sam Plant living now? A, I don't know whether he is or not.

By the Commission:

Q What is the reason you could not produce your marriage certificate?
A I got them destroyed, and when I went to get a copy of the license and certificate at the clerk's office, it seems the records in 1891 were destroyed. Then I went to the clerk--the deputy clerk, John L. Adair, and got an affidavit; he is the man that issued the license and married me, and I mailed them to the Commission; then I got a letter from the Commission that it had been duly filed.

Frances R. Lane upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she correctly recorded the testimony in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Hiram Stephens,

Braggs, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby notified that, before your application for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, will be complete, it will be necessary for you to supply the Commission with a certified copy of the decree of divorce, which you claim was granted to you from your former wife.

You are also requested to again forward to the Commission the marriage certificate and affidavit as to marriage license having been issued, which was heretofore filed with the record in your case and subsequently returned to you.

You should give this matter your earliest attention.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Ollie Guinn, husband and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and she being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Ollie Guinn.
Q How old are you? A Twenty five.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Wagoner.
Q What is your District? A Tahlequah.
Q Whom is it you want to put on the rolls?
A Myself, husband and children.
Q How many children? A Two.
Q Why does not your husband apply? A He is in the penitentiary.
Q Do you apply as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Is your husband a Cherokee by blood or a white man.
A He is a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Ever since I have been born.
Q All your life? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in Tahlequah District? A All my life.
Q When were you married? A Have been married pretty near five years.
Q Is that the only time you were ever married? A Yes sir.
Q What was your name before you were married? A Ollie Shade.
Q What was your father's name? A Joe Shade.
Q A Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or living? A Living.
Q What is your mother's name? A Martha Shade.
Q She was a Cherokee or white woman? A White woman.
Q Dead or living? A Living.
Q Give me your husband's full name? A Acy L. Guinn.
Q Do you remember exactly when you were married? A Yes sir.
Q When? A On the 15th of September, 1895.
Q Have you a marriage licence? A Yes sir.
(The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee marriage licence, showing that marriage was authorized between her and her husband as she states, on the 12th of September, 1895, by the Clerk of Tahlequah District, and that the ceremony was performed by John M. Davis, Minister of the Gospel. It is filed herewith)
Q When was your husband sent to the penitentiary
A A little over a year ago.
Q Did he live with you up to the time he went to prison? A Yes sir.
Q All the time from your marriage until then? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been condemned to prison? A Five years.
Q Give me the names of these children? A Leonard Guinn.
Q How old is Leonard? A Four years old.
Q Is he old enough to be on the roll of 1896? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the next child? A Elias Guinn.
Q How old is that child? A Two years old.
Q Both children are now living, are they? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your husband's father? A John Guinn.
Q White man, was he? A Yes sir.
Q Dead or living? A Living.
Q His mother; what is her name? A Vic Guinn.
Q A white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Dead or living? A Living.
(1880 Roll, Page 808, #2145, Arley Shade, Tahlequah District)
(1890 Roll, Page 1176, #1244, Ollie Guinn, Tahlequah District)
(1890 Roll, Page 1280, #93, Asie Guinn, Tahlequah District)
(1896 Roll, Page 1176, #1245, Leonard Guinn, Tahlequah District)
Q Both of these children are living now? A Yes sir.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1890, as a Native Cherokee. Her change of name is explained by her marriage licence and certificate filed herewith. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Her husband is shown by the marriage license and certificate, to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law, on September 5th, 1895. She states that he lived with her continuously up to the time of his being sent to prison a year ago. He is identified as her husband on the roll of 1896, and he will now be listed for enrollment as a citizen by adoption.

Their child, Leonard is identified on the roll of 1896; Their child, Silas is too young to be on any of the rolls; The child Leonard Guinn will now be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood, and when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of the child Silas, it also will be ~~listed~~ enrolled as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the selection of an allotment in the Cherokee Nation for SILAS GUINN, Cherokee 5599 (card number 2159).

NOAH PARRIS, being duly sworn by Bert Van Leuven and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Noah Parris.
- Q What is your age? A 54.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Abniwake.
- Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q You were a member of the Cherokee National Council, were you not? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Asa L. Guinn, a white man? A Yes sir.
- Q His wife is named Ollie? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know the names of their children? A Leonard and Silas and Curtis.
- Q How many of these children are living now? A Just one.
- Q What's the name of that one? A Leonard.
- Q When did Silas die? A I think it was about the 1st of July, 1902, to the best of my recollection.
- Q How do you fix that date? A Why I fix it this way; it aint more than 3 miles from my house where they was when the child died and I know it was along about that time; and by the other baby that was born too.
- Q The other baby? You mean Curtis? A Yes, her mother carried her off just after the burial down the river; I never seen her any more for several months.
- Q Just after the burial of Silas you mean Curtis's mother, Ollie, carried her off? A Yes sir, carried her off from Shade's and carried her down the river about 15 mile from the neighborhood.
- Q With reference to the birth of Curtis, was Silas living or had he died before Curtis was born? A He died; Curtis wasn't born when her mother took her off down the river.
- Q When was Curtis born, do you know that date? A No, only just what her mother said.
- Q When was that? A About the 28th of July they told me.
- Q This child Curtis is your child I believe? A She said it was, yes.
- Q On account of that fact you know when the child was born? A Yes.
- Q What I mean is, the fact you were said to be the child's father fixes the date of the child's birth in your mind? A Yes sir.

By the Commission: The records in the Cherokee Land Office, as evidenced by Cherokee enrollment card 9691, show that an affidavit as to the birth of Curtis Parris, sometime prior to September 1, 1902, was filed with the Commission on October 16, 1902, and that child listed for enrollment from that affidavit. Reference is made to the original birth affidavit on file in Cherokee enrollment case 9691 to show the exact date of the birth of Curtis Parris.

- Q You are positive that Silas died before Curtis was born?
- A Yes sir.

- Q Were you present at the funeral of this child Silas?
A No, I wasn't.
Q How do you know that her mother took her away directly after the funeral down the river as you state? A Her mother told me and these folks told me; that was just hearsay.
Q And you didn't see her anymore? A No sir.
Q In giving this testimony, Mr. Farris, are you aware that an affidavit has been filed with the Commission showing that Silas Guinn died on the 17th of September, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q You are also aware that J. L. Guinn, an administrator, has selected an allotment for Silas Guinn and claimed that Silas Guinn died late enough to get an allotment? A Yes sir.
Q And you state that all of that is untrue? A Yes. Yes it is.
Q When did you learn, as you claim, that the true date of the death of Silas Guinn hadn't been given to the Commission?
A About a week ago to-day.
Q How did you learn it? A I learned it from Ollie's mother; she sent for me and I went down there and that is what she wanted to explain to me that Ollie had explained to her on her death bed that that was what they had her do in order to get this land.
Q Ollie Guinn is dead? A Yes sir.
Q When did she die? A The 28th of March, 1905.
Q Just recently? A Yes sir.
Q And you say something about her having told her mother on her death bed about swearing falsely? A Yes, said they made her swear falsely to get that land.
Q Ollie told her mother than when she was on her death bed?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of Ollie Guinn's mother? A Martha Baldrige.
Q Where does she live? A She lives down at the mouth of Fourteen Mile Creek, between Fourteen Mile Creek and Baron Park.
Q Her postoffice would be Melvin? A Yes, that's her postoffice.
Q Do you know if there was anyone present when Ollie told her mother? A Yes, her daughter was present, Lelia Baldrige; that's all she made mention of.
Q And Mrs. Baldrige sent for you and told you about it? A Yes.
Q And you then came to the Commission and saw the Chief Clerk, Mr. Jones, and reported the fact to him? A Yes sir.
Q And you came back to-day at his request, with other witnesses?
A Yes sir.

ANNIE TUCKER, being duly sworn by Bert Van Leuven and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Annie Tucker.
Q How old are you? A 29.
Q What is your postoffice? A Hulbert.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood, are you? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Ollie Guinn? A Yes sir.
Q You have heard the testimony of Mr. Farris? A Yes sir.
Q What do you know about the date of the death of this child Silas?
A Well, I don't know exactly the date, but I knew he died in July.
Q How do you know that? A By the other baby being born after he died.
Q That's Curtis? A Yes sir.
Q Silas was dead when Curtis was born? A Yes sir.
Q How long had Silas been dead when Curtis was born? A Well, I couldn't tell you; she was born right away, in the month of July.
Q What year? A 1902.
Q You say that Curtis was born right after Silas died? A Yes sir.

- Q Were you at the funeral? A Yes sir.
Q And you are positive Curtis hadn't been born then?
A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other way you can fix the date when Silas died or the date when Curtis was born? A No, I couldn't.
Q Do you know when the Cherokee rally closed? A No.
Q Do you know anything about whether they died too early or too late? A No, I don't know anything about that.
Q How far did Ollie live from you when Silas died? A About a quarter of a mile.
Q You were in the house after the child died? A No sir.
Q You were just at the funeral? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever hear anything about Ollie Guinn or anyone else swearing falsely as to the time when this child died?
A No sir.
Q You are sure you remember that the burial was in July?
A Yes sir.
Q And you are sure that Curtis was born after Silas died?
A Yes sir.

BETSY SHADE, being duly sworn by Bert Van Leuven and examined by the Commission, testified, through sworn interpreter, Tom Shade, as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Betsy Shade.
Q How old are you? A 33.
Q What is your postoffice? A Hulbert.
Q Are you a full-blood Cherokee? A Yes.
Q Did you know Ollie Guinn? A Yes.
Q Are you any relation to her? A Sister-in-law.
Q Was she the wife of Ana L. Guinn? A Yes.
Q Did she have a child named Silas? A Yes.
Q Is that child living or dead? A Not living.
Q Do you know when it died? A I don't remember the exact date; it was in July.
Q July what year? A 1902.
Q How do you remember it was in July 1902? A I know he died in July 1902.
Q How do you fix that date; have you got any way of fixing it?
A (no answer)
Q Do you remember when the Commission had a camp at Taylor's store near Hulbert? A I don't remember it.
Q Where did Silas die? A He died at my house.
Q And that's what makes you remember the date? A Yes.
Q Ollie had another child named Curtis, did she? A Not at the time Silas died.
Q Was Curtis born after Silas died? A Yes.
Q You are positive about that, are you? A Yes.
Q Where was Curtis born, do you know? A Curtis was born about 4 days after Silas' death; I and Ollie went to her sister's that was on Grand River and Curtis was born there.
Q You were with Ollie when Curtis was born? A Yes.
Q Were you at Silas's funeral? A Yes.
Q And you state that right after the funeral you went to Ollie's sister's and 4 days afterward Curtis was born? A Yes.
Q Ollie is dead herself now, isn't she? A Yes.
Q Where did she die? A She died in Arkansas.

Cher. 5599, (4)

- Q Did you ever hear of her or anybody else claiming that Silas didn't die until September 1902? A No sir.
- Q You don't know whether Ollie or any of her relatives claimed that Silas died in September 1902, so that they could get an allotment for him, do you? A No sir.
- Q Where did they get the coffin that they buried Silas in? A They made it there at the house.
- Q Who made it? A Rice was one.
- Q Do you know whether or not a man named Bill Gibson helped? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did he live? A About a quarter of a mile from the house, at that time.

Cherokee Allotment
5899.

In the matter of the selection of an allotment in the Cherokee Nation for SILAS GUINN, Cherokee Allotment 5899.

WHEREAS, on August 22, 1905, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit as to the death, on September 17, 1903, of Silas Guinn, Cherokee allottee 5899;

AND WHEREAS, on February 20, 1906, J. L. Guinn presented letters of administration, appointing him as administrator of the estate of Silas Guinn, and was thereupon permitted to select an allotment in the Cherokee Nation for the said Silas Guinn;

AND WHEREAS, it appears from testimony taken on May 19, 1905, a copy of which is attached hereto, that the date of the death of Silas Guinn, as shown in the affidavit above referred to, is incorrect, the said Silas Guinn having died prior to September 1, 1902;

AND WHEREAS, Section 31 of the Cherokee Agreement (22 Stat. 716) provides as follows:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two."

Order, (2)

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, That the allotment selection in the Cherokee nation, made on February 20, 1908 by J. L. Guinn as administrator of the estate of Silas Guinn, be, and the same is, hereby cancelled and held for naught, and Cherokee allotment certificates, heretofore issued covering the land, are cancelled.

Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Ollie.
Q Is she living? A No, sir, she is dead.
Q When did she die? A The 28th day of March.
Q In what year? A 1905.
Q Have you any minor children living? A Yes, sir, Leonard is living.
Q When did Silas die?
A I could not say, I was not here at that time.
Q Did your child Silas die before or after September 1, 1905?
A Why, I could not say for sure, because I was not here at that time; I was gone about four years during that time.
Q Do you claim your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage by reason of your marriage to your wife, Ollie?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married her? A No, sir.
Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A No, sir.
Q Your Cherokee marriage license and certificate of marriage, which you filed with your original application, showed that you were married on September 15, 1895; is that correct?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did you and your wife live together continuously from the time of your marriage until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever made your home outside of the Cherokee Nation since you were married?
A Well, we lived a little while out of the State at the time before she died, in Kansas.
Q How long before that was it that you went out there?
A About a year I guess, hardly so long.
Q Where were you living on September 1, 1905?
A In Kansas.

me

- Q Where were you living when you and your wife were married?
A I was living at Tahlequah and she was living at Wagener.
Q That was in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you continue to live in the Cherokee Nation after you were married?
A Well, we lived there until --well, all the time; when I went away to Kansas she continued there until I came back.
Q When did you go to Kansas? A 1899.
Q Were you sent to the United States Penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth in 1899? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you stay there? A Four years and two months.
Q During the time you were in the Penitentiary, did your wife continue to live in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q After you were released from the Penitentiary, did you and she resume your married life? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you live together continuously until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was she living when you were released from the penitentiary?
A Near Wagener at her old home.
Q And you came back there? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live there then?
A Well, I came back in June, I guess along the 15th or 16th, and we left along the first of August.
Q That was in 1905? A Yes, sir, I think so.

V. P. THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1902, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 10, 1902.

Ass L. Quinn,
Wagoner, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

There has heretofore been mailed you a notice, requiring you to appear before the Commission for the purpose of giving additional testimony relative to your right to enrollment, on September 1, 1902, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony has not yet been introduced and you are now advised that, until same is presented, your application for enrollment will not be complete. Such testimony can be introduced before the Commission at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, any time prior to December 24, 1902, or before the Cherokee Land Office at Vinita, Indian Territory after January 2, 1903.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

COMMISSION TO FIVE TRIBES

Waukege, Indian Territory, March 6, 1908.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

SIR:

Referring to schedule No. 6 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Department November 14, 1902, I have the honor to report that the name thereon opposite No. 8601 should be Lucy Thome instead of Lucy Thorne. The record in the matter of the application of this person for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation shows her correct name to be Lucy Thome. A copy of said testimony is inclosed herewith.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that the copies of this schedule retained by the Department and in the Office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected so that the name on said schedule opposite No. 8601 will appear as Lucy Thome instead of Lucy Thorne, and that this office be authorized to make similar correction on the copies of this schedule returned to it.

Respectfully,

W. H. H. H.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:-

March 7, 1906, you recommended that the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be corrected so that the name opposite No. 5601 thereon will appear as Lucy Thome instead of Lucy Thorne, it appearing from the testimony taken in the matter of the application of said person for enrollment that such change is necessary.

Reporting May 11, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department has made such correction upon the proper roll in its possession, and has requested the Indian Office to do the same. You are authorized to make such correction upon the proper roll in your office.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 7, 1906, which shows that the name opposite No. 5601, approved rolls of citizens by blood, Cherokee Nation, should be changed from Lucy Thorne to Lucy Thome.

Mr. Bixby transmitted a copy of the testimony, which conclusively shows that the change mentioned by him should be made. He recommends that the proper correction be made on the roll on file with the Department, and that he and this Office be authorized to make the same correction on the respective rolls.

His recommendation is concurred in.

Very respectfully,

Q How many of them are there, under twenty one years of age, and unmarried? A Two.
Q Then you apply for these two? A Yes sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? About a half breed.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About sixty five years.
Q How long have you lived in Tanlequah District? A I have lived in Tanlequah District ever since I have been here.
Q You are on the roll of 1830 then from Tanlequah? A Yes sir.
Q And 1896? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Jackson Rattlengourd,
Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A About fourteen years.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Elsie Rattlengourd.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A She has been dead about fifteen years.
Q Give me your wife's full name; her present name? A Adaline Rattlengourd.
Q She is a Cherokee by blood, is she? A She is a white woman.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Adaline Johnson.
Q Was that her maiden name? A No sir.
Q What was her name before it was Johnson? A Pain.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Fifty two as near as I can tell.
Q When were you married? A Five years ago this last July.
Q Have you a marriage certificate? A I have at home; I have none here.
Q None here? A None here.
Q Has she lived with you as your wife ever since your marriage?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of her father? A Myer Pain.
Q A white man? A Yes sir.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of her mother? A I do not recollect what it was.
Q Give me the names of these two children in full?
A Myer Johnson.
Q How old is that child? A Nineteen years old.
Q The name of the next one? A Isaac Johnson.

Q Do you know of her? A Yes sir.
Q Who was she understood to be before he married her?
A The widow of Milo Johnson.
Q She was well understood as the widow of Milo Johnson, was she?
A Yes sir.

Applicant recalled:

The applicant is duly identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as a native Cherokee, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously for about sixty five years. His wife is identified on the roll of 1880, as being at that time the wife of Milo Johnson. She is a white woman, but her husband at that time was a Cherokee, as shown by his enrollment. He died some sixteen years ago, and after his death, it is shown by personal testimony, both by that of her present husband and by additional witnesses, that she continued as the widow of Milo Johnson until she married the applicant, which she is said to have done in July, 1895. Her rights as an intermarried Cherokee have thus been continued, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

Her two children named in the testimony, Myec and Isaac are her children by her former husband, and they are identified on the roll of 1896, as indicated. Both their father and their mother are identified on the rolls of 1880, and these two children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

 A America was the oldest one; Julia, Maggie, Dudley, Laurie and Martin.
 Q Didn't your husband sometimes go by the name of Miller Johnson?
 A No sir; I think I can tell you though how that came. It was in the fault of the census taker. Somehow, they misspelled his name and put it down Miller. His right name was Milo.
 Q Did you live with your husband, Milo Johnson, from the time of your marriage continuously until the time of his death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When did you say he died? In 1884?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Have you married since his death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of your present husband?
 A James Ratlinggourd.
 Q He was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time you married him?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You and he have lived continuously together as husband and wife since your marriage?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Has your residence been continuously in the Cherokee Nation since you came here with your husband, Milo Johnson, in 1872?
 A Yes sir; I have never lived outside of the Cherokee Nation.
 Q And you never had any husband other than these two that you have mentioned?
 A No sir.
 Q Have you any evidence of a documentary character to show your marriage to your first husband?
 A No sir; I haven't it with me; I have written back to the old country for it, but it hasn't gotten here yet.
 Q But you were married back there and it was recorded?
 A Yes sir; we were married by a Justice of the Peace.
 Q Then it is likely that you will be able to secure a copy of the records?
 A Yes sir; if it has been destroyed any way, I have sent for the affidavits of two who were present when I was married.

Cicero Johnson being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus,
 Notary Public, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Cicero Johnson.
 Q What is your age? A 64 years old.
 Q What is your post office address?
 A Tahlequah.
 Q Are you acquainted with one Adeline Ratlinggourd?
 A Yes sir.
 Q She is a white woman?
 A Yes sir.
 Q She claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Are you related to her?
 A Only by marriage; she married my brother.
 Q You are a Cherokee by blood?
 A Yes sir.

- Q What was the name of the husband through whom Adeline Ratlinggourd claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation?
- A Milo Johnson.
- Q Was Milo Johnson your brother?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he married to Adeline Ratlinggourd, formerly Johnson?
- A North Carolina, Cherokee ~~Indian~~ County.
- Q Were you living there at that time?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Were you present at the marriage?
- A No sir.
- Q But you were living in that community?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And you have every reason to believe that they were married?
- A Yes sir; the law wouldn't allow them to live together without being properly married.
- Q Do you know when they first removed to the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes sir; in '72.
- Q Did you come at that time?
- A No sir; I came in February following.
- Q After your brother came to the Cherokee Nation, was he admitted to citizenship in the Nation?
- A Yes sir.
- Q In what year? A In '74.
- Q Were you admitted at the same time?
- A Yes sir.
- Q By Act of Council? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you a certificate of that admission?
- A No sir; we had a pamphlet, - a book, and we let an old lady have it, and her house and everything burned up.
- Q Is your brother, Milo Johnson, dead at this time?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did he and his wife, Adeline Johnson, reside together continuously until his death?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Since his death, has she remarried?
- A Yes sir.
- Q What is the name of her present husband?
- A James Ratlinggourd.
- Q He is a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Was so recognized at the time of her marriage?
- A Yes sir.
- Q James Ratlinggourd and Adeline Ratlinggourd have lived together as husband and wife since their marriage?
- A Yes sir.
- Q The residence of Adeline Ratlinggourd, formerly Johnson, has been continuously in the Cherokee Nation since coming here in 1872?
- A Yes sir; has never been out of this Cherokee Nation.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nancy Evaline Berd and child as Cherokees by blood. John C. Berd being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John C. Berd.
Q What is your age? A 30 years.
Q What is your post office address? A Fort Gibson.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A My wife and child.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Nancy Evaline.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Linder.
Q When did you marry? A I married last January a year ago.
Q January, 1899? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your wife's father? A John Linder.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q He a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Her name is Kizzie Linder.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the age of your wife? A She is 19.
Q She is a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know what degree of blood? A No, sir, I don't, I expect about 1/32.
Q She is not on the roll of 1880 I don't suppose? A No, sir, I don't suppose she is.
Q Would she be enrolled in 1896 as Linder? A Yes, sir, Linder. (On 1896 roll, page 1203, No. 1963, Eveline Linder, Tahlequah dist. J. R. Linder on 1880 roll, page 779, No. 1500, Tahlequah district. Kizzie Linder on 1896 roll, page 779, No. 1301, Kizzy Linder, Tahlequah district.)
Q Is Nancy E. Linder, your wife, the child of John R. and Kizzie Linder? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your child? A Beatrice J.
Q How old is it? A 8 months, I thin, it was born in December, 1899.
The name of Nancy E. Linder appears upon the census roll of 1899 as Eveline Linder. It is averred that she married one John C. Berd in the month of February, 1899, and it is also averred that she is the child and lineal descendant of John R. and Kizzie Linder, whose names appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, according to page and number of said rolls as indicated in the testimony. Satisfactory evidence being made as to her residence, and she being fully identified she will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. The applicant applies for his child by this marriage, to Nancy E. Linder, Beatrice J., 8 months old, whose name does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled, consequently said child, Beatrice J., will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in this case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

William G. Fields,
Starvilla, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

William G. Fields,
Starvilla, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

V. V. Hastings,

Attorney for Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

For your information there is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 28, 1907, affirming the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of Queen Watkins, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Alexander Barnes - 8.

Q Have you any proof of birth for these two younger children?

A No, sir.

Q Was your wife admitted at the same time you were? A I can't say.

Q Did you apply for your wife? A I don't believe it did, I will not be positive about it.

The name of Alexander Barnes appears upon the census roll of 1896. The name of his wife, Caroline P. Barnes, also appears upon the census roll of 1896, as well as of his children, Martha, Nancy B., and Antonia. He avers that he was readmitted to Cherokee citizenship in the year 1889, and that he was married to his wife, Caroline, a white person, in the year 1887, but presents no certificate of marriage nor certificate of readmission. He avers that he has two children not upon the roll of 1896, named Mary and Malinda, whose names do not appear upon said roll because they were born after said roll was completed, but presents no certificate of birth.

The name of Alexander Barnes and his five children as named in the testimony will be duly listed for enrollment, as as citizens by blood. Their enrollment will be complete when he files with this Commission a certificate of his marriage to said Caroline and also a certificate of admission from the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, and proof of birth as to his younger children, Mary and Malinda.

—o—
Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

Alexander Barnes,
Vs,
Cherokee Nation

The above case was called three several times & no response from applicant the commission therefore rejected said case on the 25 day of April 1889 and now comes the above applicant and asks for a reconsider of his case and in doing so makes the following statement upon oath: This my age is 30 years old & I live at Briar Town Canadian Dist Cherokee Nation. I did not know that my application for Cherokee citizenship was on file before the Commission on citizenship until I heard that I was rejected. This was my first knowledge of the fact. The Commission now upon the above statement do hereby agree to reconsider the above case and in so doing now proceed to take & hear the testimony of one Elis Brown

Who swears that his age is 40 years old & that he resides at Briar Town C.N. and that his mothers name was Klizabeth Brown, nee Crossland, a sister of Richard Crossland, Mr Alexander Barnes the applicant mother was name Mary Barnes, nee Brown,

She was a sister of mine, a daughter of Klizabeth Brown. The applicant Alexander, Hiram and John Brown are her heirs and they are Cherokees by blood. Now the Commission of the testimony

& upon an examination of the census rolls taken & made in the year of 1858 known as the old settler rolls find the name of Klizabeth Brown the ancestor of applicant. Now in view of the above facts decide that Alexander Barnes, age 28 years, Hiram Barnes age 26 years, and John Barnes age 22 years, are Cherokees by blood and are hereby readmitted to all the rights & privileges of Cherokees Citizens

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FT. GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 26th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Thomas Morgan Cumpton, wife and children, for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Thomas Morgan Cumpton.
Q What is your age? A About thirty seven years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Muskogee.
Q What is your District? A Canadian.
Q Whom is it you want to enroll now? A Myself, wife and four children.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since I came here in 1889; first came in 1863, and then went off, and came back in 1889.
Q Have you lived all the time in Canadian District? A Yes sir.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission?
A Yessir; I have my certificate at Tahlequah.
(The applicant files a statement by C. J. Harris, Assistant Executive Secretary, under date of December 20th, 1889, and under the seal of his office, to the effect that the National Council, on that date, readmitted the applicant to all the rights, privileges and immunities of a Cherokee by blood. This is filed with his application)
Q Give me the name of your father please? A Willis Cumpton.
Q Cherokee or white man? A White man.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Nancy Cumpton.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or living? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A Thirty seven years the 25th of this month.
Q How long has your father been dead? A About eight years, I suppose; as well as I can remember.
Q Give me the full name of your wife? A Mary Cumpton.
Q How old is she? A Twenty nine.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Frazier.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes sir; Mary Frazier.
Q Do you apply for her as a Cherokee by blood, or intermarriage?
A Intermarriage.
Q When were you married to her? A November 7th, 1889.
Q You were married to her before you were readmitted as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir; about a month.
Q Has she lived with you as your wife ever since you and she were married in 1889? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married to her - did you have a marriage ceremony performed after your readmission to Cherokee citizenship? A No sir. Our laws did not require it.
Q If the man was a Cherokee, or if she was a Cherokee, the law did not require it? A That was our old law.
Q Give me the name of your sister's father? A William Frazier.
Q A white man? A Yes sir.
Q Dead or living? A Living, at the last account.
Q What is the name of her mother? A I do not remember her name.
Q Give me the names of your four children? A Thealia Cumpton.
Q How old is that child? A Eight years old.
Q The next child? A Emmett Cumpton.
Q How old is that child? A Six years old.
Q The next child? A Eben Cumpton.
Q How old is he? A He is three.
Q The next child? A Charles Cumpton.
Q How old is Charles? A He is a year old past.
Q Is Eben on the roll of 1898? A Yes sir.
Q All these children are living now, are they? A Yes sir; I wish I had this child down wrong. He is on the roll of 1898, I am certain, but he is three years old.

Q Has your wife lived with you ever since her marriage to you?
A Yes sir.

Q Has lived with you in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir,
(1896 Roll, Page 16, #441, Thomas M. Cumpton, Canadian District)
(1896 Roll, Page 86, #55, Mary Cumpton, Canadian District)
(1896 Roll, Page 16, #442, Chalen Cumpton, Canadian District)

This applicant is shown by his certificate of admission, filed herewith, to have been readmitted to Cherokee citizenship on the 20th day of December, 1889. He is identified on the roll of 1896, and the first three of his children, enumerated in the testimony are also identified on the roll of 1896. These children have been born since his admission, and he and these three children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. His youngest child, Charles is not of sufficient age to be on any of the rolls. When he supplies the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. These children are living at this time; and the applicant testified that he has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since his admission in 1889.

Now as to his application for his wife, he shows that the marriage ceremony was performed in November, 1889, prior to his admission to Cherokee citizenship; and that he was never remarried to his wife after his admission. For the further consideration of any points involved in the matter of her application, it will now be placed on a "Doubtful Card". She is identified as his wife on the roll of 1896.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

1894 roll for applicant, page 12 #260 Malinda Baily Canadian Dist.
Q You say that you think you were admitted once by the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Com'r Breckinridge: The printed list of admitted and re-admitted citizens in the possession of the Cherokee representatives show that the applicant was admitted on November 21 1883.
Q You don't apply for your husband A No sir.
Q He was never married to you under Cherokee law? A No sir, he was married in Texas.
Q These children are all living here now are they? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here all their lives? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1894 and 1896; she claims to have been admitted by the Cherokee authorities in 1883, and the printed roll in the possession of the Cherokee Representatives present shows that she was so admitted; her three children are all of ages indicating that they were born since that period of admission; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation, she states, for nineteen years, and her children for whom she now applies have lived here all of their lives; she and these children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood, with a note that certificate of her admission is to be supplied.

H. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Is this child's name Soie or Emma, that you call her?

The name of Jesse Locust appears on the census roll of 1880, and the name of her former wife, Jennie, also appears on the census roll of 1880. She being dead, her name does not appear on the census roll of 1890. The certificate of marriage and marriage license certifying that he was married on the 30th day of October, 1880, to Mrs. Sarah Williams, a white person. By his former wife he had one child, Jennie, 29 years old, whose name appears upon the census roll of 1880, and by his present wife, Sarah E., he has three children, Frank and Martha Emma, whose names appear upon the census roll of 1880, and William, who being born after the roll of 1880 was completed, his name does not appear thereon. THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

U.S. 111

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 25, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 6 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, heretofore approved by the Department, I have the honor to report that the sex of Ocie Locust, appearing thereon opposite No. 8619, should be corrected so as to appear as male instead of female. On August 24, 1905, Ocie Locust appeared before this office and testified that the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in listing him for enrollment as a female was erroneous. A copy of said testimony is inclosed herewith.

I therefore, respectfully recommend that the copies of this schedule retained by the Department and in the Office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected so that the sex of Ocie Locust, opposite No. 8619, will appear as male instead of female; that in the column marked "Sex" the letter "M" be made to appear instead of the letter "F", and that this office be authorized to make similar corrections on the copies of said schedule returned to it.

The Department has been advised that the registrars in various districts have reported that the names of children born in their districts often bear the name "John" and "Mary" and in the affidavits and applications for enrollment the name of the child is given as "John" and "Mary" and in the affidavits the ordinary name of a male will be given for a female, and vice versa, and in the numerous affidavits as to the births of children whose parents had previously made application for enrollment the ordinary name for a male would be given therein for a female, and it is not surprising that the errors reported have been made in listing them for enrollment and reporting them to the Department.

Respectfully,

LS

Acting Commissioner.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from Commissioner Bixby, dated September 25, 1905, referring to schedule No. 6, of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore approved by the Department. The Commissioner now transmits a copy of the testimony in the supplemental proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ocic Locust, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner states that the sex of Ocic Locust, appearing on the schedule referred to opposite No. 8619, should be corrected so as to appear as male, instead of female, and recommends that the copies of this schedule retained by the Department and this Office be corrected so that the sex of Ocic Locust will appear as male instead of female, and that in the column marked "Sex," the letter "M" shall be made to appear instead of the letter "F", and that he be authorized to make similar corrections on the copies of said schedule in his possession.

In his report the Commissioner refers to the numerous recommendations made for correction in schedules submitted by the Department, and states that the errors with reference to the sex of applicants are not surprising, as the full blood Indians when referring to their children often call the boy "it," and the girl "him."

A copy of the testimony and the Commissioner's report is herewith transmitted, and it is respectfully recommended that the schedule referred to, on file in the Department be corrected as stated, and that this Office and the office of the Commissioner be authorized to make a like correction on the schedules in their possession .

Very respectfully,

C. J. Larrabee.
Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

September 25, 1905, you recommended that the approved schedule of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be corrected so that the sex of Ocie Locust, opposite No. 5619, will appear thereon as male instead of female, it appearing from the testimony of said person, taken August 24, 1905, that such correction is necessary.

Reporting October 7, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in said recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs: it has made such correction upon the part of said schedule in its possession, and has requested the Indian Office to do the same. You are authorized to make such correction upon the proper schedule in your office.

Respectfully,

(Signed) E. A. Hitchcock,
Secretary.

Rebecca J. Flying, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. Rebecca Flying.
Q. Rebecca J., isn't it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How old are you? A. About 23.
Q. What is your post office address? A. Muskogee.
Q. Were you the wife of Jones P. Flying? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When were you married to him? A. About '94.
Q. Are you the mother of his children, Neppie W., James L., Linda A., Jesse J. and John? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who married you to him? A. Brewer is all I know.
Q. Was he a preacher? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long did you and Jones P. Flying continue to live together after you were married? A. Why, I don't know.
Q. Are you living together at this time? A. Living right in the same house.
Q. Were you ever separated? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you separate? A. I couldn't tell you. Separated several times but didn't stay.
Q. When was the first time you separated? A. I couldn't tell you.
Q. Haven't you any idea? A. No, sir.
Q. How long was it after you were married? A. About-- I don't know how long it was.
Q. Was it a month? A. About over a year, I guess.
Q. You lived together a year? A. About that long. I went home one night and stayed all night and come back the next morning.
Q. I want to know whether you have separated from him. I don't mean going away and staying over night. Did you leave him and go home? A. Yes, sir; I went off and stayed a month or two.
Q. What was the cause of the separation? A. Well, he wasn't good like I thought he ought to be and he didn't provide the family like I thought he ought to.
Q. How long was that after your marriage? A. It was over a year, I expect.
Q. You were gone about a month? A. I was gone about a month one or two times. No, I didn't stay away that long. The last time we parted I stayed four or five months.
Q. When was the last time you parted? A. Been about two years ago.
Q. What was the cause? A. He just didn't provide like he ought to, didn't give me money to get my medicine.
Q. Did he ever mistreat you? A. No, sir.
Q. Did he give you enough to eat? A. No, sir.
Q. Give you plenty of clothes to wear? A. No, sir; only the ones I got myself.

- Q. Are these children living? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Is he the father of these children? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Are you living together now? A. Living in the same house.
 Q. Living together as man and wife? A. No, sir.
 Q. How long since you have lived together as man and wife?
 A. About a year.
 Q. Never sustained the relations of man and wife since that time?
 A. No, sir. I didn't suppose a woman had to live with a man when he didn't treat her right.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

- Q. You don't expect to live with him any more? A. I don't think I will.
 Q. Haven't you made preparations to leave that place? A. Yes, sir; I did. I don't expect to leave now.
 Q. You did prepare to go about a month ago or something like that?
 A. Yes, sir.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. Who has taken care of these children? A. Me.
 Q. Who feeds them? A. What little they get he does.
 Q. He provides for them? A. What little they get.
 Q. Who clothes them? A. I do.
 Q. Are they living with you or living with him? A. Well, living with us both. In the same house. I cook and eat in the same room.
 Q. Is he paying you? A. No, sir.
 Q. How many rooms in the house? A. One room.
 Q. How many beds? A. Two.
 Q. Both in one room? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Since September, 1900, have you lived with him at all as his wife; that is two years ago last September? A. I lived with him about two years.
 Q. I mean during the past two years, have you lived with him?
 A. Before we quit this last time?
 Q. No. Say since 1900, that is two years ago, did you ever go back and live with him as his wife since that time? A. No, sir; not that I know of.
 Q. That was right after he applied for your enrollment, wasn't it?
 A. Yes, sir. I went back after that.
 Q. You left him right after he applied for enrollment? A. Before.
 Q. Didn't you leave him right after that? A. No, sir.
 Q. Since that time have you gone back to live with him?
 A. Yes, sir; I went back to live with him.
 Q. Did you go back of your own accord or went back because he wanted you to? A. I went back because he wanted me to. He said he would treat me better every time.
 Q. Did he fail to do it? A. Yes, sir.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q. How long have you been living separate from this man this last time? A. Close on to a year, I expect.

Jones P. Flying, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. J. P. Flying.
 Q. How old are you? A. Well, I don't exactly know. About fifty, I expect.
 Q. Where do you live, what is your post office? A. Mackree.
 Q. Is this woman who has just testified your wife? A. Well, she was my wife but here lately she has quit me, I don't know what to say now.

Q. You were married about 1894? A. November 8th, 1894.
Q. How long did you live with her after that? A. We commenced parting a little over a year.
Q. How long were you separated? A. I don't recollect. It has been a good while, though.
Q. Did she come back to live with you again? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you ask her to come back? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the cause of this separation? A. I couldn't hardly say. It is just contrariness, I expect.
Q. You heard her testify just a while ago; you heard what she said? A. I am a little hard of hearing; I didn't hear all she said.
Q. Well, she said you didn't provide for her? A. Of course I didn't after we parted. I was a poor man and had to haul for something to eat, may be work some other way, and after I lost my team---
Q. Did your team die? A. No, they were stolen, I think.
Q. Did she leave after the team was stolen? A. I think she was.
Q. When the team was stolen? A. No, she ain't been going off since since my gules have been stolen. She has been there.
Q. Did you give her all you could afford to give her? A. Yes, sir. I said if you can make it any way to go ahead and I will support the children.
Q. How long did you live together the second time? A. I don't know. We been separated here and there about ten times, I think. I can't remember.
Q. Did she ever leave the house altogether? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When? A. Well, she was gone when the Commission was at Fort Gibson.
Q. Was she living with you the day you came over there to apply? A. No, sir.
Q. What did you apply for her for? A. When I sent the certificate to the Commission she was gone.
Q. Was she with you the day you came over to Fort Gibson? A. No, sir.
Q. How long had she been away from home then? A. I don't recollect how long.
Q. How long did she stay away? A. Well, she stayed a good while.
Q. Where did she go? A. She went down to Arkansas to her daddy's on a visit.
Q. Did she come back? A. Yes, sir; she come back.
Q. Did she come back of her own accord? Did you ask her? A. No, she come back just because she wanted to.
Q. How long did you live with her that time after she come back? A. Well, probably---we have been parted so many times I can't hardly tell you how long.
Q. Well, that has been within the last two years? A. Yes, sir; we have been parted since that.
Q. Is she living at your house now? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has she been there? A. She has been there a good while and here just not long ago--she wouldn't have been there to-day; I don't know what made her stay.
Q. As a matter of fact she is living with you to-day, in the same house? A. Yes, sir; in the same house.
Q. How long has she been there, now? A. I couldn't hardly say. Been there a good while.
Q. As much as a year? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Taking care of your children? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Helping support the children? A. Yes, sir.
Q. She cooks for you? A. Yes, sir; she cooks.
Q. Takes care of your house? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Does she ever buy any clothes for these children? A. Yes, sir; she has been buying them for the children.

Q. Been doing as much as you have? A. Just about ever since I lost them mules. I bought some things to-day.

Q. Who buys the flour and groceries? A. Me.

Q. You buy all of it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does she buy any? A. I don't recollect of her buying any.

Q. Does she buy any clothes for the children? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you ever lived with her as your wife since she came back there the last time? A. Yes, sir. From Arkansas?

Q. Yes, sir. A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you living together right now as man and wife?

A. No, sir.

Q. How long has it been since you have lived together as man and wife? A. Well, I think it was over a year, myself. I can't hardly count how long before ~~that~~ but it has been over a year.

Q. How did she treat you while you were living together?

A. Yes, sir; we got along like good man and wife. She treats me all right.

Q. Isn't it a fact the reason she ~~is~~ left was you couldn't support her? A. I reckon that is the way she has got it.

Q. Did she take these children when she went? A. She had a daddy living in Arkansas and she went there on a visit. When she come back she didn't come home.

Q. Where did she go? A. She stopped at Braggs. Her brother says you go after her. I went over there. She didn't hardly want to come. I says I had a wagon to go. She didn't come back.

Q. Where did she go? A. Her brother's.

Q. Did she stay at her brother's? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Kept the children there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is all three? A. This child wasn't born.

Q. When was that child born? A. About a year.

Q. Born while you were living together? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is your child? A. I think so.

Rebecca J. Flying, being recalled, testified as follows:
Examination by the Commission.

Q. Did you ever buy groceries for the house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Give him the money? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you get the money? A. I worked for it.

Q. He didn't give it to you? A. No, sir. When I went to Arkansas I went there and stayed about a month.

Q. Did you have the children with you? A. I had two.

Q. You were supporting the children? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he contribute anything to their support, give you any money to support the children, while you were down there?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who has supported those children since you quite living together as husband and wife? A. Well, I have done the most of it.

Q. How old is that child? A. A year and nine months.

Q. That was born while you were living with him was it?

A. Yes, sir. We have never been parted since that time he applied for my enrollment.

Q. Always lived in the house with him? A. I stayed ~~some~~ away about five or six months. He begged me so hard, he said he would treat me better if I would come back. I went back and I have been there ever since.

Jesse O. Carr, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the above entitled case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Gentlemen:

We send you herewith marriage license and certificate of J. P. Flying and Miss. Rebecca J. Howell. Also birth certificate covering the birth of Jesse James Flying, minor child of J. P. and Rebecca J. Flying. Mr. Flying appeared at the office here and left his marriage license and certificate to be handed to you, and desired to fill out the above mentioned birth certificate. He appears to be a full blood Cherokee and stated that he had been before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, during the month of August. He stated that he had given in the name of this child as Jesse Flying at that time, but that his name is Jesse James Flying and he desires that the child be enrolled under that name.

It will be noted that the affidavit of the midwife does not give the date of the birth of the child. The only way that was able to fix the time of its birth was that it "was in cotton picking time, two years ago." It will also be noted that the affidavit of the father is made on this certificate in the place of the mother. Mr. Flying stated that he had used every mode of persuasion within his power to get his wife to come in and make the affidavit but that she positively refused to do so. Upon this statement we prepared the birth certificate for him, advising him that it would be submitted to you for your consideration and that you would determine whether it was sufficient proof as to the birth of the child.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

The Honorable Deves Commission,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

We addressed a letter under separate cover today sending birth certificate covering the birth of Jesse James Flying, and marriage certificate and license of Jonas P. Flying and Rebecca F. Flying. This afternoon, this woman appeared at the office and made inquiry as to whether she had been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by her husband, Jonas P. Flying. I thereupon took the enclosed affidavit as to the birth of Jesse James Flying.

It develops that the reason Mrs. Flying would not appear with her husband for the purpose of making affidavit as to the birth of the child is that they have recently had some domestic difficulty and separated, the children remaining with the father temporarily.

Mrs. Flying requests that she be furnished information as to whether her husband made application for her enrollment, and if so, if she was duly enrolled by the Commission. I would thank you if you would kindly furnish this office with such information as may be disclosed by your records in this matter.

Yours truly,

Tamm Bixby

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Rebecca J. Flying,

Wateva, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for year enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, and 130, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Department, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

JMH

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 5, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation was affirmed by the Department January 26, 1907.

For your information there is enclosed herewith a copy of Departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

Encl. HJ-100.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Ft. Gibson, I. T., August 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Mary J. Brown for the enrollment of herself and child as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testifies as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Mary J. Brown.
Q What is your age? A Nineteen years old.
Q What is your post-office? A Briartown.
Q What is your district? A Canadian District.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and one child.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir, my mother did though when I was small.
Q Do you claim to be Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a married woman? A Yes sir.
Q Was your husband a Cherokee? A No sir, he is a white man.
Q Your child's claim is through your own Cherokee blood? A Yes sir.
Q What was your name before you were married? A Mary Jane Bailey
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here.
Q Lived here all your life have you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in Canadian District? A Lived here ever since - born and raised right in Canadian District.
Q What is the name of your father? A John Bailey.
Q He a Cherokee or a white man? A He is a white man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is alive.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Malinda A. Bailey.
Q Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q Was your mother admitted to citizenship by the Commission?
A I don't know sir, I guess she was.
Com'r Breckinridge: The records in the possession of the Cherokee representatives show that the applicant was admitted to Cherokee citizenship on November 21 1885.
Q When were you married? A In 1897.
Q What is your husband's name? A Riley Brown.
Q A white man? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate)
Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate showing that license was issued by the Clerk of the United States Court at Muskogee October 13, 1897, for her marriage to her husband, as stated, and that they were so married upon the 17th day of October by the Rev. Isaac McGlamery; this is filed with her application.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Viola Brown.
Q How old is that child? A It will be two years old in Sept. 1898 roll page 5 #108 Mary J. Bailey Canadian District.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896 under her maiden name; her marriage license and certificate filed herewith account for the change of name under which she applies; the record of admitted and re-admitted Cherokee citizens in the possession of the Cherokee representatives present shows that she was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Nation on November 21, 1885; she states that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously all her life; her child Viola is too young to be upon any roll; the applicant will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee by blood, and when she supplies this Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of her child it will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; and a note will be placed upon the card that she is to supply this Commission with

Q Dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A About twenty years I guess.
Q Are your children all by your present husband? A No, I have got two by my first man and one by my last man.
Q Give me their names in full? A William Edwards, eighteen years old; Belle Edwards, a girl, fifteen years old; Mary Crenshaw, ten years old.

1880 roll page 687 #244 Katie Collins Sequoyah District.

1896 roll page 14 #388 Katie Crenshaw Canadian District.

1896 roll page 21 #572 William Edwards Canadian District.

1896 roll page 21 #573 Belle Edwards Canadian District.

1896 roll page 14 #389 Mary Crenshaw, Canadian District.

Q You haven't certificates of marriage for these marriages? A I have got my last one. (Produces papers.)

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents duly authenticated marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court for the First Judicial District of the Indian Territory, authorizing her marriage as Katie Edwards to Thomas Crenshaw, date of license Aug. 26, 1893; and the certificate shows that she was married in accordance with said license on the 27th day of August 1893 by W. J. Hill, a Minister of the Gospel; this is filed with the application.

Q These children are all living now are they? A Yes sir.

Q What is the name of your first husband? A Wm. Edwards.

Katie Crenshaw et al #2

Com' F Breckinridge: The applicant is identified under the name she gives as her maiden name, on the roll of 1880; she states that her first husband was named Edwards; her marriage license and certificate identify her change of name from Edwards to her present name of Crenshaw, and she is identified under the latter name on the roll of 1896; the two children of her first marriage, William and Belle Edwards, are identified on the roll of 1896 as is also the child of her present marriage, Mary Crenshaw; she and these three children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, with a note that further testimony is to be supplied as to her being the identical Kate Collins mentioned in the roll of 1880; the applicant states that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and thather children are all living at this time.

Supplemental Testimony in this case, taken August 29th, 1900, Ft. Gibson, Indian Territory:

Thomas W. Collins, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testifies as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Thomas W. Collins.
Q What is your age? A Fifty.
Q What is your post-office address? A Ft. Gibson.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since the year 1869.
Q Do you know this applicant here, Kate Crenshaw? A Yes sir.
Q What was her maiden name? A Katie Collins.
Q Is she kinfolks of yours? A She is my first cousin.
Q Give me the name of her father? A Jim Collins.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q What was her mother's name? A Polly Collins.
Q Is this the same woman who is mentioned on the roll of 1880 as daughter of Jim Collins? A Yes sir, to the best of my knowledge she is; I know she is Jim Collins' daughter.
Q What was her name between the time she was a Collins and Crenshaw? A I wasn't acquainted with her ~~marriage~~ man; I don't remember his name.
Q Was the name Edwards? A That's it, I believe.
Q She was first Collins and then Edwards and now a Crenshaw?
A Yes sir.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I. T., AUGUST 28, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Richard H. Smith for the enrollment of himself, his wife and child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; said Smith being sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Richard H. Smith.
Q What is your age? A 34.
Q What is your post office address? A Fort Gibson.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A Quarter.
Q For whom do you apply? A Myself, wife and child.
Q What district do you live in? A I have been living in Cooweescoowee district. I live in Fort Gibson now, in Illinois.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A About 13 years.
Q Is your name upon the authenticated roll of 1880? A No, sir.
Q What right do you claim to citizenship? A By blood and also by adoption, by re-admission.
Q Have you a certificate of re-admission? A I have filed it with the Dawes Commission.
Q When? A In 1897, I think it was.
Q Did you apply to the Dawes Commission? A No, sir.
Q How did you happen to file your certificate of admission to the Dawes Commission in 1897? A I had some business with them and I think it is on file. I have several certificates of admission. I have been receiving certificates often. I filed a certificate with Major McKennon in 1897.
Q What is the name of your father, wr. Smith? A N. J. Smith.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q Is he a citizen by blood? A No, sir. He is a Cherokee but not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mary Smith.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A My present wife is Callie Smith.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Ella Blair.
Q White person? A No, sir.
Q Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of her father? A Thomas Blair.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Margaret?
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your children? A The one I first applied for is Chrystle Filelis.
Q How old is she? A Six years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A Callie May.
Q How old is Callie May? A Four months old.
Q These children are alive and living with you? The second only is living, Callie May, she is living with me.
Q Have you proof of birth as to the last one? A No, sir.
Q What was the date of your marriage to your second wife, Callie Blair. A June 25, 1899.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Minnie Dixon.
Q Was she a white person? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage to her? A Yes, sir, it is on file with the application.
Q She is not living? A I am divorced from her.
Q This oldest child is hers? A Yes, sir.

Richard H. Smith---2.

W. T. HUTCHINGS, Representative of the Cherokee nation:

- Q When did you marry to your first wife? A In 1893.
Q How long did you live together? A About six months.
Q Then she left you and the child was born in New York and has remained in New York ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q How long was it after you got your divorce? A Four years. I got a divorce about a year ago.
Q The child was born out of the nation and never has been in it?
A Yes, sir; the reason is that the child is a girl and she refused to let the child come with me.
Q Your name is not on the 1894, 1896 or 1880 roll? A I was teaching school in Sequoyah and was enrolled in 1896.

Com'r Needles:

The name of Richard H. Smith does not appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee nation in the possession of this Commission; neither does the name of his child, Crystle F. Smith, and his child, Callie M., does not appear on any of the rolls. Callie M. having been born since the rolls of 1896 were compiled.

He avers that he was admitted to citizenship in the year 1897, and that he was married to his present wife, Callie Blair, a Cherokee in the year 1899.

(1880 enrollment; page 684, #143, Caroline Blair, Sequoyah.
1896 enrollment; page 1052, #97, Callie Blair, Sequoyah.)

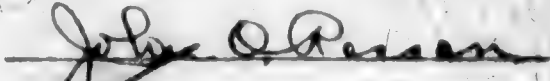

Her name appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 according to the page and number of said roll as indicated in the testimony, and she having made satisfactory proof as to her residence, the said Callie Blair will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The name of her child, Callie May Blair, four months old, will also be listed for enrollment by this commission upon the filing with this Commission, a duly authenticated certificate of its birth.

The name of Richard H. Smith and his child Crystle not being found on the roll, but the averment being made that he was admitted to citizenship in the year 1889, and that his certificate of admission, together with his certificate of marriage to his first wife, Minnie Dixon, from whom he is now divorced, is in the office of the Dawes Commission at Muscogee; final ~~application~~ judgment as to the application of the said Richard and his child Crystle, will be suspended and their names will be placed upon a doubtful list.

1896 enrollment; page 19, #530, Nannie Downing, Canadian.

Com'r Needles:

The name of Richard Boles appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as R. H. Bowles, and on the census roll of 1896 as Richard H. Bowls, and the name of his wife, Nannie, appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896. He avers that he was married to her in 1898. The result of said marriage is one child named Leo, now two year old.

He and his wife being fully identified according to the page and number of the rolls, as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, they will be listed by this Commission as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

He avers that he has one child, named Leo, who is now upon the roll of 1880, as having been born since the roll was completed; and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen of blood, when this Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of his birth.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that he strongly recommends to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and earnestly requests that the testimony and proceedings in this case be recorded in a true and complete manner, and that the same be published in the Cherokee Advocate.

BIRTH CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that Jessie Fivekiller is the daughter of Frost Fivekiller and Susie Fivekiller, nee Wilkerson. She was born at their home on a farm six miles west of Forum, Oklahoma, on September 10, 1914. I personally attended her mother at the time Jessie was born and therefore know of my own personal knowledge that this is the correct date of her birth. I further certify that no physician was present and no official record of her birth was ever made that I know of. The above facts have been read to me, and I know them to be true. I am Cherokee Indian and do not read the English language.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

JUNE 16, 1910.

In re: date of death of Mary L. Griepenkirel, Card No. 2161
Roll No. 5647.

Testimony of Rachel Thornberry taken at her home near Onapa, Creek Nation, Oklahoma.

Witnesses sworn by Mr. S. A. Mills, Deputy United States Clerk for the Eastern District of Oklahoma.

RACHEL THORNBERRY being first duly sworn by Mr. S. A. Mills, Deputy U. S. Clerk for the eastern District of Oklahoma, testified as follows:

- Q: What is your name? A: Rachel L. Thornberry.
Q: How old are you? A: Going on 69 years.
Q: What is your postoffice address? A: Onapa, Oklahoma.
Q: Are you a citizen of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians?
A: Yes a Cherokee by blood, but I have forfeited my rights.
Q: You see my husband, when the war broke out, left for the army and I went to Texas and stayed until '66.
Q: Can you read and write?
A: I can read but I cannot write.
Q: Do you know one, Mary L. Griepenkirel?
A: Yes I knew her.
Q: Where is she now if you know? A: She is dead.
Q: When did she die?
A: On the 20th day of February, 8 years ago. That would be in 1902, she died with pneumonia.
Q: How do you fix that particular date?
A: I was there with her when she died. I waited on her while she was sick and was with her when she died at her own house.
I tended to the funeral arrangements. You see I was an old friend of hers, I knew her when she was a girl and none of her relatives were there when she died, so I ordered the coffin and prepared her for burial, and done everything I could because none of her folks were there to the funeral, only just a few of the old neighbors---- good friends.
Q: Did you or do you know of anyone who made a record of the date of her death; -----if there be any record of any kind showing the date of the death of Mary L. Griepenkirel?
A: No, not that I know of.
Q: Was there a Doctor in attendance during the time of her last illness?
A: Dr. Harry Lindsey of Texanna.
Q: Who was the undertaker who furnished the coffin.

- A: Ogden of Texanna. The store now is known as the Cobb store.
- Q: Where is the husband of Mary L. Griepenkirel?
- A: He is dead.
- Q: When did he die? A: He died about 8 years before she died.
- Q: Are there any children or are there any relatives of Mrs. Mary L. Griepenkirel?
- A: There never was any children of their own, they raised three orphans. One is Freddie Werral. And a girl named Addie Low, and the other a girl too, her name was Bonnie Lacy, she is now married. She married George Stidham of Choctaw, but there isn't any blood relatives of the Griepenkirel family, except there is a brother of Mrs. Griepenkirel, by the name of John Rapiar, he lives somewhere in California, I don't know where.
- Q: You are quite sure that Mary L. Griepenkirel died March 20, 1902? Are you?
- A: Yes I am, I was there and done nearly everything that could be done and was done for her when she was sick and died.
- Q: Where was she buried?
- A: About three miles from here on the Cherokee and Creek land in a little grave-yard on their home place.
- Q: Can you give me any further information as to the date of the death of Mary L. Griepenkirel?
- A: No, but you can see Dr. Lindsay and the undertaker, they ought to have it down when it was.

Testimony of DR. HARRY LINDSEY taken at his home near Texanna, Oklahoma.

HARRY LINDSEY being first duly sworn by Mr. S. A. Mills, Deputy U. S. Clerk for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, testified as follows:

- Q: What is your name?
- A: Dr. Harry Lindsey.
- Q: Are you a practicing physician?
- A: Not now, I was. I have not practiced now for sometime. I retired from the practice in 1901.
- Q: How old are you Mr. Lindsey?
- A: I will be 35 years old the 15th day of July next.
- Q: What is your postoffice address?
- A: Texanna, Oklahoma. I have lived here since 1895.
- Q: Are you a citizen of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indiana?
- A: Yes an adopted Cherokee. My wife was a Cherokee by blood.
- Q: Do you know Mary L. Griepenkirel?
- A: I did, she is dead. She was a widow of Dr. Griepenkirel. I attended her during her last illness when she died.
- Q: When did she die? A: I don't remember just when it was, I put it down in my book.
- Q: Please let me see the book you speak of. I would like to get the exact date of the death of Mary L. Griepenkirel from the record that you state you have made?

(Here the Doctor and his wife looked for the book but were unable to find it).

A: I can't find the book, it had been so long ago and I have been so long ago, and I have been out of the practice so long, I don't know what has become of it, but as near as I can recollect the case I attended Mrs. Gripenkirel at her last illness. I was called to see her and prescribed for her but she died, that was in 1902 in the Spring, early, while it was cold. I am sorry I can't find the book in which I made the entry but it is evidently gone. It was one of the last visits I made as a practising physician. I quit practicing medicine that Spring. In the Spring of 1902.

Q: Now Doctor can you give me any other information showing me directly or more positively the date of the death of Mary L. Gripenkirel?

A: No, that is in accordance with the best of my recollection, I remember the case very well considering my age, more particularly from the facts that Dr. Gripenkirel, her husband and I were very particular friends and Mrs. Gripenkirel and my wife visited each other very often and were particular close friends, and I was always interested in her welfare and considered them my closest friends.

Dr. Gripenkirel was a German and highly educated and it was always a great pleasure to me to be in their company and I cultivated their acquaintance and their friendship more than any other and I know of no one unless it would be Mrs. Thornberry or Mrs. Mamie Rogers of Tennesse who would know more of them and when she died than my wife and myself.

D. B. COHEN being first duly sworn by Mr. E. A. Miller, Deputy United States Clerk, for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, testified at his home near Tennesse, Okla.

Questions by Mr. E. A. Miller:

Q: What is your name? A: David B. Cohen.

Q: How old are you? A: About 30 years old.

Q: What is your postoffice address?

A: Tennesse Oklahoma.

Q: Do you know Mary L. Gripenkirel?

A: Yes sir, she is dead. We furnished the coffin for her burial.

Q: When did she die?

A: I can't say exactly.

Q: You say you furnished the coffin for her burial, please explain the circumstances?

A: A Mrs. Thornberry ordered the coffin from us. You see I was in business here (Tennesse) with a Mr. Foddis and we carried coffins and when Mrs. Gripenkirel died, Mrs. Thornberry ordered the coffin from us and we furnished it.

Q: What year was that—what month?

A: I don't remember.

Q: Have you a book entry of the transaction?

A: I don't know you see we sold out the business after that and the books were destroyed.

- 4-
- Q: Then you can't arrive at the time of the date of the sale of the coffin for the interment of Mary L. Griepenkirel made by you or your firm?
- A: No, not with any degree of accuracy or certainty, whether it was eight or ten years ago.
- Q: You know that she is dead?
- A: Yes but I can't say just what year it was. It was a long time ago.
- Q: Can't you bring your thoughts together upon the fact in a way to enable you to recall any particular instance or occurrence that would refresh your memory so that you might arrive at this date with some degree of accuracy?
- A: No, I remember that she died and that Mrs. Thornberry ordered the coffin and that there was a sale of a cow to help pay for it but just what the facts are, I couldn't recollect at this time.
- Q: You see we sold the business to a man named Price and he sold it to Cobb and when the books were all cleaned up they were destroyed and there is no record that I know of now that we can get to show the exact date. I know it was some 8 or 10 years ago, but just when I couldn't say.

NANNIE C. RODGERS being first duly sworn by Mr. S. A. Mills Deputy U. S. Clerk for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, testified at his home near Texanna, Oklahoma, as follows:

Questions by Mr. S. A. Mills:

- Q: What is your name? A: Nannie C. Rodgers.
- Q: How old are you? A: 70 years old in January.
- Q: What is your postoffice address? A: Texanna.
- Q: Are you a citizen of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians?
- A: No my family is white.
- Q: How long have you been in this neighborhood? A: About 30 years.
- Q: Do you know one Mary L. Griepenkirel?
- A: Yes she is dead.
- Q: When did she die?
- A: Just after my husband, Mr. Hickory Rodgers died.
- Q: When did Mr. Rodgers die? A: On the 12th day of January 1902.

(Here witness produced family bible which shows the death of the record of Mr. Rodgers as being January 12, 1902.)

- Q: You are quite sure that Mrs. Mary L. Griepenkirel died just after your husband Mr. Rodgers died?
- A: Yes I remember she came to see him just before he died and she died just after that. She died the next month in February.
- Q: Have you or do you know of anyone who has a written record of the date of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Griepenkirel?

- A: No I have not, and I don't know who has, but I know now that it was in February 1902, because she died the next month after my husband Mr. Rodgers died. I remember she called on us to see Mr. Rodgers just a few days before he died.
- Q: Can you give me any other information whereby I may ascertain positively the date of death of Mrs. Mary G. Gripenkirel?
- A: No only what I have told you and I know that is just as it is.

Testimony of Jennie Stidham, taken at Checotah, Oklahoma, on June 16, 1910.

JENNIE STIDHAM being first duly sworn by Mr. S. A. Mills, United States Deputy Clerk for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. S. A. Mills.

- Q: What is your name? A: Jennie Stidham.
- Q: How old are you? A: 36.
- Q: What is your postoffice address? A: Checotah.
- Q: Are you a citizen of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians?
- A: No, I am not of Indian blood, I am a white person.
- Q: Do you know one Mary L. Gripenkirel?
- A: Yes I did, she is dead. She raised me from the time I was 12 years old. I was then Jennie Lucy. She was a mother to me only they did not adopt me according to law which was a mistake. It ought to have been done, but it wasn't.
- Q: When did she die? A: In February 1902.
- Q: Were you present when she died? A: No sir, she died very suddenly of pneumonia. When I heard of her death I was about 30 miles from her and as soon as we heard of it I started to go to her, but when I arrived at her home she had just been buried. That is we got there just as the funeral was over.
- Q: Did you make a record of the date of Mrs. Mary L. Gripenkirel's death, or do you know of anyone else who did or where I can obtain access to such record?
- A: No, I do not, and I never heard of any-one who did.
- Q: How do you fix the date of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Gripenkirel so positively as to being February 1902?
- A: Well I know from the fact that the August following the death of Mrs. Mary L. Gripenkirel there was born to me a daughter who will be eight years old this coming August. This child Elizabeth Glee Stidham was born August 26, 1902.
- Q: Have you a written record of the date of the birth of this child Elizabeth Glee Stidham, which you state was born August 26, 1902?
- A: Yes sir.
- Q: Please let me see the record?
- A: Here it is.

(Here witness hands family bible to Mr. Mills which shows that Elisabeth Clara Stidham was born August 26, 1898).

- Q: Can you give me any further information regarding the death of Mary L. Gripenkiral?
A: No, I believe I have told you all I know about it.
Q: Are there any living relatives of Mrs. Mary L. Gripenkiral?
A: She has a brother somewhere in California, I don't know just where.

This is all the evidence introduced in re date of death of Mary L. Gripenkiral on June 16, 1910.

E. A. Mills, being first duly sworn, on oath states that as Deputy United States Clerk for the eastern district of Oklahoma, he interrogated the foregoing witnesses in the matter of the date of death of Mary L. Gripenkiral, and that the foregoing transcript is the evidence taken by him on June 16, 1910, at the homes of the witnesses above referred to, and that same is a true and complete copy of their evidence.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the record of the investigation made to determine the date of death of Mary L. Gripenkirel, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation enrolled opposite No. 5647.

The record in this case appears to show conclusively that Mary L. Gripenkirel died in February, 1902, and consequently in accordance with the provisions of Section thirty-one of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), she is not entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation.

A very careful search was made to ascertain if this person left any heirs and I find that her husband died several years prior to the date of her death, that she left no children and the only heir concerning whom any information can be had is a brother, John Rager, who for many years has resided in California, his last visit to this country, so far as I am able to ascertain, having been at the time of the death of his sister. Notice was sent him at the post office address used by him at that time but has not been delivered. His postmaster advised me that no such person gets his mail at that office.

No allotment of land has been made to Mary L. Gripenkirel, nor has any effort been made to designate such allotment or to assert any right on behalf of her estate to share in the distribution of the property of the Cherokees.

Unless, in the opinion of the Department, notice of the proposed action be given by publication, I respectfully recommend that a notation be made on all copies of the approved roll opposite No. 26471:

Died prior to September 1, 1902;
not entitled to land or money.

Commissioner of the Five Civil Tribes, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Sir:

I have the honor to reply to you in connection with your letter of the 10th inst. regarding the date of death of Mary L. Griepenkirl, Cherokee No. 1247. I made diligent inquiry among the people of the community in which she made her home for the purpose of ascertaining the identity of the heirs to her estate, and I find that she was survived by sixteen parents, seven children and one grandchild. I was unable to learn her next of kin and therefore the nearest relative is one John Raper, who, according to the best information obtainable, resides in California.

The record in the case heretofore transmitted shows that Mrs. Griepenkirl raised three children, none of whom, however, was legally adopted, nor named in the distribution of the personal property following her death.

Sir:

This office has secured information showing that your sister, Mary L. Gripenkirel, who is enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 5647, died in the spring of 1902.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two."

It appears as a result of investigation conducted in this connection that you are the only heir to the estate of your deceased sister, and you are hereby notified that you will be allowed thirty days from this date within which to file with this office any evidence you may possess tending to disprove the evidence heretofore received concerning the date of death of Mrs. Gripenkirel, or to file any protest you may desire to make against recommendation being made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed

Enrollment case of Mary L. Griepenkirol.

OCT 6 1910

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report dated September 24, 1910, from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to the date of the death of Mary L. Griepenkirol, whose name appears opposite No. 5647 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that Mary L. Griepenkirol died prior to September 1, 1902, and, therefore, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 716), she was not entitled to have any allotment of land or other tribal property of the Cherokee Nation made to her or to her heirs.

The Commissioner reports that the only heir of Mary L. Griepenkirol concerning whom any information could be had was her brother, John Raper, who for many years has resided in California. It appears that notice was sent to John Raper at Bella Vista, California, of the intention of placing opposite the name of Mary L. Griepenkirol on the above mentioned roll, the notation "Died prior to September 1, 1902, not entitled to land or money." The Commissioner reports that said communication was not delivered, and that the Postmaster advised him that no such person was known at that postoffice.

The Office recommends that the notation above quoted be placed opposite the name of Mary L. Oriepekarel on the above mentioned roll, and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the roll in their possession.

Very respectfully,

Q Do you know what become of it? A No, sir, I do not know anything about it, I have only been married six months.
Q Did she not and her father reside out there a long time? A I do not know anything about it. I think he had a ranch out there and was out there occasionally.

(Exceptions taken as to the enrollment of said Jessie Wilson, because of the facts as set forth in the answers to the interrogatories made by W. T. Hutchings to the applicant, William T. Wilson.)

William T. Wilson---2.

Com'r Needles:

The name of William T. Wilson appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Wilson Williams, and upon the census roll of 1896 as William F. Wilson. The name of his wife Jessie McClellan, appears upon the census roll of 1896, but does not appear on the authenticated roll of 1880. Her mother, Nancy Drowningbear, appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as per page and number of said roll, indicated in the testimony. Satisfactory proof has been made that the said Jessie Wilson is the daughter of and lawful descendant of said Nancy Drowningbear; her name being found upon the census roll of 1896 under the name of Jessie McClellan; satisfactory proof being made as to her residence and being fully identified according to the page and number indicated in the testimony, said William T. Wilson and his wife, Jessie, will be duly listed by this Commission as Cherokees by blood.

Q Is she dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q When did she die? A About four years ago.
Q She died before the roll of 1896 was made? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever re-married since your wife died? A Yes sir, since I was on the last roll.
Q You have married since your wife Jane died? A Yes sir.
Q Is your present wife a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry this last time? A I married about three or four weeks after that last roll was taken; about three years ago.
Q Your present wife is not a Cherokee citizen? A No sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Joseph LaBarge.
Q White man? A Yes sir.
Q Deader alive? A Dead, long ago.

proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "Muskogee Phoenix" both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Muskogee, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Muskogee Phoenix" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. p. 716) and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, referring to departmental letters of May 31, 1905 (I.T.B. 6106), June 1, 1905, (I.T.D. 6240), October 4, 1905, (I.T.D. 12228), and January 12, 1906, (I.T.B. 112), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 284 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1904. Commissioner Dixie transmits affidavits as to the deaths of certain of said persons. The numbers of the enrollment cards on which these persons are listed, the numbers opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens and their names, are given in Commissioner Dixie's report. The Commissioner says that the Department's instructions of June 1, (I.T.D. 560) and October 4, 1905, (I.T.D. 12228), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with. The Commissioner further says that no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living September 1, 1904, he would recommend that their

Names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this office and the Department and that his office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits as to the deaths of these persons are herewith transmitted, and the recommendation of Commissioner Sixby is concurred in.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you transmitted affidavits relative to the death of certain persons whose names appear upon the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended, as departmental instructions of June 1, 1906, and October 4, 1906, as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with, that their names be stricken from the copies of the approved roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation.

Reporting September 16, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

Proper steps will be taken by the Department and the Indian Office for the cancellation of such names from the approved rolls, and you are authorized to strike their names from the proper rolls in your possession, as follows:

Com'r Needles:

The name of T. J. Measles appears upon the census roll of 1896 as Jeff Measles. The name of his wife, Vannie Jordan, appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Wannie Jordan, and on the census roll of 1896 as Vannie Measles, the name of her present husband.

Applicant presents marriage license issued by the authorities of the Cherokee nation, which is attached to the certificate of marriage, certifying that he was married according to the laws of the Cherokee nation on the 15th day of June, 1884, to one Mary Turnover, a Cherokee citizen by blood, who is now deceased, and the name of Mary Turnover is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as designated by page and number of said roll as indicated in the testimony. He also presents a certificate of marriage, signed by R. C. Park, certifying that he was married according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation to one Vannie Snow, on the 25th day of August, 1880. His wife, Vannie Jordan, whose name appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, having married a non-citizen by the name of Snow, who is now deceased. The names of his children, Minner, Ellis, Sigis, Barney and Blanche, appear upon the census roll of 1896. His child Beulah, two years of age, does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, she having been born since the roll was compiled, but he presents a certified proof as to its birth.

They all being duly identified upon the rolls of the Cherokee Nation as per page and number of their respective rolls, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said T. J. Measles will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by inter-marriage; his wife, Vannie, and the children as named herein will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ALLISON L. AVERSWORTH

Muskogee, Indian Territory. October 6th . 1902.

Thomas J. Measles,
McLain, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled "An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, referring to Departmental letters of May 21, 1905 (I.T.D. 6186), June 1, 1905, (I.T.D. 6240), October 4, 1905, (I.T.D. 12228), and January 12, 1906, (I.T.D. 110), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902. Commissioner Bixby transmits affidavits as to the deaths of certain of said persons. The numbers of the enrollment cards on which these persons are listed, the numbers opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens and their names, are given in Commissioner Bixby's report. The Commissioner says that the Department's instructions of June 1, (I.T.D. 6240) and October 4, 1905, (I.T.D. 12228), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with. The Commissioner further says that no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living September 1, 1902, he would recommend that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this office and the Department and that his office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits as to the deaths of these persons are herewith transmitted, and the recommendation of Commissioner Bixby is concurred in.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you transmitted affidavits relative to the death of certain persons whose names appear upon the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended, as departmental instructions of June 1, 1905, and October 4, 1905, as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with, that their names be stricken from the copies of the approved roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation.

Reporting September 18, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

Proper steps will be taken by the Department and the Indian Office for the cancellation of such names from the approved rolls, and you are authorized to strike their names from the proper rolls in your possession, as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FORT GIBSON, I.T., AUGUST 29, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth A. Thompson for enrollment of herself and three grand-children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said Thompson being sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Elizabeth A. Thompson.
Q Your age? A 73.
Q Your postoffice? A Fort Gibson.
Q Your district? A Illinois.
Q Whom do you want to have put on the rolls? A Myself and three grand-children.
Q Are these grand-children members of your family? A Yes.
Q Live with you? A No sir, two of them are with their father.
Q Why don't he apply for them? A I don't know. I was appointed their guardian under Cherokee law to put them on the pay-roll and '96 roll.
Q Have you letters of guardianship? A Yes, but I didn't bring them with me.
Q Are they all under 21 years of age? A Yes.
Q All of them unmarried? A Yes.
Q Where is the father of these two (3?) children? A He lives in the Choctaw Nation. He married a white woman. Two children live with him and go to school in Caddo.

Q Now have you personal testimony her that you can introduce to show that your daughter Carrie lived with her husband until her death some 8 years ago? A Yes, there's Mrs. Wash.

TOOKAH WASH, being sworn, testified:

Q What is your name? A Tookah Wash.

Q Your age? A 45.

Q Your postoffice? A Fort Gibson.

Q Are you a daughter of this lady, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Thompson? A Yes.

Q Are you a sister of Mrs. Carrie H. Mounts that was? A Yes.

Q Your sister is found enrolled in '80 with David A. Mounts, was that her husband? A Yes.

Q How long has your sister been dead? A 8 years.

Q Did she and her husband, David A. Mounts live together as husband and wife from the time of their enrollment in '80 until her death 7 years ago? A Yes.

Q Did they live continuously in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.

Q Are these three children your mother has applied for living at this time? A Yes.

APPLICANT CONT'D:

By J. L. Bough, Cherokee Attorney.

Q When did Mr. Mounts marry and move to the Choctaw nation? A He went away to the Choctaw Nation about three weeks before his wife died and clerked for Mr. Turner at Choska, and she got worse and he came back until she died.

Q After his wife died did he go right back to the Choctaw Nation? A He went back to Choska in the Creek Nation and done business for Mr. Turner for 3 1/2-----.

Q Then married a white woman and went to the Choctaw nation? A Yes, but stayed there awhile before he went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q Did he take these two young children with him? A Yes.

Q Then he kept them there? A He lets them come back and visit.

Q That is their home there? A Yes, they stay there.

Q The elder child is living with you in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.

Q Was he lived with you since his mother's death? A Yes, except six months he clerked at Choska.

Q Was he been staying with you for the last 4 or 5 years? A Only when he was at school and when he clerked at Choska.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

She applies for her three grand-children named in the testimony, and states that she has letters of guardianship for them. The two younger of the children, now 16 and 18 years of age, are at present making their home with their father in the Choctaw Nation and have done so since their mother's death some 7 or 8 years ago. Their father, a white man, is identified on the roll of '80 with his Cherokee wife and it is shown by responsible personal testimony that they continued to live together as husband and wife in the Cherokee Nation until her death, some 7 or 8 years ago. He is now in the Choctaw Nation. He is not applying for enrollment and he is keeping in his care these two younger children at the present time. The elder of these children, who is shown by the testimony of his grand-mother and his aunt to be 20 years of age, has lived almost continuously with his grand-mother in the Cherokee nation since the death of his mother, having been out of the Cherokee nation only for a few months with his father some seven years ago. These three children are identified on the roll of '96 and the eldest one of the three on the roll of '80. They will all three be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Statement by J.L. Baugh, Cherokee Attorney:

The Cherokee Nation, through its attorneys, protests against the enrollment of David H. and Teddy R. Mounts on the grounds that their father has removed them without the limits of the Cherokee Nation, and that they have not lived within the limits of the Cherokee Nation for the last 6 or 8 years.

APPLICANT'S TESTIMONY CONT'D:

By the Commission:

Q Mrs. Thompson, when was it that the father of these two younger children took them from the Cherokee Nation to live with him outside the limits of the Cherokee nation? A In '93 he took the youngest one. I stayed with the children so they could go to school, and they thought I was going to die and he took the baby and the two oldest ones were sent to the institute at Tahlequah.

Q I am talking to you about Teddy R. and David H.— how long have they been living outside of the Cherokee nation with their father?

A He took the little one, Howard, in the spring of '93.

Q Has that child, Howard been living out of the Cherokee Nation with his father ever since '93? A No sir, he has been back and stayed with me at times.

Q How long did he keep him out in '93? A He took them out in March and let them come back in June of the same year.

Q You say he took "them"— I am asking about Howard? A Howard is the only one he took in March.

Q And came back in June? A Yes.

Q How long did Howard stay here after he brought him back? A He made his home with me until after his father married.

Q About '96 or '97? A Yes.

Q Then took Howard back to the Choctaw Nation? A Yes.

Q And Howard has lived with him continuously since that time? A Yes. Has only been back once on a visit.

Q Where did Teddy live during that time? A He stayed here and went to school and after his father married he took him.

Q So Teddy has lived with his father outside of the Cherokee Nation about 3 years? A Yes.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by internarrriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by internarrriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Q These children are all three living at this time in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of '60 and '96 as a native Cherokee and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His present wife, Mary D. Balentine, is identified on the roll of '96 as his wife. She is identified on the roll of '80 under the name of her former husband. She is shown to be a native Cherokee on said rolls and reliable personal testimony establishes the marriage between this woman as enrolled in '80 and after the death of her former husband and to the present applicant. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Applicant's three children, Fannie M., William H. and Annie M., are all the children of a former wife. They are all identified on the roll of '96. The first of the three is identified also on the roll of '80. It has been shown that the applicant has been identified in the roll of '60 and the mother of these children is likewise identified on the roll of '80, and she is shown by reliable personal testimony to have continued to live with him until her death as his wife. The applicant and these children have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives, and these children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of September, 1899.

W. H. Balentine

Commissioner.

FRANK KERR, being sworn, testified:

Q What is your name? A Frank Kerr.

Q Your age? A 80.

Q Your postoffice? A Menard.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know the applicant here, Mr. Balentine? A Yes.

Q Do you know his present wife? A Yes.

Q What is her given name, do you remember? A Mary D.

Q About when were they married? A About 5 years at least and maybe more; I don't remember when they were married.

Q What was her name before they were married? A She was a widow Walker.

Q What was her name before she was a Walker? A A Johnson.

Q How this is Mr. Balentine's second wife? A Yes.

Q What was his first wife named? A Keys.

Q What was her given name? A Fannie.

Q When did he marry her— before '80? A I don't remember.

Q Was it a great many years ago? A We has children grown.

Q Do you remember the names of any of his children? A Will, Fannie— he has three living by his first wife— two girls and a boy.

Q And you say that they were living together as husband and wife before Fannie was born? A Yes.

Q Did they live together for a year or two before Fannie was born? A I don't remember.

Q But you remember Fannie as a child of their marriage? A Yes.

Applicant on '80 roll, page 734, number 76, as W. H. Balentine.

On '96 roll, page 1138, number 806.

- Q What is your name? A Cyrus A. Watkins.
 Q What is your age? A Forty six.
 Q What is your Postoffice? A Catoosa.
 Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
 Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
 Q For whom do you apply? A Myself and children; five children.
 Q Not your wife? A No sir; she is dead.
 Q How long have you been a resident of the Cherokee Nation?
 A About twenty six years.
 Q Continuously; right along? A Yes sir.
 Q Your father and mother are non citizens? A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of your wife? A She was on the roll in 1880 as Nancy Rhider.
 Q When did you marry her? A In 1889.
 Q When did she die? A She died in 1895.
 Q Did you live with her continuously until the time of her death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of her father? A I think it was Whitekiller.
 Q Is he living? A No sir.
 Q Did he die before 1880? A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of her mother? A She was a Cordrey, before she married.
 Q Is she living? A No sir.
 Q Do you know how long her mother has been dead? A No sir; she has been dead twenty, twenty five, probably thirty years.
 Q What is the name of your child? A Minnie M. Watkins.
 Q How old is Minnie? A She is eighteen.
 Q Next child? A Thomas S. Watkins.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.
